

Men Who Don't Exercise

Suffer From Indigestion, Headache, Poor Appetite, Sleeplessness.

Nothing so Sure to "Set Up" a Man, Make Him Feel Brisk and Vigorous as Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

Lack of exercise and overwork were the causes that combined to almost kill Samuel S. Stephens, Jr., one of the best known citizens in Woodstock.

In his convincing letter Mr. Stephens says— "A year ago I returned home after a long trip, completely worn out. I was so badly affected by chronic biliousness, so much overcome by constant headaches, dizziness, that I despaired of ever getting well. I was always tired and languid, had no energy and spirit, found it difficult to sleep for more than five hours. My appetite was so rickety that I ate next to nothing, and in consequence lost weight and strength. I was pale and had dark rings under my eyes that made me look like a shadow.

"It was a blessing that I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills. In one week I felt like a new man. The feeling of weight and nausea in my stomach disappeared. My eyes looked brighter, color grew better, and, best of all, I began to enjoy my meals. The dizziness, languor, and feeling of depression passed away, and I fast regained my old-time vigor and spirits. Today I am well—thanks to Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

For health, strength, comfort and good spirits there is no medicine like Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Beware of substitutes, and don't let any dealer palm off some other pill on which he can make more money. 25c per box, or five boxes for $1.00, by mail from The Catarhazone Company, Kingston, Ont.

THE CUP THAT CHEERS Dominion Blend Tea

(Registered) Are you dispirited? Are you out of sorts? A cup of Dominion Blend Tea will put you on your feet.

Heard the "Sausage" Yelp.

In a little restaurant where the waiter insists upon slamming down your plate or saucer a man had ordered a sandwich and a cup of coffee. Then he decided to put an addenda to his order.

"Gimme a plate o' that country sausage too," he told the waiter. Just then the accident happened. Somebody stepped on the tail of a small, anemic looking yellow pup dog that had followed another customer into the restaurant. The dog gave three staccato yelps.

"Ah, just countermand that order for sausage," growled the man with the face. "I didn't know you had to go and make it!"—Los Angeles Herald.

A Woman's Reasoning.

"I suppose," she said with a heart-felt sigh, "there will be no cooks or maids to worry us when we get to heaven."

"No," her husband replied, "and no dressmakers or beauty shops or millinery establishments or—"

"Why, John, what are you thinking of? I've never seen a picture of an angel that didn't have on a robe of some kind, and of course every woman will need lots of feathers for her wings, won't she? Doesn't the Bible tell us to lay up treasures in heaven? Why would we need to do that if it wasn't going to be necessary to dress there?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Obscure Expert.

"The people who do the real work are not always conspicuous," said the ready-made philosopher.

"That's right," replied the man with the frivolous hat. "The best photographer at a picnic always has to manage the camera and never gets into the picture."—Washington Star.

Different Valuations.

Some one asked the old farmer what his cow was worth.

"Waal," he answered with a knowing wink, "that depends on whether she's goin' to be killed by the butcher or the railroad."—Chicago News.

The Change.

Mrs. White (to former servant)—Where are you living now, Gladys? Gladys Lorena Brownback—Wellum—uh-kee, hee—I isn't livin' nowhubs now. I's mar'dl—Puck.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY.

The Canadian Pacific is the Short Direct Route Charlottetown to Montreal, the trip being made in twenty-four hours. Close connections are made for all points beyond, and changes and transfers are avoided. New electric light sleepers on the C. P. R. Halifax Montreal run, and this road has the best dining car service. This is the only line operating compartment cars—Montreal and Ottawa to Toronto, and Montreal and Toronto to Vancouver, J. K. Ross, the local C. P. R. agent, can supply all information. drtf.

Bacon—And is her husband paying her homage?

Egbert—No; just alimony.—Yonkers Statesman.

Spoiled the Picture.

Bug Artist—I think I will go in for portraits, where careless pedestrians will not spoil my subjects.

Tragedies Told by the Types.

The headlines ever tell. Like "Thought It Wasn't Loaded" and "He Didn't Hear the Bell!"—Los Angeles Express.

The tragedies, the tragedies We read on every side. Like "Tried to Break a Record" and "Mistaken For a Guide!"—Milwaukee Sentinel.

The tragedies, the tragedies A lack of sense denote. Like "Ventured in Deep Water" and "Worse still, 'He Rocked the Boat!'"—Springfield Union.

The tragedies, the tragedies—What damage we infer—Like "Tried to Cross Before the Train" and, too, "He Married Her!"—Boston Transcript.

YOU CAN HAVE HEALTHY HAIR

What a pity it is to observe so many people with thin and faded hair and then realize that the most of these people might have a fine, healthy head of hair if they would but use the simple "sage tea" of our grandmothers, combined with other ingredients for restoring and preserving the hair. No one, young or old need have gray hair, weak, thin or falling hair, dandruff or any trouble of the sort if they would but use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Remedy. On the contrary, it is possible to have healthy, vigorous hair, of perfect color, by a few applications of this remarkable preparation.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy quickly removes dandruff, leaves the scalp clean and healthy, promotes the growth of hair and restores the natural color of the hair which has become faded or gray. It is a clean, wholesome dressing, which may be used at any time and with perfect safety. Don't neglect your hair. Start today with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents MacKinnon Drug Co., Kent and Great George Streets, and E. A.
