

For Coughs

Never hesitate to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is a regular medicine, a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine.

It would be very interesting to know how many years your family physician has prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs, colds, and all forms of lung troubles. Ask him the next time you see him. We know physicians who have used it for over half a century.

The beautiful finish possessed by Community Silver always attracts attention. When buying silverware do not forget that we have Community Silver to show you.

W. W. WELLNER, Jeweler.

"HUGHES" Cascara Pills

are a reliable and effective remedy for BILIOUS ATTACKS, SLUGGISH LIVER, SICK HEADACHES, CONSTIPATION and all derangements arising from a disordered stomach.

Price 25c per box.

GEO. E. HUGHES, Apothecaries Hall

For a real good photograph try Cook's Studio,

New DesBrisay Block, The Studio Where Baby is Always Welcome

EVERY DAY

is bargain day now at our store. You can buy shoes cheaper now than at any other time. Our prices are lower than others for same class of goods. It will certainly pay you to see our stock before you buy. We carry the largest stock of ladies' shoes at $2.00 and $2.50 a pair in town. Just as good as most at $3.00 a pair. Try us for your next pair.

A. E. McEACHEN, The Shoe Man.

COAL

Reserve Run of Mine, Inverness Round, Hard Chestnut All in shed clean and dry at Geo. E. Full's Coal Yard

S.S. "Amelia" For Sale

Dimensions 145 X 22 ft. 9 in X 12 ft. Engines Compound 19 and 42 X 30. 103 tons Net Register, carries about 400 tons Deadweight—Built of Steel, classed 100 A1 Lloyd's; passed 3rd special survey 1907 Steams 14 knots, electric lighted, accommodates 20 passengers. Apply—MAGDALEN ISLAND S. S. CO., LTD., Halifax, N. S. 1-424wpd

FELT SLIPPER SALE

We have decided to close out all our Felt Slippers regardless of cost.

Ladies' $1.25 slippers for 95c
" 1.10 " for 85c
" 90 " for 70c
" 75 " for 55c
" 60 " for 45c
" 50 " for 35c
" 40 " for 25c
" 25 " for 18c

For real bargains in felt slippers this is your opportunity.

Sprague & Co., Sunnyside

Special February Bargains at Alley's

88 pairs women's waterproof overshoes sizes 2 1-2 to 4 1-2 regular $1.85 now 84c 97 pairs women's fine overshoes, sizes 2 1-2 to 4 1-2 worth over $2.00 now $1.00. 67 pairs women's low overshoes now 70c.

Sample Sale Still the Great Attraction

Hundreds of pairs boots, shoes and slippers to choose from at 30 per cent discount. Men's are size 7, women's size 4, girls' size 1, boys' size 4, children's size 6 and 9.

Alley & Co

DR. H. D. JOHNSON,

Kent Street, Practice limited to Diseases of Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat and Skin. Eyes treated and fitted for glasses. OFFICE HOURS 9 to 11 a. m. 1:30-4:30 p. m. evenings by appointment dtwv

Table Codfish

We have in stock very nice Boneless Codfish, put up in small boxes at the Souris Fish Drier. We have also some very choice whole codfish which we can specially recommend. We imported them from Gaspe, Quebec and they are nice clean, dry fish. Try a sample lot from

BEER @ GOFF

PHOTOGRAPHS in all the latest styles and finish

—BY— BAYER, Maker of Pictures. TELEPHONE 192.

