

No Secrets To Hide
We have nothing to conceal; no secrets to hide! We publish the formulas of all our medicines. You will find these in Ayer's Almanac for 1906; or write us and we will send them to you. Then show the formulas to your doctor, and ask him what he thinks of them.
J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

OUR OPTICAL PARLORS

is equipped with the newest improved instruments for examining the eyes. If your eyes are troubling you do not neglect them.

W. W. WELLNER, Jeweler and Optician. Phone 312.

YOU ARE INVITED

If you wish the best in photography, finished on the new special mounts, (the very latest novelty.)

TO VISIT OUR STUDIO.

GEO. H. COOK
Where Baby is Always Welcome.

LOST

An appetite. FOUND
Hughes' Digestive Tonic to be the best medicine make a hearty one. Price 25c per bottle.

GEO. E. HUGHES, Apothecaries Hall.

STYLISH TOP COATS

for Autumn and Winter wear should be made to fit and please you. If you know your clothes thoroughly, intimately as we do, know of the little details, niceties of hand tailoring and fashioning embodied in each garment, you would not delay in deciding where you would place your next measurement.

D. McLAREN, TROUSER LEADER.
A Fitted Tailor. Gt. Geo. St. 10-16d the twinnin.

There is Nothing Better than an apple after your meals or before retiring. It will add years to your life and make it worth living for. We have been fortunate in securing a choice lot of which we will sell at a moderate price. Every family should have a barrel of those good keepers in their cellar for the winter. Call at our store or ring us up and get our prices.

No. 1 Northern Spys and Baldwins.

McKenna's Grocery, PHONE (Down town store 228a. Up town store 226b.)

MEN'S STRONG BOOTS For Winter Wear

Men's Kip Bellows tongue, clump sole $2.15.
Men's heavy grain clump sole, Bellows tongue $2.50.
Men's grain laced, single and clump sole $1.75 and $2.50.
Men's long boots, water tight, hand sided and lined $3.25, $3.50 and $4.25.

SPRAGUE & CO'S. New Shoe Store.

White's Chocolates are wholesome and nutritious, so are White's Bon Bons. Put up in dainty pound and half pound boxes they are sold by all the leading confectioners.

THE GUARDIAN LOCAL NEWS

Offices in New Prowse Block Charlottetown.

Miss ANNIE DESROCHES left yesterday on a visit to Boston.

Miss ENA McLEOD, Brookfield, has gone to Boston to spend the winter.

READ The Guardian's classified ads. You will find something to interest you.

The terminal examinations of Mount Allison will begin on Dec. 12 and will close on the 23th.

JACK KELLY, late of M. Trainor & Co's. employ is now traveller for the Scottish American Rubber Co., Montreal.

MISS WINIFRED CAMPBELL, North Wiltshire has returned home after a visit to her sister Mrs. John Senecaugh, Arlington, Mass.

TWENTY, and even twenty-eight degrees below zero in Manitoba and the Northwest, teach that too much reliance cannot be placed on the remarkably fine weather which has prevailed for weeks past.

Mrs. ENOCH PAIGE's health has been much improved from her summer visit at her old home at Cardigan. She is now with Arthur E. and Mrs. Guild spending a few days at Mr. Guild's old home at Waterbury, Vermont.

CHURCH WORK, the organ of the Anglican body of the provinces, edited by Rector Dixon of Wolfville, will probably continue publication, as through the efforts of the clergy a number of new subscribers have been obtained and material assistance rendered.

R. GOODER, a prominent Boston market man, was at the Hotel Brunswick on Saturday en route home from P. E. Island where he had been purchasing chickens, turkeys and geese for the Boston holiday trade. He secured about $1,000 worth, all he could find, and he purchased a lot of dressed hogs which will be shipped to Boston this week. It is good to be an Island farmer just about now.—Moncton Exchange.

