THE PEOPLE'S

The numerous readers of the Boston American and other Hearts newspapers in this city were given an opportunity last evening of seeing the serial "Perils of Pauline," which was published by this big newspaper syndicate last year.

The serial will run for twenty weeks, and if each instalment is as full of interest and excitement as last evening's three reels, the People's will have to enlarge their seating capacity.

The "Perils of Pauline" and "The Lost Paradise" will be shown for the last time at all shows to-day—at the matinee at 3.15 and both evening shows, 7.15 and 8.50.

CARSON WAS RELUCANT. LONDON, June 15.—Sir Edward Carson the Irish Unionist leader, like John Redmond, the Irish party leader in the House of commons, did not want to join the coalition cabinet.

with the Government." Mr. Asquith said he regretted extremely the absence of any Nationalist in the cabinet, but he had done all he could to obtain the co-operation of all.

John Dillon, in behalf of the Irish party, explained that their attitude meant no desire to oppose or to snipe the new Government, which had their fullest co-operation; but actually to join it was wholly inconsistent with the obligations of the party. He felt that aid from the outside would be most valuable and he regretted that other parties of Ireland had not adopted this method of Nationalist self-effacement.

The Summer Coal Problem

Mr. Householder do you know that today the finest summer coal for domestic purposes is without doubt