Dominion Atlantic Railway

and Steamship Lines to Boston via Yarmouth. The popular East Line between Eastern Nova Scotia and Boston via Truro, Windsor, and Halifax EXPRESS TRAINS leave Halifax daily except Sundays, at 7:30 a. m. for Digby and Yarmouth making connection at Yarmouth for Boston. MIDLAND DIVISION—Trains of the Midland Division leave Windsor daily except Sundays, for Truro at 7:00 a. m. and 6:15 p. m. connecting Truro with trains of the Intercolonial Railway at Windsor, with Express trains to and from Halifax for Yarmouth. The Royal and U. S. Mail Steamship PRINCE ARTHUR. The fastest and finest steamer plying between the Maritime Provinces and Boston. Leave Yarmouth for Boston Wednesday and Saturday on arrival of Express Train from Halifax. Returning leave Long Wharf Boston, Tuesday and Friday. Passengers arriving in Halifax next day at 6:30 p. m. by Express Train. For further information, Reservation of State-rooms, etc. write or telegraph R. L. PARKER, Agt. Gen. Pass. Art. Kentville, Nova Scotia. P. GIFFINS General Manager

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

D. McKinley, Edmonton, is in this City.

Geo. E. Full Charlottetown, is in Montreal.

Artemas Moffatt, City, went to New Glasgow yesterday.

William McKinley, Bradalbane, was in the City yesterday.

John McKennie, North Wiltshire, was in the City yesterday.

Leonard Wood, Murray Harbor, was in the City yesterday.

The mail train, with two days mail arrived yesterday at 2.15.

Mrs. John L. Moreside, North River is visiting in Rocky Point.

C. R. Rogers, Summerside, came to this City by the mail special yesterday.

James Paton will make the usual spring purchases for his firm while on his European trip.

The death has occurred at Pictou of Alf. Brennan whose father Councilor Brennan formerly lived in Charlottetown.

Thomas Donovan, City, fell on Prince Street recently fracturing his ankle and will be confined to the house for sometime.

The Souris Glee Club have arranged for a special train to bring them to this city on Monday for a special skate in the big Arena.

J. P. Graham, Montreal; Hardy McHardy, Toronto and C. J. Callaghan, St. John, came to the City by the mail special yesterday.

The funeral of Mrs. J. R. McKie will take place from her late residence, King Street, today at 2.50 p. m. by train to Sherwood Cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Thomas will officiate.

Rev. G. F. Dawson of York will be the speaker at the Y.M.C.A. men's meeting tomorrow at four o'clock. Messrs. Hawley, Marchison and Bridges will furnish special music.

Yesterday morning Mark Wright Furnishing Co., had their show window filled with bed-comforts priced at $1.10 each. Shortly after ten o'clock yesterday they were all purchased.

Miss McNevin is again in her position, with the firm of McLeod and Spence, Sackville. She had a very pleasant visit of several weeks duration, at her home in Prince Edward Island.

Rev. Mr. Ratter delivered his lecture, Rome, the Eternal City, to a large and interested audience at Mt. Stewart on Thursday evening. The lecture with the Social which was held afterwards realized the sum of forty-seven dollars.

In to-day's Guardian will be found a sermon which has attracted a lot of attention in Canada and has been widely published. It deals with the question of future punishment, and may be looked upon as an exposition of the opinions held by many present day scholars.

A correspondent from New Glasgow writes The Guardian: R. E. Bagnall is recovering after a severe attack of la grippe.—Her many friends will be pleased to see Miss Minnie Dickeson out again after being confined to her home through sickness.—La grippe is quite prevalent through the country, and the doctors are kept quite busy.

Wendell McKennie will lead the boys' meeting of the Y.M.C.A. tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. The subject will be "Why go to boys' meetings." Boys who have not been coming regularly should be there to hear what the different boys have to say about the benefits they have received by attending those meetings. The average attendance so far this year has been about fifty, so the boys who come evidently enjoy it.

Of the three Prohibition cases that were up before the City Police Court that against Ronald Steele has been dismissed; that against Herman Esory has been postponed for judgment till next Thursday; and the case of George Esory has been adjourned till Tuesday for rebuttal evidence. Yesterday Robert Marshall of Stanhope, a witness in the Esory case was arrested on a charge of perjury. A Prohibition summons has been served on P. S. Brown, returnable on the 20th inst.

