FINANCE

By Frederick Gardner
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, April 1—(AP)—Leading stocks stumbled in today's market while renewed strength was exhibited by air transport and specialty issues.

Canadian issues moved lower. Distillers Seagram, Dome and Lake Shore, International Nickel, Industrial Alcohol, Ford, Imperial Oil and Imperial Tobacco dipped fractions. Brazilian Traction was steady

There were cheering spots on the industrial horizon but even an unexpected jump of one full point in this week's steel mill operations were virtually ignored as a buying incentive for the majority of stocks.

American Airlines reached a new 1940 high with a gain of 3 1-4 points at 65 1-2, and United Air Lines, Eastern Air Lines and Pan American Airways were up. Given a moderate lift also on profits hopes were Canada Dry, White Rock, Brunswick-Balke, Loft and McKesson & Robbins

With sub pivotals as U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors and Chrysler on the downside for fractions to a point or so, the Associated Press average of 60 issues was off .2 of a point at 50.1. After a fairly fast forenoon, dealings slackened and transfers for the full session amounted to 649,080 shares compared with 836,530 last Friday.

Copperweld Steel was an exception in the metal group, touching a new top for the year.

TORONTO, April 1—(CP)—Price movements were irregular on the Toronto exchange today, the golds and industrials posting minor index losses and the base metal and western oil shares closing on the up side. Volume was normal at 392,000 shares with some of the penny golds bulking in the turnover.

A gain of 1 3-4 for Noranda to 74 was chiefly responsible for an advance of .40 for the base metal index. Hudson Bay and Nickel registered gans of 1-4 and the close was up slightly for Waite-Amulet and Falconbridge. Steep Rock weakened 2 cents to 2.44.

A gavel and block of miscellaneous and interesting sources was that presented to Niagara-on-the-Lake Rover Scouts by Honorary Field Commissioner Laidman of the Niagara District. The handle of the gavel came from a thumbstick cut and used by the late Sir George Brown, when Provincial President of the Boy Scouts Association for Ontario. The gavel head was cut from a piece of wood removed from the council fire of the first gathering of Rover Scouts at Ontario's Blue Springs Scout Reserve. The block came from an oak tree at Gilwell Park, the Scout leader's training centre in England. The block bore a brass plate with the inscription, "Royal Visit, 1939 Special Guards," reminding of the good work done by Niagara Rovers as Special Provincial Police during Their Majesties' visit last year.

THE LATE GEORGE MACLEOD

AMHERST, N. S., March 29—George MacLeod, veteran tailor who has resided in Amherst for the past fifty years, passed away at his home on Havelock Street last night following a sudden heart attack. Mr. MacLeod who was seventy-three years of age, is survived by his wife and one sone Gordon of Shawinigan Falls, P. Q., and two sisters Mrs. Allen MacKay of Quincy, Mass., and Miss Annie MacLeod of Hunter River, P. E. I.

A native of Prince Edward Island Mr. MacLeod came to Amherst over fifty years ago, and entered the employ of Chapman Bros. then known as one of the outstanding tailoring establishments in Cumberlafd County. Mr. MacLeod worked with other prominent tailoring concerns in this locality through the years, but eventually went into business for himself, and has had a business stand in the Hewson Block on Havelock Street.

The late Mr. MacLeod was an efficient tradesman and his work was thorough and honest. He was a voracious reader, a deep thinker, and a brilliant conversationalist. It was his delight to take the opposite phase of arguments, whether he was in the right ir wrong, and defend his own particular point, simply to secure a full viewpoint from other individuals. He had a a remarkable memory for past events, and his reminiscences of early days in Amherst or his native recollections of Prince Edward Island were always of genuine interest.

Frank and outspoken in his opinions, Mr. MacLeod had at heart the innate kindliness of the Scotch.

His death will be widely regretted by hundreds of friends and acquaintances.

Last Chance To See Ring Eclipse Until '94

Blackout to Hit All U.S. Ap ril 7; Use Slow Film, Short Exposure for Pictures

BY J. HUGH PRUETT

Pacific Director, American Meteor Society

Rare spectable in the daytime sky will be seen April 7 throughout most of North America when the sun stages a blackout known to science as the annular eclipse.