THE Cumberland Pork Packing Company, Amherst, is doing an exceedingly heavy business, and the increase during the past few years is very marked. The local farmers cannot supply them, and they are receiving large shipments from Prince Edward Island. Only Thursday another shipment of one hundred hogs arrived from the Island. During the past month the company has purchased between four and five thousand dollars worth of hogs from P. E. I.

THE Hon. D. A. MacKinnon, Lieut. Governor of P. E. Island was a guest at the hotel Brunswick on Saturday afternoon en route to Amherst, N. S., where he will open the Winter Fair show to-day. His honor is a pleasant affable gentleman, has a commanding appearance and is in the very prime of life. While at the Brunswick Mr. McSweeney personally took the trouble of introducing the Island Governor to many Monctonians.—Moncton Transcript.

At the regular meeting of Mount Allison Eurhetorian Society on Saturday evening, eighteen preliminary debaters were elected to discuss, at the first three meetings next term, the subject for intercollegiate debate. Among these men was G. Roy Long, '06, of Tyne Valley. The debate this year is between Mount Allison and Dalhousie, and will be held at Sackville. The subject is "Resolved that the present system of trial by judge and jury is preferable to trial by judge alone." Mt. Allison has choice of sides.

The annual meeting of Maple Leaf Farmers' Institute was held in Summersville schoolhouse on Friday evening Dec. 1st. The President T. F. Hynes occupied the chair. Secy P. J. D. Edmonds submitted a statement of revenue for the past year. After some discussion on various topics the following staff of officers was appointed:—President, John A. Dewar; Vice Pres., John J. Welsh; Secy, W. J. Power; Directors, Thomas Dunn, Gregory Kelly, Fredrick R. Mellish, Alexander Hamilton, T. F. Hynes, Charles McMillan, Jr., J. F. Jenkins and James A. Moar. It was decided to have meetings once a fortnight during the winter months for the discussion of topics affecting the interests of the farmer. Those meetings will be held in the various districts comprising the Institute division, extending from Montague and New Perth on the south and east to Baldwin's Road, and Alberry Plains on the north and west, commencing with a meeting in New Perth hall on Saturday Dec. 16th at 6.30 P. M. Subject for discussion will be—Would it be advisable for the farmers of this Province to engage more extensively in winter dairying. Ladies are invited. The members are enthusiastic, and are impressed with a sense of their responsibility as a moving force long the lines of improvement in agricultural methods, and are determined that the winter campaign will be productive of much good, intellectually and socially as well as financially—an aim that will not be difficult of fruition considering the ideal blending of the races "The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose entwine the "Maple Leaf" forever."

British Almond Pink.—Nearly everybody knows what this preparation is for, and everybody who has used it will testify as to its merits. For roughened skin and chapped hands it has no equal.—Prepared and sold at 25c per bottle by A. W. Reddin Phen B, Sunnyside.

THE Cumberland Pork Packing Company, Amherst, is doing an exceedingly heavy business, and the increase during the past few years is very marked. The local farmers cannot supply them, and they are receiving large shipments from Prince Edward Island. Only Thursday another shipment of one hundred hogs arrived from the Island. During the past month the company has purchased between four and five thousand dollars worth of hogs from P. E. I.

THE Hon. D. A. MacKinnon, Lieut. Governor of P. E. Island was a guest at the hotel Brunswick on Saturday afternoon en route to Amherst, N. S., where he will open the Winter Fair show to-day. His honor is a pleasant affable gentleman, has a commanding appearance and is in the very prime of life. While at the Brunswick Mr. McSweeney personally took the trouble of introducing the Island Governor to many Monctonians.—Moncton Transcript.

At the regular meeting of Mount Allison Eurhetorian Society on Saturday evening, eighteen preliminary debaters were elected to discuss, at the first three meetings next term, the subject for intercollegiate debate. Among these men was G. Roy Long, '06, of Tyne Valley. The debate this year is between Mount Allison and Dalhousie, and will be held at Sackville. The subject is "Resolved that the present system of trial by judge and jury is preferable to trial by judge alone." Mt. Allison has choice of sides.