Ernest Shipman, the well known New York theatrical manager, who at present is making a flying visit to Toronto, has just signed contracts with Laura Bart and Henry Stanford, two of his stars, who are appearing at the Grand in "The Walls of Jericho," for a Spring tour of Shakespearean repertoire. The plays selected are "Romeo and Juliet," "Taming of the Shrew" and "As you like it." Miss Bart will be cast as Juliet, Katherine and Rosalind in the respective plays, while Mr. Stanford, who has an enviable international reputation in Shakespearean roles, will play Romeo, Petruchio and Orlando. Mr. Shipman states that the itinerary would include the principal Canadian cities and towns including Charlottetown, and that no expense would be spared to make the production a memorable one.

"Take British Cough Cure when troubled with a nasty irritating cough. It quickly relieves and mostly always effects a cure. As a cough remedy for children it has no equal. Sold on its merits at 25c a bottle by A. W. Reddin, Phm D. Sunnyside.

Band at the Arena this afternoon.

The Stanley got into Pictou from Georgetown at 11.30 yesterday.

The Minto did not get into Georgetown from Pictou till 12 o'clock yesterday.

Victor Coyle, City, drug clerk with A. W. Reddin, has passed the examinations of the P. E. I. Pharmaceutical Association.

Miss Margaret McKennie, Flat River, and Florence Stretch, Long Creek are attending the Union Commercial College, Charlottetown.

Miss Evelyn Moreside, North River has returned from an extended visit to Georgetown. Her many friends are glad to see her back again.

E. T. Carbonell, City, returned yesterday from Pleasant Grove, where he delivered his lecture on The Birds of Prince Edward Island.

The big candle in H. H. Brown's store has only a few more hours to burn. There is ten dollars for some to burn at the bottom of it—that is if the winner believes in "money to burn." The ballots will be counted some time today and the lucky guesser who has taken the nearest number of hours it has taken to consume the candle, will get the ten.

The death occurred at his home, at Colville Road, Lot 31, P. E. I., on Feb. 9th, 1908, of Charles Colwill at the ripe age of 89 years. He was a native of Bideford, Devonshire, England. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Pridham of the same place, by whom he had two sons, Philip and William. His father, before a man of ample means, gave his sons a good education. One son was a popular Anglican minister, another a successful lawyer. Charles the subject of this sketch, he set up in business, but he became dissatisfied with his surroundings, 64 years ago. He with his wife and two children bid adieu to his native land in May 1844, and started for the wilds of America, landing in Charlottetown, after a two months voyage. He settled on the farm on Colville Road, on which he lived until his death. Before he got his house ready for his family his wife became sick, and after a short illness died leaving him with his two little boys. Two years later he met and married Sarah Jane Fletcher, (aunt of Hon. Ex-governor, James H. Fletcher of Portland, Oregon and C. F. Fletcher of Charlottetown) by whom he had eight sons and three daughters, all grown to man and womanhood—Walter, James, George and Jane (Mrs. Wm. Ball) predeceased him, Albert; Rev. S. E. Edwards, a popular and very successful Methodist minister out west, Samuel in Taunton, Mass; Daniel P. and John R. in Washington, Seattle; Elizabeth Ann (Mrs. Brown) Michigan; Fanny (Mrs. Everett) Bally out west; and R. Nicholas out of the home. His wife predeceased him two years ago. He experienced all the privations and discomforts of the pioneer but by sound judgment, and persevering industry he found himself surrounded in his later years with all the comforts and many of the luxuries of this life. When the weight of years began to press heavily upon him he was kindly, and tenderly cared for by his son, R. Nicholas and the latter's wife and children. He also leaves forty-three grand children, and eleven great-grand children. In politics he was a Liberal, in religion a Methodist. Many years ago he was appointed a Magistrate, which position he filled to the satisfaction, of the community, and honour to himself, until the death of her Gracious Majesty the late Queen Victoria. The same distinction was conferred upon his son R. Nicholson a few years ago on account of increasing years he did not qualify under King Edward VII. In his capacity of J. P. many cases were brought to him for advice. He by his wisdom, and kindly nature and sound judgment, had many settled out of Court. He never looked for political honor. He was highly respected by all that knew him, and they were not a few. Rev. Mr. Harrison of Cornwall conducted the funeral services, at the house, and at the grave. An unusually large number of neighbors, and friends, followed him to his last resting place. The pall bearers were Hon. John Balderston, James Wynne, Ewan McMillan, Andrew McElroy, James Beer, William F. Fraser.

