MUCH TO BE THANKED FOR

At a church conference a speaker began a tirade against the universities and education, expressing thankfulness that he had never been corrupted by contact with a college.

After proceeding for a few minutes, the bishop, who was in the chair, interrupted with the question: "Do I understand that Mr. Dobson is thankful for his ignorance?"

"Well, yes," was the answer: "you can put it that way if you like."

"Well, all I have to say," said the prelate in sweet and musical tones, "all I have to say is that he has much to be thankful for."

TO EVERY CITIZEN

Help to make the city better. Help to make the city clean. Don't be just a constant fretter. Add some beauty to the scene. You may not indeed be able to erect a gleaming dome. But clean up around your stable. Beautify your little home.

Help to make the town attractive. Help to stop the ones who sneer. It will pay you to be active. Since your interests are here. Would your backyard stand inspection?

What about the vacant lot? Rubbish helps to spread deflection. Neatness brings the cheerful thought.

Help to make the city fairer. You can do it if you try. And you'll be a profit sharer in the splendid bye and bye; Don't forget while you are grumbling. That you might do something more; Let there be no future stumbling. Or obstructions at your door.

Help to make the town more splendid. Do the part you have to do; There is much that may be mended. Through a little aid from you; Help decrease the dirt that's blowing. Help to purify the breeze; When it happens to be snowing. Clean your sidewalks, if you please.—Ex.

BIGAMY IS COMMON.

Bigamy cases have become so common at the Old Bailey and Kent Assizes that Justice Darling, at the close of a day in which he had sentenced twelve men for that offence, said:

"People are taking a very lax view of the marriage relation. It has become the easiest thing in the world to get a divorce. There is a movement to enable people to get divorces on cheap and easy terms in the County Courts, and I daresay it will be successful."

"At present people do not even take the trouble to apply to the courts. I have had eighteen bigamy cases before me at the assizes. The marriage contract is the most sacred engagement into which any one can enter, yet many treat it as though it were no more binding than a dinner engagement."

One of the cases before the Justice was of John Smithers, a gamekeeper, charged with having gone through a form of marriage with Beatrice Waters in Hunbridge Wells, in 1917, his wife, Mabel Dorothy, whom he had married in Canterbury in 1914, being still active. When asked what he had to say, Smithers replied:

"I plead guilty, but on the other hand, I am innocent." He explained that he had suffered from shell shock and had completely forgotten the woman who had faced him as his first wife. Even in court he looked at her and declared he had never seen her before. Both the first wife and Miss Waters had a child by him. When the

JUST FOR variety, and as several ladies have figured in "Court circles" here, it might not be a bad idea to make a change in that sign "Welcome to our Boys" over the City Building and have it read, "Welcome to our Girls."

HIS LAST WORD

A North Carolina negro was brought out of the gallows to be hanged for murder.

"Henry," said the sheriff, "have you anything to say?"

"Yes, suh," said the condemned man, "Ise got a few words to say. I merely wished to state dat dis tintingly is goin' to be a lesson to me."

DO not worry, Mirandy, if you fail to get into society. The oyster is often present at a social function when he would doubtless prefer to be at home in his bed.

LIFE IN A GREAT CITY

Chug-Chung! Br! br-rk! Honk! Honk! Giggling-giggling!

The pedestrian paused at the intersection of two busy cross streets.

He looked about. An automobile was rushing at him from one direction a motor-cycle from another; an auto-truck was coming from behind and a taxicab was speedily approaching.

Zip-zip! Zing-zing!

He looked up and saw directly above him a runaway airship in rapid descent.

There was but one chance. He was standing upon a manhole cover. Quickly seizing it, he lifted the lid and jumped into the hole just in time to be run over by a subway train.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE SHREWNESS OF SATAN

A husband was remonstrating with his young wife for her extravagance in buying another new dress. "I really think Satan must be at hand when you women see a pretty gown," he exclaimed.

"I'm afraid he was this time, dear," she meekly admitted.

"Then you should have said to him, 'Get thee behind me!'"

"I did, dear. That was the trouble, I said, 'Get thee behind me Satan,' and he did, but he whispered over my shoulder, 'If this you beautifully in the back.' And I simply had to take it then."—Exchange.

Our own experience has proven how true this is. Our records show that hundreds having suffered for years from Eye Strain without knowing the cause, have sought and found relief through our examination, which proved beyond the possibility of a doubt that their eyes were the primary cause of all their trouble, and that a direct relationship existed between their eyes and the nervous system, and that a cure was effected simply by correcting the errors of refraction and muscles by means of glasses.