The annual meeting of Maple Leaf Farmers' Institute was held in Summersville schoolhouse on Friday evening Dec. 1st. The President T. F. Hynes occupied the chair. Secy P. J. D. Edmonds submitted a statement of revenue for the past year. After some discussion on various topics the following staff of officers was appointed:—President, John A. Dewar; Vice Pres., John J. Welsh; Secy, W. J. Power; Directors, Thomas Dunn, Gregory Kelly, Fredrick R. Mellish, Alexander Hamilton, T. F. Hynes, Charles McMillan, Jr., J. F. Jenkins and James A. Moar. It was decided to have meetings once a fortnight during the winter months for the discussion of topics affecting the interests of the farmer. Those meetings will be held in the various districts comprising the Institute division, extending from Montague and New Perth on the south and east to Baldwin's Road, and Alberry Plains on the north and west, commencing with a meeting in New Perth hall on Saturday Dec. 16th at 6.30 P. M. Subject for discussion will be—Would it be advisable for the farmers of this Province to engage more extensively in winter dairying. Ladies are invited. The members are enthusiastic, and are impressed with a sense of their responsibility as a moving force long the lines of improvement in agricultural methods, and are determined that the winter campaign will be productive of much good, intellectually and socially as well as financially—an aim that will not be difficult of fruition considering the ideal blending of the races "The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose entwine the "Maple Leaf" forever."

British Almond Pink.—Nearly everybody knows what this preparation is for, and everybody who has used it will testify as to its merits. For roughened skin and chapped hands it has no equal.—Prepared and sold at 25c per bottle by A. W. Reddin Phen B, Sunnyside.

THE Cumberland Pork Packing Company, Amherst, is doing an exceedingly heavy business, and the increase during the past few years is very marked. The local farmers cannot supply them, and they are receiving large shipments from Prince Edward Island. Only Thursday another shipment of one hundred hogs arrived from the Island. During the past month the company has purchased between four and five thousand dollars worth of hogs from P. E. I.

THE Hon. D. A. MacKinnon, Lieut. Governor of P. E. Island was a guest at the hotel Brunswick on Saturday afternoon en route to Amherst, N. S., where he will open the Winter Fair show to-day. His honor is a pleasant affable gentleman, has a commanding appearance and is in the very prime of life. While at the Brunswick Mr. McSweeney personally took the trouble of introducing the Island Governor to many Monctonians.—Moncton Transcript.

At the regular meeting of Mount Allison Eurhetorian Society on Saturday evening, eighteen preliminary debaters were elected to discuss, at the first three meetings next term, the subject for intercollegiate debate. Among these men was G. Roy Long, '06, of Tyne Valley. The debate this year is between Mount Allison and Dalhousie, and will be held at Sackville. The subject is "Resolved that the present system of trial by judge and jury is preferable to trial by judge alone." Mt. Allison has choice of sides.

The annual meeting of Maple Leaf Farmers' Institute was held in Summersville schoolhouse on Friday evening Dec. 1st. The President T. F. Hynes occupied the chair. Secy P. J. D. Edmonds submitted a statement of revenue for the past year. After some discussion on various topics the following staff of officers was appointed:—President, John A. Dewar; Vice Pres., John J. Welsh; Secy, W. J. Power; Directors, Thomas Dunn, Gregory Kelly, Fredrick R. Mellish, Alexander Hamilton, T. F. Hynes, Charles McMillan, Jr., J. F. Jenkins and James A. Moar. It was decided to have meetings once a fortnight during the winter months for the discussion of topics affecting the interests of the farmer. Those meetings will be held in the various districts comprising the Institute division, extending from Montague and New Perth on the south and east to Baldwin's Road, and Alberry Plains on the north and west, commencing with a meeting in New Perth hall on Saturday Dec. 16th at 6.30 P. M. Subject for discussion will be—Would it be advisable for the farmers of this Province to engage more extensively in winter dairying. Ladies are invited. The members are enthusiastic, and are impressed with a sense of their responsibility as a moving force long the lines of improvement in agricultural methods, and are determined that the winter campaign will be productive of much good, intellectually and socially as well as financially—an aim that will not be difficult of fruition considering the ideal blending of the races "The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose entwine the "Maple Leaf" forever."