The death occurred at his home, at Colville Road, Lot 31, P. E. I., on Feb. 9th, 1908, of Charles Colwill at the ripe age of 89 years. He was a native of Bideford, Devonshire, England. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Pridham of the same place, by whom he had two sons, Philip and William. His father, before a man of ample means, gave his sons a good education. One son was a popular Anglican minister, another a successful lawyer. Charles the subject of this sketch, he set up in business, but he became dissatisfied with his surroundings, 64 years ago. He with his wife and two children bid adieu to his native land in May 1844, and started for the wilds of America, landing in Charlottetown, after a two months voyage. He settled on the farm on Colville Road, on which he lived until his death. Before he got his house ready for his family his wife became sick, and after a short illness died leaving him with his two little boys. Two years later he met and married Sarah Jane Fletcher, (aunt of Hon. Ex-governor, James H. Fletcher of Portland, Oregon and C. F. Fletcher of Charlottetown) by whom he had eight sons and three daughters, all grown to man and womanhood—Walter, James, George and Jane (Mrs. Wm. Ball) predeceased him, Albert; Rev. S. E. Edwards, a popular and very successful Methodist minister out west, Samuel in Taunton, Mass; Daniel P. and John R. in Washington, Seattle; Elizabeth Ann (Mrs. Brown) Michigan; Fanny (Mrs. Everett) Bally out west; and R. Nicholas out of the home. His wife predeceased him two years ago. He experienced all the privations and discomforts of the pioneer but by sound judgment, and persevering industry he found himself surrounded in his later years with all the comforts and many of the luxuries of this life. When the weight of years began to press heavily upon him he was kindly, and tenderly cared for by his son, R. Nicholas and the latter's wife and children. He also leaves forty-three grand children, and eleven great-grand children. In politics he was a Liberal, in religion a Methodist. Many years ago he was appointed a Magistrate, which position he filled to the satisfaction, of the community, and honour to himself, until the death of her Gracious Majesty the late Queen Victoria. The same distinction was conferred upon his son R. Nicholson a few years ago on account of increasing years he did not qualify under King Edward VII. In his capacity of J. P. many cases were brought to him for advice. He by his wisdom, and kindly nature and sound judgment, had many settled out of Court. He never looked for political honor. He was highly respected by all that knew him, and they were not a few. Rev. Mr. Harrison of Cornwall conducted the funeral services, at the house, and at the grave. An unusually large number of neighbors, and friends, followed him to his last resting place. The pall bearers were Hon. John Balderston, James Wynne, Ewan McMillan, Andrew McElroy, James Beer, William F. Fraser.

