WEDDING BELLS—The Baptist Parsonage at New Glasgow, N. S. was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, Sept. 1, at 4 p.m. The contracting parties were Chas. Harold Steele, of Charlottetown, P. E. Island, and Miss Katie McLeenan, of Annandale, P. E. Island. The ceremony, which was witnessed by immediate friends of the bride and groom, was performed by Rev. Wm. U. Hatfield, pastor of the First Church. Mr. and Mrs. Steele, who are receiving the congratulations of their many friends, are making their future home at New Glasgow.

WEDDING BELLS—The marriage of Miss Anna Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Campbell, of Campbell's Cove, to Dr. Alfred Arthur Mullally, was solemnized on Wednesday morning, August 18, in St. Columba's Church, East Point, at 9 a.m., the Rev. F. L. Mullally, cousin of the groom, officiating, assisted by Rev. A. L. Smeatt, Rev. Ar. J. McIntyre. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore white canton crepe satin trimmed with chantilly lace. Her tulle veil across the head was caught with clusters of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilacs of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Angie Lannan, wore apricot georgette with hat to match, and carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart roses. George Mullally, brother of the groom, acted as best man. After the ceremony about eighty guests attended a wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents. In the evening the bride and bridegroom left for a honeymoon by motor to Quebec, St. Anne De Beaupre, Montreal, and the White Mountains, extending over a period of two weeks, after which the couple will be at home, at 51 Oakland Street, Mattapan, Mass.

FLEMMING-DORNAN—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Thomas' Church, Memramcook, at eight o'clock, Thursday morning, Sept. 2nd, when Dorothy A. Dornan, formerly of this town, became the bride of Gerald R. Fleming of Bay View, P. E. I. The bride looked very dainty and charming in her dress of sand satin and georgette embroidered in silver with hat to

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

To Weston, Alfred and Malcolm Martin.

Dear Brothers,—We, your brothers of Thistle L. O. L. No. 2178, wish to convey to you our deep and heartfelt sympathy for the bereavement through which you have passed by the sad and sudden death of your dear father, the late Mr. Angus E. Martin. Possessed of high principles and sterling qualities, he was a man loved by his neighbors and respected by all who knew him. We would commend you to the great loving Father of us all. Who alone is able to comfort and sustain your sorrowing hearts. May you and your dear mother and sisters be assured that God's ways are best, and we are in His keeping, and may He keep you under the shadow of His wing until the day comes when—

Heart to heart and hand to hand, Love shall clasp again her own, In God's sunless summer land, Where good-bye is never known.