British Almond Pink.—Nearly everybody knows what this preparation is for, and everybody who has used it will testify as to its merits. For roughened skin and chapped hands it has no equal.—Prepared and sold at 25c per bottle by A. W. Reddin Phen B, Sunnyside.

THE Cumberland Pork Packing Company, Amherst, is doing an exceedingly heavy business, and the increase during the past few years is very marked. The local farmers cannot supply them, and they are receiving large shipments from Prince Edward Island. Only Thursday another shipment of one hundred hogs arrived from the Island. During the past month the company has purchased between four and five thousand dollars worth of hogs from P. E. I.

THE Hon. D. A. MacKinnon, Lieut. Governor of P. E. Island was a guest at the hotel Brunswick on Saturday afternoon en route to Amherst, N. S., where he will open the Winter Fair show to-day. His honor is a pleasant affable gentleman, has a commanding appearance and is in the very prime of life. While at the Brunswick Mr. McSweeney personally took the trouble of introducing the Island Governor to many Monctonians.—Moncton Transcript.

At the regular meeting of Mount Allison Eurhetorian Society on Saturday evening, eighteen preliminary debaters were elected to discuss, at the first three meetings next term, the subject for intercollegiate debate. Among these men was G. Roy Long, '06, of Tyne Valley. The debate this year is between Mount Allison and Dalhousie, and will be held at Sackville. The subject is "Resolved that the present system of trial by judge and jury is preferable to trial by judge alone." Mt. Allison has choice of sides.

The annual meeting of Maple Leaf Farmers' Institute was held in Summersville schoolhouse on Friday evening Dec. 1st. The President T. F. Hynes occupied the chair. Secy P. J. D. Edmonds submitted a statement of revenue for the past year. After some discussion on various topics the following staff of officers was appointed:—President, John A. Dewar; Vice Pres., John J. Welsh; Secy, W. J. Power; Directors, Thomas Dunn, Gregory Kelly, Fredrick R. Mellish, Alexander Hamilton, T. F. Hynes, Charles McMillan, Jr., J. F. Jenkins and James A. Moar. It was decided to have meetings once a fortnight during the winter months for the discussion of topics affecting the interests of the farmer. Those meetings will be held in the various districts comprising the Institute division, extending from Montague and New Perth on the south and east to Baldwin's Road, and Alberry Plains on the north and west, commencing with a meeting in New Perth hall on Saturday Dec. 16th at 6.30 P. M. Subject for discussion will be—Would it be advisable for the farmers of this Province to engage more extensively in winter dairying. Ladies are invited. The members are enthusiastic, and are impressed with a sense of their responsibility as a moving force long the lines of improvement in agricultural methods, and are determined that the winter campaign will be productive of much good, intellectually and socially as well as financially—an aim that will not be difficult of fruition considering the ideal blending of the races "The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose entwine the "Maple Leaf" forever."

British Almond Pink.—Nearly everybody knows what this preparation is for, and everybody who has used it will testify as to its merits. For roughened skin and chapped hands it has no equal.—Prepared and sold at 25c per bottle by A. W. Reddin Phen B, Sunnyside.

THE Cumberland Pork Packing Company, Amherst, is doing an exceedingly heavy business, and the increase during the past few years is very marked. The local farmers cannot supply them, and they are receiving large shipments from Prince Edward Island. Only Thursday another shipment of one hundred hogs arrived from the Island. During the past month the company has purchased between four and five thousand dollars worth of hogs from P. E. I.