The death occurred at his home, at Colville Road, Lot 31, P. E. I., on Feb. 9th, 1908, of Charles Colwill at the ripe age of 89 years. He was a native of Bideford, Devonshire, England. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Pridham of the same place, by whom he had two sons, Philip and William. His father, before a man of ample means, gave his sons a good education. One son was a popular Anglican minister, another a successful lawyer. Charles the subject of this sketch, he set up in business, but he became dissatisfied with his surroundings, 64 years ago. He with his wife and two children bid adieu to his native land in May 1844, and started for the wilds of America, landing in Charlottetown, after a two months voyage. He settled on the farm on Colville Road, on which he lived until his death. Before he got his house ready for his family his wife became sick, and after a short illness died leaving him with his two little boys. Two years later he met and married Sarah Jane Fletcher, (aunt of Hon. Ex-governor, James H. Fletcher of Portland, Oregon and C. F. Fletcher of Charlottetown) by whom he had eight sons and three daughters, all grown to man and womanhood—Walter, James, George and Jane (Mrs. Wm. Ball) predeceased him, Albert; Rev. S. E. Edwards, a popular and very successful Methodist minister out west, Samuel in Taunton, Mass; Daniel P. and John R. in Washington, Seattle; Elizabeth Ann (Mrs. Brown) Michigan; Fanny (Mrs. Everett) Bally out west; and R. Nicholas out of the home. His wife predeceased him two years ago. He experienced all the privations and discomforts of the pioneer but by sound judgment, and persevering industry he found himself surrounded in his later years with all the comforts and many of the luxuries of this life. When the weight of years began to press heavily upon him he was kindly, and tenderly cared for by his son, R. Nicholas and the latter's wife and children. He also leaves forty-three grand children, and eleven great-grand children. In politics he was a Liberal, in religion a Methodist. Many years ago he was appointed a Magistrate, which position he filled to the satisfaction, of the community, and honour to himself, until the death of her Gracious Majesty the late Queen Victoria. The same distinction was conferred upon his son R. Nicholson a few years ago on account of increasing years he did not qualify under King Edward VII. In his capacity of J. P. many cases were brought to him for advice. He by his wisdom, and kindly nature and sound judgment, had many settled out of Court. He never looked for political honor. He was highly respected by all that knew him, and they were not a few. Rev. Mr. Harrison of Cornwall conducted the funeral services, at the house, and at the grave. An unusually large number of neighbors, and friends, followed him to his last resting place. The pall bearers were Hon. John Balderston, James Wynne, Ewan McMillan, Andrew McElroy, James Beer, William F. Fraser.

The death occurred at his home, at Colville Road, Lot 31, P. E. I., on Feb. 9th, 1908, of Charles Colwill at the ripe age of 89 years. He was a native of Bideford, Devonshire, England. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Pridham of the same place, by whom he had two sons, Philip and William. His father, before a man of ample means, gave his sons a good education. One son was a popular Anglican minister, another a successful lawyer. Charles the subject of this sketch, he set up in business, but he became dissatisfied with his surroundings, 64 years ago. He with his wife and two children bid adieu to his native land in May 1844, and started for the wilds of America, landing in Charlottetown, after a two months voyage. He settled on the farm on Colville Road, on which he lived until his death. Before he got his house ready for his family his wife became sick, and after a short illness died leaving him with his two little boys. Two years later he met and married Sarah Jane Fletcher, (aunt of Hon. Ex-governor, James H. Fletcher of Portland, Oregon and C. F. Fletcher of Charlottetown) by whom he had eight sons and three daughters, all grown to man and womanhood—Walter, James, George and Jane (Mrs. Wm. Ball) predeceased him, Albert; Rev. S. E. Edwards, a popular and very successful Methodist minister out west, Samuel in Taunton, Mass; Daniel P. and John R. in Washington, Seattle; Elizabeth Ann (Mrs. Brown) Michigan; Fanny (Mrs. Everett) Bally out west; and R. Nicholas out of the home. His wife predeceased him two years ago. He experienced all the privations and discomforts of the pioneer but by sound judgment, and persevering industry he found himself surrounded in his later years with all the comforts and many of the luxuries of this life. When the weight of years began to press heavily upon him he was kindly, and tenderly cared for by his son, R. Nicholas and the latter's wife and children. He also leaves forty-three grand children, and eleven great-grand children. In politics he was a Liberal, in religion a Methodist. Many years ago he was appointed a Magistrate, which position he filled to the satisfaction, of the community, and honour to himself, until the death of her Gracious Majesty the late Queen Victoria. The same distinction was conferred upon his son R. Nicholson a few years ago on account of increasing years he did not qualify under King Edward VII. In his capacity of J. P. many cases were brought to him for advice. He by his wisdom, and kindly nature and sound judgment, had many settled out of Court. He never looked for political honor. He was highly respected by all that knew him, and they were not a few. Rev. Mr. Harrison of Cornwall conducted the funeral services, at the house, and at the grave. An unusually large number of neighbors, and friends, followed him to his last resting place. The pall bearers were Hon. John Balderston, James Wynne, Ewan McMillan, Andrew McElroy, James Beer, William F. Fraser.

