The usual Grand Orange Celebration will be held on the Exhibition Grounds, Charlottetown, on Monday, July 12, 1915.

It has been persistently reported that there would not be a Celebration this year, but the Committee believe there is greater reason than ever why this great national and patriotic celebration should be a glorious success.

The Protestant Orphanage is in greater need of funds during this critical period than if there was no war. Every cent raised will be for the benefit of that most worthy institution.

While thousands of our brethren and fellow citizens are at the front fighting the battles of freedom the committee believe that thousands of our people at home will be glad to show their devotion to the cause of freedom by uniting with us in the celebration of the Glorious Twelfth.

Posters and full particulars will be published in a few days.

ABNER CROWE MET HORRIBLE DEATH AT NEW GLASGOW

NEW GLASGOW, N. S., June 20.—Abner Crowe, aged sixty-five, an employee of the Maritime Bridge Company here, was instantly killed on Saturday, the result of an accident at that plant. While he was operating a radical drill his clothing came in contact with the rapidly revolving wheel and wound about the spindle, whirling the unfortunate man against various objects with such force as to cause instant death. The deceased came to New Glasgow two years ago from Londonderry, Colchester County. He was married and with his family resided on Townsend Avenue.

APPRECIATION

Milton, P. E. Island, June 24th, 1915. P. H. Trainor & Son

Dear Sirs,—The Committee appointed to look after the repainting, varnishing and decorating the interior of St. John's Church, Milton at its meeting last evening, (June 23rd) "desires to express its high appreciation of the most satisfactory way in which you have fulfilled the contract entered into by your firm." They, the Committee, desire that a copy of this resolution be given you and that the papers be asked kindly to publish the same. Believe me on behalf of the Committee

Yours Truly, SAMUEL TRIVETT, Rector.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers leave Government House early next week after four years occupancy. They will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends. The many patriotic, philanthropic and missionary organizations in the city lose a valued patron and president in Mrs. Rogers, who has been indefatigable in furthering every good cause. In Alberton Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will occupy a beautiful new home erected for them, and although away from the city Mrs. Rogers hopes to continue as far as possible her active interest and participation in the various institutions with which she was long connected during her residence here.

His Honor the Governor and Mrs. Macdonald do not expect to take up residence in Government House for several weeks. A good deal of repairs and renovation have to be undertaken and this will be carried through by the Public Works Department before the new governor and his family come to town.

The Presbyterian met in Summerside this week and the meetings were most interesting and well attended. Mrs. Rogers, the President and Mrs. Thompson, late missionary from Trinidad were among the important delegates.

A slender arch of ferns in front of the altar with masses of pink peonies, field daisies and ferns, decorated St. George's Church, St. Anne de Bellevue, Montreal, Thursday afternoon for the wedding of the incumbent, Rev. Charles Frederick Lancaster, M. A., to Miss Georgina Evelyn Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Cox, of Charlottetown, P. E. I. The service, at which Venerable Archdeacon Paterson Smyth officiated, was fully choral, with the choir in attendance, and Prof. Stanton played the wedding march. Mr. P. W. St. George gave away the bride who wore a costume of sapphire blue moire, white hat with white roses, and a shower bouquet of roses, lilies-of-the-valley, and maiden hair fern. Mr. Charles Stephen and Mr. Robert Holcomb acted as ushers. The bride's father and mother came up from Charlottetown, the latter wearing a black silk costume, and a black hat with white plume. Mrs. W. P. St. George wore a black silk gown and black hat, trimmed with black and white tulle. Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster left immediately on the Ocean Limited for Baie des Chaleurs to spend the honeymoon camping at New Carlisle. At the close of the evening service, on Sunday, Rev. Mr. Lancaster was presented by his parishioners and friends with a purse of gold.

The weather played havoc this week with all out-door sports, so that recreation was practically at a standstill. If the Golf Links are in a condition for playing this afternoon a mixed foursomes (handicap) will be played. The hostesses for the tea hour will be Mrs. Bartlett and Miss Bartlett.

Mrs. R. K. Smith, of Amherst, was the hostess of a charming card party on Thursday evening last, for her guest, Mrs. Brennan, of Summerside. Auction was played at seven tables and the very pretty prizes were won by Mrs. Harris Hagan and Mrs. Benjamin Swetnam. Mrs. Brennan is now visiting Valcartier, where her husband, Capt. Brennan, of the 6th Mounted Rifles, is stationed.

Among the home-comers this week who are being gladly welcomed is Mrs. Lee-Spencer, of Calgary, who with her two children, will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Justice Hassard.

Mrs. Phillip Palmer, who has been the guest of her brother, Major A. A. Bartlett and Mrs. Bartlett, leaves early next week on return to her home in St. John.

The young people who enjoy Tennis are looking forward to nice weather to-day so that they may have a pleasant afternoon for their tea, the hostesses to be Miss Hegan, the Misses Taylor and Miss E. Hassard.

Although the weather was cold and damp on Monday last, the St. James Tennis Courts were kept busy during the afternoon and evening, and several well-contested sets were played especially by the gentlemen. Tea was served in the schoolroom by Mrs. Burnett, Miss Worth, Miss Thomson and Miss Irving.

Mrs. W. Green, of New York, has arrived in Charlottetown to spend part of the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Carson Flood.

Miss Mary Davies, daughter of Sir Louis and Lady Davies, has left Ottawa to visit her brother, Mr. Tom Davies, and Mrs. Davies in Edmonton.

Miss Barrett had a delightful closing for her little ones yesterday at the Kindergarten, when a number of invited guests and parents were present. The exercises were pleasantly terminated by a party greatly to the delight of the little tots.

Miss Bessie C. MacKay, whose marriage is announced for June 30 in St. James Church, was the guest of honor at a Kitchen Shower given for her on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hornby. A delightful evening was passed in Auction Bridge, Mrs. L. J. Reddin being the fortunate prize winner. Refreshments were daintily served, after which the bride-to-be was "showered" with many very useful gifts.

Colonel Ings is being welcomed home from Valcartier, although his furlough is caused by an injured knee, his horse having fallen, pinning the colonel to the ground.

Among the private functions given for the visiting Shriners, was a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Donell. The decorations were unique, a Masonic touch being given by a large square and compass, outlined with frosted lights on one side the dining-room. The centre piece was a mound pool, banked with flowers, among which birds of many colors glistened in the light, a camel and goat at each end, caused much laughter and many funny stories. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Barry Bent, Amherst; Mr. and Mrs. McDougall, Sydney; Misses Stonham, Yarmouth; Shafeur, Annapolis; Alexandra, Halifax; Ellis, Newfoundland, and Casey, Amherst.