THE Hon. D. A. MacKinnon, Lieut. Governor of P. E. Island was a guest at the hotel Brunswick on Saturday afternoon en route to Amherst, N. S., where he will open the Winter Fair show to-day. His honor is a pleasant affable gentleman, has a commanding appearance and is in the very prime of life. While at the Brunswick Mr. McSweeney personally took the trouble of introducing the Island Governor to many Monctonians.—Moncton Transcript.

At the regular meeting of Mount Allison Eurhetorian Society on Saturday evening, eighteen preliminary debaters were elected to discuss, at the first three meetings next term, the subject for intercollegiate debate. Among these men was G. Roy Long, '06, of Tyne Valley. The debate this year is between Mount Allison and Dalhousie, and will be held at Sackville. The subject is "Resolved that the present system of trial by judge and jury is preferable to trial by judge alone." Mt. Allison has choice of sides.

The annual meeting of Maple Leaf Farmers' Institute was held in Summersville schoolhouse on Friday evening Dec. 1st. The President T. F. Hynes occupied the chair. Secy P. J. D. Edmonds submitted a statement of revenue for the past year. After some discussion on various topics the following staff of officers was appointed:—President, John A. Dewar; Vice Pres., John J. Welsh; Secy, W. J. Power; Directors, Thomas Dunn, Gregory Kelly, Fredrick R. Mellish, Alexander Hamilton, T. F. Hynes, Charles McMillan, Jr., J. F. Jenkins and James A. Moar. It was decided to have meetings once a fortnight during the winter months for the discussion of topics affecting the interests of the farmer. Those meetings will be held in the various districts comprising the Institute division, extending from Montague and New Perth on the south and east to Baldwin's Road, and Alberry Plains on the north and west, commencing with a meeting in New Perth hall on Saturday Dec. 16th at 6.30 P. M. Subject for discussion will be—Would it be advisable for the farmers of this Province to engage more extensively in winter dairying. Ladies are invited. The members are enthusiastic, and are impressed with a sense of their responsibility as a moving force long the lines of improvement in agricultural methods, and are determined that the winter campaign will be productive of much good, intellectually and socially as well as financially—an aim that will not be difficult of fruition considering the ideal blending of the races "The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose entwine the "Maple Leaf" forever."

British Almond Pink.—Nearly everybody knows what this preparation is for, and everybody who has used it will testify as to its merits. For roughened skin and chapped hands it has no equal.—Prepared and sold at 25c per bottle by A. W. Reddin Phen B, Sunnyside.

THE Cumberland Pork Packing Company, Amherst, is doing an exceedingly heavy business, and the increase during the past few years is very marked. The local farmers cannot supply them, and they are receiving large shipments from Prince Edward Island. Only Thursday another shipment of one hundred hogs arrived from the Island. During the past month the company has purchased between four and five thousand dollars worth of hogs from P. E. I.

THE Hon. D. A. MacKinnon, Lieut. Governor of P. E. Island was a guest at the hotel Brunswick on Saturday afternoon en route to Amherst, N. S., where he will open the Winter Fair show to-day. His honor is a pleasant affable gentleman, has a commanding appearance and is in the very prime of life. While at the Brunswick Mr. McSweeney personally took the trouble of introducing the Island Governor to many Monctonians.—Moncton Transcript.

At the regular meeting of Mount Allison Eurhetorian Society on Saturday evening, eighteen preliminary debaters were elected to discuss, at the first three meetings next term, the subject for intercollegiate debate. Among these men was G. Roy Long, '06, of Tyne Valley. The debate this year is between Mount Allison and Dalhousie, and will be held at Sackville. The subject is "Resolved that the present system of trial by judge and jury is preferable to trial by judge alone." Mt. Allison has choice of sides.