The death occurred at his home, at Colville Road, Lot 31, P. E. I., on Feb. 9th, 1908, of Charles Colwill at the ripe age of 89 years. He was a native of Bideford, Devonshire, England. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Pridham of the same place, by whom he had two sons, Philip and William. His father, before a man of ample means, gave his sons a good education. One son was a popular Anglican minister, another a successful lawyer. Charles the subject of this sketch, he set up in business, but he became dissatisfied with his surroundings, 64 years ago. He with his wife and two children bid adieu to his native land in May 1844, and started for the wilds of America, landing in Charlottetown, after a two months voyage. He settled on the farm on Colville Road, on which he lived until his death. Before he got his house ready for his family his wife became sick, and after a short illness died leaving him with his two little boys. Two years later he met and married Sarah Jane Fletcher, (aunt of Hon. Ex-governor, James H. Fletcher of Portland, Oregon and C. F. Fletcher of Charlottetown) by whom he had eight sons and three daughters, all grown to man and womanhood—Walter, James, George and Jane (Mrs. Wm. Ball) predeceased him, Albert; Rev. S. E. Edwards, a popular and very successful Methodist minister out west, Samuel in Taunton, Mass; Daniel P. and John R. in Washington, Seattle; Elizabeth Ann (Mrs. Brown) Michigan; Fanny (Mrs. Everett) Bally out west; and R. Nicholas out of the home. His wife predeceased him two years ago. He experienced all the privations and discomforts of the pioneer but by sound judgment, and persevering industry he found himself surrounded in his later years with all the comforts and many of the luxuries of this life. When the weight of years began to press heavily upon him he was kindly, and tenderly cared for by his son, R. Nicholas and the latter's wife and children. He also leaves forty-three grand children, and eleven great-grand children. In politics he was a Liberal, in religion a Methodist. Many years ago he was appointed a Magistrate, which position he filled to the satisfaction, of the community, and honour to himself, until the death of her Gracious Majesty the late Queen Victoria. The same distinction was conferred upon his son R. Nicholson a few years ago on account of increasing years he did not qualify under King Edward VII. In his capacity of J. P. many cases were brought to him for advice. He by his wisdom, and kindly nature and sound judgment, had many settled out of Court. He never looked for political honor. He was highly respected by all that knew him, and they were not a few. Rev. Mr. Harrison of Cornwall conducted the funeral services, at the house, and at the grave. An unusually large number of neighbors, and friends, followed him to his last resting place. The pall bearers were Hon. John Balderston, James Wynne, Ewan McMillan, Andrew McElroy, James Beer, William F. Fraser.

The death occurred at his home, at Colville Road, Lot 31, P. E. I., on Feb. 9th, 1908, of Charles Colwill at the ripe age of 89 years. He was a native of Bideford, Devonshire, England. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Pridham of the same place, by whom he had two sons, Philip and William. His father, before a man of ample means, gave his sons a good education. One son was a popular Anglican minister, another a successful lawyer. Charles the subject of this sketch, he set up in business, but he became dissatisfied with his surroundings, 64 years ago. He with his wife and two children bid adieu to his native land in May 1844, and started for the wilds of America, landing in Charlottetown, after a two months voyage. He settled on the farm on Colville Road, on which he lived until his death. Before he got his house ready for his family his wife became sick, and after a short illness died leaving him with his two little boys. Two years later he met and married Sarah Jane Fletcher, (aunt of Hon. Ex-governor, James H. Fletcher of Portland, Oregon and C. F. Fletcher of Charlottetown) by whom he had eight sons and three daughters, all grown to man and womanhood—Walter, James, George and Jane (Mrs. Wm. Ball) predeceased him, Albert; Rev. S. E. Edwards, a popular and very successful Methodist minister out west, Samuel in Taunton, Mass; Daniel P. and John R. in Washington, Seattle; Elizabeth Ann (Mrs. Brown) Michigan; Fanny (Mrs. Everett) Bally out west; and R. Nicholas out of the home. His wife predeceased him two years ago. He experienced all the privations and discomforts of the pioneer but by sound judgment, and persevering industry he found himself surrounded in his later years with all the comforts and many of the luxuries of this life. When the weight of years began to press heavily upon him he was kindly, and tenderly cared for by his son, R. Nicholas and the latter's wife and children. He also leaves forty-three grand children, and eleven great-grand children. In politics he was a Liberal, in religion a Methodist. Many years ago he was appointed a Magistrate, which position he filled to the satisfaction, of the community, and honour to himself, until the death of her Gracious Majesty the late Queen Victoria. The same distinction was conferred upon his son R. Nicholson a few years ago on account of increasing years he did not qualify under King Edward VII. In his capacity of J. P. many cases were brought to him for advice. He by his wisdom, and kindly nature and sound judgment, had many settled out of Court. He never looked for political honor. He was highly respected by all that knew him, and they were not a few. Rev. Mr. Harrison of Cornwall conducted the funeral services, at the house, and at the grave. An unusually large number of neighbors, and friends, followed him to his last resting place. The pall bearers were Hon. John Balderston, James Wynne, Ewan McMillan, Andrew McElroy, James Beer, William F. Fraser.

