Stock Markets At A Glance

WINNIPEG, April 29 — (CP)— Rye futures displayed irregularity in quiet trading on the Winnipeg grain exchange today and prices eased slightly to finish 2 1-2-3-4 cents lower.

In the export market a shipment of 1,000,000 bushels of oats was taken for distribution by U. N. R. R. A. This completed Canada's 5,000,000 bushel oat commitment to the relief association. There was no export business in wheat.

NEW YORK, April 29 — (AP) —Stocks shuffled over a somewhat irregular terrain today as the market stepped into the fifth year of the third longest bull swing on record.

Dealings were slack throughout —transfers of 1,000,000 shares compared with 1,210,000 Friday and were the smallest for a full stretch since March 28.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was up .1 of a point at 79.4.

TORONTO, April 29 — (CP) — Following a week of lagging action both mining groups gained .58 on the Toronto market today and the western oils finished the day with a gain of .28.

Several of the junior golds moved in heavy volume at higher prices. Diversified was a leader, trading in volume of 54,000 shares on a net gain of 11 cents to close at 1.05. Duvay was equally active on a gain of 3 1-2 cents and small gains were netted by Coin Lake, Homer, Kenville, Lunward, Richmac and Springer-Sturgeon.

MONTREAL, April 29 — (CP)— Price adjustments were irregularly higher in trading today on the stock exchange and curb market. Industrials edged up to a new all-time high in the indices. Papers were better in the averages and Utilities, after some uncertainty around mid-day, were improved at the bell. Volume was small in the junior mines division. Featured in the sub-divisions was strength in selected liquor issues.
