The Stranger in Your Cup

Those stalks you see in your tea cup have no business there at all. They contain absolutely no tea essence; they are like stones in fruit, adding to the weight and price, but you cannot digest them.

The best Tea is

because it is made from carefully selected leaves from which the stalks have been extracted.

That is why it is so richly flavoured so healthful and more economical than most Teas.

It is all Tea, the good part of the Tea leaf without the bad wasteful parts.

MacKINNON-SUTHERLAND WEDDING.— The marriage of Miss Mary Hilda MacKinnon, daughter of Mrs. Ellen M. MacKinnon, to Augustine J. Sutherland, of Anyox, B. C., took place on November 28th, at Saint Peter's Church, Dorchester Mass., the Rev. M. J. Danahy officiating. The bride who was given away by her brother, Paul D. MacKinnon, U. S. A., was attired in a traveling suit of Japanese blue broadcloth, with large picture hat, her bouquet being of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Angela, acting as bridesmaid wore a becoming suit of navy blue, with hat to correspond. Mr. Louis W. Burke of St. John's, N. F., attended as best man. Many beautiful and valuable presents testified to the esteem of numerous friends. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful set of taupe wolf furs and to the bridesmaid a necklace of pearls. Following the ceremony the happy couple left for New York. Returning from their honeymoon, they will make their home in Worchester, Mass. Both bride and groom were former residents of St. Peter's Bay, where they have made friends who wish them every happiness.

A TRIBUTE.— The following reference to the late John McKenzie is from the Presbyterian Witness. — Rev. A. Ferguson sends us the following tribute to the late John MacKenzie (Tailor) eldest in the congregation of Strathalbayn, P. E. I. Mr McKenzie rendered valuable service as elder of the Presbyterian Church for fifty years and for twenty-five years faithfully discharged the duties of a teacher in the Sabbath School. He was by nature gentle, modest and warm-hearted and by grace a devout, humble and consistent christian. He was highly endowed with both mental and spiritual gifts. For a number of years previous to his death he was unable to attend church, but his mind was active and clear and his interest in the church's welfare never failed. He was fond of good books and especially, "The Book." He loved the Gaelic language in which he was very conversant. He was broadminded above the average layman. His views were intelligent and up to date in all matters in church and state. The writer enjoyed the frequent opportunity of his company and recalls with pleasure the many inspiring conversations with him in his own home. He was a wise counsellor for his pastor, and an example to his brother elders in his zeal for the cause of Christ and his love for peace and harmony in the church. He leaves to mourn one daughter in the old home at Springton.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN'S HOSTS.—The Prime Minister will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Paton Prince St. while in the city.

WOULDN'T GIVE IT AWAY.—The women of Charlottetown, although not saying much are thinking much and on December 17th the voices of the great majority of them will go to swell the majority for Messrs Nicholson and Martin. While courteous to those who solicit their votes and not wihsing to offend by a point blank refusal they usually find a way out of the difficulty. This way exemplified the other day by a lady whose native Irish humour came to her rescue. Two Laurierite Candidates had been for some considerable time upholding their claims for her support at the polls when she dismissed the appeal with a "Don't bother me! This is the first vote I ever had in my life and I'm not going to give it away."

WEDDING BELLS.—On November 27th St. Anne's Church, Hope River, was the scene of a happy event when Mr. Leander Reid, a most distinguished and prominent young man of that place, was united in marriage to one of Hope River's highly respected young ladies, Miss Florence Turner, daughter of Mr. James Turner. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Gaudet P. P. The bride was attended by Miss Sarah Garnhum, Charlottetown, while the groom was supported by his brother Mr. John Reid. The bride was becomingly gowned in cream satin and wore a picture hat and carried a bouquet of brides roses while the bridesmaid wore white silk and hat to match and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums. The bride was given away by her father while Miss Florence Reid sister of the groom played the wedding march. After the conclusion of the Nuptial Mass the happy party returned to the home of the bride where dinner was served. A reception was held in the evening when their many friends assembled and whiled away the night wth dancing and other amusements. After a night of unequalled pleasure the guests departed leaving numerous beautiful presents and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Reid a long and happy life of wedded bliss. The grooms present to the bride was a gold watch and fob to the bridesmaid a gold chain and pendant.