The annual meeting of Maple Leaf Farmers' Institute was held in Summersville schoolhouse on Friday evening Dec. 1st. The President T. F. Hynes occupied the chair. Secy P. J. D. Edmonds submitted a statement of revenue for the past year. After some discussion on various topics the following staff of officers was appointed:—President, John A. Dewar; Vice Pres., John J. Welsh; Secy, W. J. Power; Directors, Thomas Dunn, Gregory Kelly, Fredrick R. Mellish, Alexander Hamilton, T. F. Hynes, Charles McMillan, Jr., J. F. Jenkins and James A. Moar. It was decided to have meetings once a fortnight during the winter months for the discussion of topics affecting the interests of the farmer. Those meetings will be held in the various districts comprising the Institute division, extending from Montague and New Perth on the south and east to Baldwin's Road, and Alberry Plains on the north and west, commencing with a meeting in New Perth hall on Saturday Dec. 16th at 6.30 P. M. Subject for discussion will be—Would it be advisable for the farmers of this Province to engage more extensively in winter dairying. Ladies are invited. The members are enthusiastic, and are impressed with a sense of their responsibility as a moving force long the lines of improvement in agricultural methods, and are determined that the winter campaign will be productive of much good, intellectually and socially as well as financially—an aim that will not be difficult of fruition considering the ideal blending of the races "The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose entwine the "Maple Leaf" forever."

British Almond Pink.—Nearly everybody knows what this preparation is for, and everybody who has used it will testify as to its merits. For roughened skin and chapped hands it has no equal.—Prepared and sold at 25c per bottle by A. W. Reddin Phen B, Sunnyside.

DR. ANDERSON, Supt. of Education, was a passenger to Souris yesterday afternoon. He will return on Saturday.

HIGH TEA served from 6 to 8 o'clock this evening in the 1st Methodist basement. 25 cents for regular banquet.

BRENTON F. ALLEY, formerly with the Bank of Nova Scotia, Edmonton, Alta is now with the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Calgary. Mr. Alley formerly belonged to this city.

ELI CLEMENTS Brackley Point Road, six miles from Charlottetown will offer for sale his farm of 250 acres of land together with his stock, crop and implements on Monday Dec 11th at ten o'clock a. m. See ad for full particulars.

THE Postmaster of P. E. I. under date of May 8th, 1890 gives notice in the Colonial Herald that foreign and inland mails will be made up at the Charlottetown Post Office as follows:—For Pictou, Halifax etc every Thursday at 9 a. m.; for Miramichi every Friday at 10 a. m.; for the western inland mail every Monday at 10 a. m.; for eastern inland mail every Wednesday at noon; for Vernon River, Belfast, Georgetown and Murray Harbor every Saturday at 8 a. m.

THE home of J. H. and Mrs. Rowe of Ault, Colo. was the scene of a pretty wedding on Thanksgiving day Nov. 30th when their sister Miss Bertha K. McLeod was united in marriage to Stephen G. Lewis of Ault, Colo. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Ethel G. McLeod while the groom was supported by his brother John Lewis, Timnath, Colo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Elliot of Ault, Colo. After the nuptial knot was tied the company repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous Thanksgiving wedding dinner was served after which the bride and groom left for a wedding trip to Wyoming. The bride is a native of Charlottetown and daughter of M. M. McLeod who left Charlottetown 24 years ago, now of Denver, Colo.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where luncheon was served and time whittled happily away till the hour of noon when the company departed to the home of the bride. There was assembled a large number of their immediate friends and a very excellent wedding dinner was partaken of, after which a very enjoyable evening was spent.

THE marriage of one of Elliott's fairest young ladies, Miss Cecelia Edmonds, daughter of J. D. Edmonds, postmaster of the district, to Edwin McQuaid, a prosperous and prominent agriculturist of Pisiquid took place on Nov. 21st last. The ceremony was performed at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River. Rev. Dr. Doyle pastor officiating. The bride wore a handsome suit of grey broadcloth trimmed with applique and chiffon, and a beautiful white picture hat, looked charming and was attended by her sister Miss Lavina who was similarly attired, while P. Kelly, Fort Augustus, supported the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's uncle P. J. D. Edmonds where