

NERVOUS, IRRITABLE, AILING WOMEN

Mrs. Britten Tells How She Was Restored To Health After Suffering for More Than A Year.

Another Triumph for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dimondale, Mich.—"I had inflammation and a displacement and weakness, and it had been neglected so long that it caused great pain, and this affected my mind and nerves so that I was very irritable. I had severe pains every month, so that I was often obliged to lie in bed for two days at a time. I suffered for more than a year before my friends said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' So I purchased one bottle after another until I had taken ten bottles, then Lydia E. Pinkham's Sensitive Wash. I received so much benefit from this treatment that I am now able to do my own work."—Mrs. W. D. BRITTEN, R. No. 2, Dimondale, Mich.

Another Michigan Woman says: "I was bothered for a long time with female troubles and was so nervous I felt almost afraid at times. I also had a pain in my right side and was certainly in a bad way. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has relieved me of these nervous feelings and pains and I am much better in every way. I don't know just how many bottles I have taken, but I took it for nearly a year and it has done me a world of good."—Mrs. JESSIE CHANDLER, R. No. 8, Box 51, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Good health is a woman's greatest asset. With it she may be the inspiration of her husband, a happy mother, and the life of the home. Without it she suffers agonies herself, household duties are a burden, and her family is made miserable by her condition.

Is it any wonder that these women were nervous and irritable after suffering so long from such deranged conditions? Such ailments directly upon the nerves, and it has been said that a large percentage of nervous prostration, nervous despondency, "the blues," and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

If women who are in this condition would only profit by the experience of others and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, much suffering and unhappiness would be averted, as everyone knows a nervous, irritable, ailing mother makes the home unhappy and her condition irritates both husband and children.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Ann's, Hope River Church, on Tuesday, July 13th, when Miss Margaret Anne Gallant, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Belony Gallant, became the wife of Mr. Cornelius Edward Herrell, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Herrell, both of this parish. Rev. Fr. Herrell, brother of the groom officiated. The bride was becomingly dressed in a white crepe-de-chene with satin ribbon and silver trimmings, with hat to match. White the bridesmaid was dressed in brown silk and a picture hat to match. The bride was attended by Miss Annie Herrell, sister of the groom, while Mr. Joshua Gallant cousin of the bride supported the groom. After the ceremony was performed the bridal party drove to the home of the bride where a sumptuous breakfast awaited them. After breakfast the happy couple drove to Charlottetown on their honeymoon, when they returned in the evening to the home of the bride, where a well prepared supper awaited them. Amongst the invited guests were Rev. Fr. Herrell and Rev. Fr. MacDonald. The evening a very enjoyable one was spent in music, dancing and singing. At a reasonable hour the few invited guests departed for their home wishing the happy couple a long and happy wedded life. Mr. and Mrs. Herrell who received many useful presents, will reside in St. Patrick where a nice farm and well furnished home awaits them.

WEDDING BELLS—On Thursday morning at 10 a. m. an event of pleasing interest occurred at the home of Mrs. James Harris, 137 Hillsboro St., when Hattie M., a daughter of the home, was united in marriage to Mr. Daniel Clifford Moore of East Royal. The bride, beautifully attired in a travelling suit of sand serge with hat to match, was led by her brother Clarence W. Harris of Summerside, to the parlor which was fittingly decorated with an arch festooned with maiden hair ferns and roses. The bride's bouquet was carnations and continued in the service till the happy couple left for a wedding trip to the mainland. Mr. Moore enlisted early in the war and continued in the service till the close. He received wounds as a mark of his valor. On his return he settled in the comfortable farm house near the city, where his bride will preside with her usual ability. The many beautiful and valuable presents, testify to the esteem in which the bride was held by her many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Moore are both deservedly popular and begin their married life under very favorable auspices. The Guardian extends congratulations.

York, P. E. Island.
May 3rd, 1921.

To Rev. and Mrs. Littlejohns.
Dear Friends—Good evening for the purpose of celebrating in a fitting manner the termination of another year of the activities of our "Young Peoples Society."

The year that is closing tonight has been one of unclouded success. Our enrollment has been large, the attendance regular, our activities varied and interesting, and all of our undertakings have been entered upon with the greatest enthusiasm.

While our officers have endeavored to do their work efficiently, the hearty co-operation of our members was an important factor in our favor. Yet we cannot but realize that much of the success of our organization is due to your inspiring leadership. Mr. Littlejohns and to your splendid assistance Mrs. Littlejohns.

The ease and freedom with which you entered into the various activities of our Society, the tact and judgment you displayed in dealing with questions that arose from time to time the noble example of Christian good-fellowship which has characterized every phase of your association with us, has been an inspiration to us all, and the benefits we have received from a social, intellectual and spiritual standpoint are such as to make us grateful that we have been, even for a short time, associated with you in this work of community uplift.

For you, Mrs. Littlejohns our feelings are of the kindest. Your tact, your sympathy, your good judgment, and your intellectual gifts have made you easily a leader in any work you undertake, and begin their career has won for you a place in our affections which time cannot destroy.

Tonight we bring our activities to an end and we are sorry that it must be so. The past winter is one that we shall always look back upon with pleasure as of time well spent.

We ask you, Mr. and Mrs. Littlejohns to accept these gifts, as a remembrance of the many pleasant and profitable evenings we have spent together.