KITCHEN SHOWER AT BURLINGTON.— On Friday evening, Nov. 23, a number of friends from Burlington and Long River gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell who have recently moved into their comfortable new house. During the course of the evening, Mrs. Campbell was led to the kitchen to find that while the rain had been descending outside a lot of useful kitchen articles, including a clock, lamp, and various articles of tin and graniteware had fallen upon the kitchen table. One of the company then explained to Mrs. Campbell that the friends assembled had thought this a suitable occasion on which to show their kind feelings towards their host and hostess and asked her to accept the kitchen shower. Mrs. Campbell, in a few fitting remarks for their kindness. After lunch was served by some members of the party the visitors were entertained with excellent music furnished by Mrs. Campbell and a very interesting and humorous recitation by one of the company. After singing the National Anthem the friends bade good-night to their host and hostess, feeling that the evening had been a very pleasant one.

SOLDIER'S WIFE WILL RECEIVE $25 A MONTH

Increase of Five Dollars Monthly Separation Allowance.

January Cheque to Dependents Will Be For Thirty Dollars.

An Order-in-Council has been passed increasing the separation allowance paid to wives and other dependents of soldiers below the rank of Sergeant, in the Canadian Expeditionary Force from $20 to $25 per month, beginning December 1. The effect of this is that in the month of January the wife or other dependent of every soldier hitherto in receipt of $20 per month will receive $30, the extra ten dollars representing the increase for the two months of December and January and in each month thereafter she will receive $25 instead of $20 as heretofore. Cheques for January will be issued earlier than usual.

In Public Interest.

The official announcement goes on to say:

"This is in accordance with the policy which has been followed by the Union Government and is another evidence of its desire to advance the welfare of the soldiers and their dependents in every way, consistent with sound national policy.

"A short time ago upon the recommendation of the Minister of Finance, the Government announced a substantial increase in the scale of pensions and this action was received throughout the country with every evidence of hearty approval. Latterly representations have been made by public bodies by the Great War Veterans' Association and by individuals, to the effect that in view of the increased cost of living, an increase in the scale of separation allowance should be made. The Government, having carefully considered all the conclusion that the action proposed would afford needed assistance to the families of soldiers and that it was therefore in the public interest.

Remove Friction Source.

"The above change will make the separation allowance payable to the wife or other dependent of a soldier below the rank of sergeant, equal to that paid the wife of a sergeant and, on this account, will incidentally remove what has proved to be a fruitful source of trouble. In the past some confusion has inevitably resulted from frequent promotions to and reversions from the rank of sergeant, as each such change involved a change in the amount of seperation allowance payable to the family concerned. The amount of separation allowance now paid, together with the $15 pay, which every soldier is compelled to assign to his wife or other person in receipt of separation allowance, will insure that all such persons will be in receipt of a minimum of $40 per month."

GERMANY'S SLAVES.

The Germans have forcibly enlisted the labor of about 2,000,000 prisoners of war. Moreover, the official French report of April 12, 1917, concerning acts committed by the by the Germans in violation of international law, asserts that in the occupied territories deportation of workers has been a general measure. It has "applied to the entire able-bodied pupulation of both sexes, from the ages of 16 to 60, excepting women with young children."

Now the German requisition labor from among 7,500,000 Belgians, 3,000,000 French, 4,500,000 Serbians $5,000,000 Roumanians, 22,000,000, Poles Ruthenians and Lithuanians—a total of 42,000,000 slaves.

Let us see what sort of renumeraiton is made. Take the case of a young girl of Lille, 20 years old, who was forced to work for six months, harvesting and thrashing wheat, and digging potatoes from 6 in the morning to twlight, receiving all the while the vilest food. For her six months of work she was given 9 francs 45 sentimes ($1.89.)

The allies on the contrary, pay high wages to their workers, and, when they run short, must needs pour out good gold in bringing reinforcements from Asia, Africa and America. This means that a considerable part of the wages paid these foreign workmen will leave France or England for all time.— Andre Cheradame, in The Atlantic Monthly.