This solar phenomenon will be best seen in a strip of land about 160 miles wide extending entirely across the continent. Here the maximum phase will present a narrow ring of light around the moon's shadow.

The term "annular" comes from the Latin "annulus," meaning "ring." A year ago there was an annular eclipse observed in Arctic regions, but there will not be another blackout of this kind in the U.S. until 1994.

At the time of the eclipse the moon will be at about its greatest distance from the earth. Its shadow will appear too small to entirely cover the sun's disk, so totality will occur nowhere.

GULF STATES TO SEE RING ECLIPSE BEST

Central line of the zone where the annular may be seen comes very near the following localities,

Chihuahua, Mex., a spot midway between Austin and Houston, Tex., New Orleans, Biloxi, Miss., Tallahassee and Jacksonville Fla.

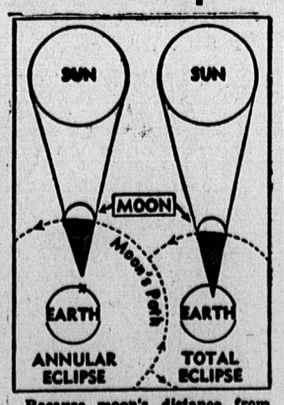
Along this line the ring phase will last from 6 to 7 1-2 minutes, varying with the locality. At the middle of this interval the ring will be of equal width all around

From places within approximately 80 miles both north and south of this central line the eclipse will appear annular, but the ring will at no time be perfectly symmetrical. It will become more lopsided the farther the observer is located from the line.

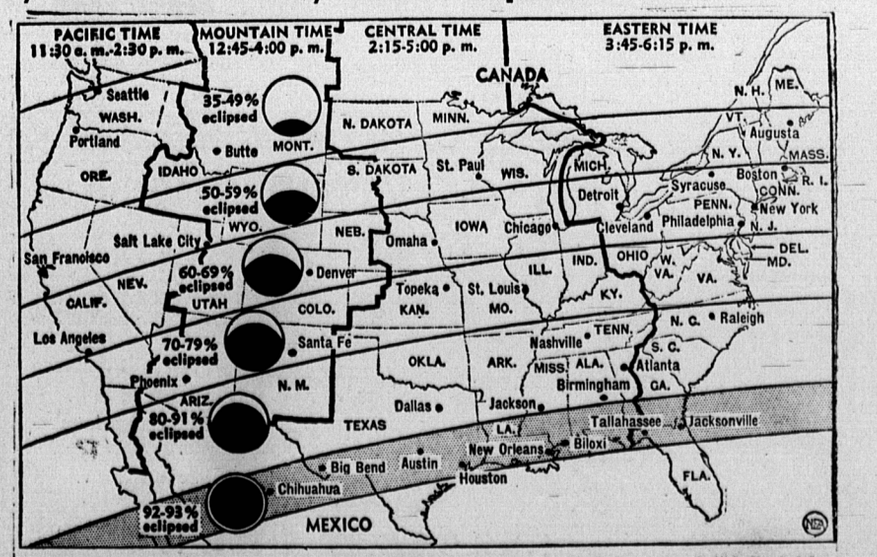
Immediately outside the annular zone the mexiumum phase will show a thin crescent of light. As the distance from this zone increases, the percentage of the sun's eclipsed diameter will decrease. At Minneapolis it will be 56 per cent; at Juneau, Alaska, only six per cent.

Amateurs photographing this eclipse with ordinary cameras will find very slow film, small stops, and the shortest possible exposures will bring best results. If the camera is allowed to stand undisturbed, and the sun is "shot" every five or 10 minutes, a series of images on one picture may be obtained.

Simplest method for viewing the phenomenon is the use of smoked glass or photographic negatives. Excellent views may be obtained through field glasses, the front lenses of which should be properly darkened.



Because moon's distance from earth varies by 30,000 miles during a month, total eclipses of the sun do not always occur when moon gets between sun and earth. Man at X will see ring around sun during annular eclipse, but would see total eclipse if moon were closer to earth.



Ring blackout of the sun on April 7, 1940 will be best seen by the U. S. in narrow belt indicated by shaded area on map. Shadowed discs show how solar phenomenon will appear at height of eclipse in various sections of the country, with moon moving from right to left across face of sun. Percentages indicate portion of sun's diameter covered by moon's shadow.