The death occurred at his home, at Colville Road, Lot 31, P. E. I., on Feb. 9th, 1908, of Charles Colwill at the ripe age of 89 years. He was a native of Bideford, Devonshire, England. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Pridham of the same place, by whom he had two sons, Philip and William. His father, before a man of ample means, gave his sons a good education. One son was a popular Anglican minister, another a successful lawyer. Charles the subject of this sketch, he set up in business, but he became dissatisfied with his surroundings, 64 years ago. He with his wife and two children bid adieu to his native land in May 1844, and started for the wilds of America, landing in Charlottetown, after a two months voyage. He settled on the farm on Colville Road, on which he lived until his death. Before he got his house ready for his family his wife became sick, and after a short illness died leaving him with his two little boys. Two years later he met and married Sarah Jane Fletcher, (aunt of Hon. Ex-governor, James H. Fletcher of Portland, Oregon and C. F. Fletcher of Charlottetown) by whom he had eight sons and three daughters, all grown to man and womanhood—Walter, James, George and Jane (Mrs. Wm. Ball) predeceased him, Albert; Rev. S. E. Edwards, a popular and very successful Methodist minister out west, Samuel in Taunton, Mass; Daniel P. and John R. in Washington, Seattle; Elizabeth Ann (Mrs. Brown) Michigan; Fanny (Mrs. Everett) Bally out west; and R. Nicholas out of the home. His wife predeceased him two years ago. He experienced all the privations and discomforts of the pioneer but by sound judgment, and persevering industry he found himself surrounded in his later years with all the comforts and many of the luxuries of this life. When the weight of years began to press heavily upon him he was kindly, and tenderly cared for by his son, R. Nicholas and the latter's wife and children. He also leaves forty-three grand children, and eleven great-grand children. In politics he was a Liberal, in religion a Methodist. Many years ago he was appointed a Magistrate, which position he filled to the satisfaction, of the community, and honour to himself, until the death of her Gracious Majesty the late Queen Victoria. The same distinction was conferred upon his son R. Nicholson a few years ago on account of increasing years he did not qualify under King Edward VII. In his capacity of J. P. many cases were brought to him for advice. He by his wisdom, and kindly nature and sound judgment, had many settled out of Court. He never looked for political honor. He was highly respected by all that knew him, and they were not a few. Rev. Mr. Harrison of Cornwall conducted the funeral services, at the house, and at the grave. An unusually large number of neighbors, and friends, followed him to his last resting place. The pall bearers were Hon. John Balderston, James Wynne, Ewan McMillan, Andrew McElroy, James Beer, William F. Fraser.

The death occurred at his home, at Colville Road, Lot 31, P. E. I., on Feb. 9th, 1908, of Charles Colwill at the ripe age of 89 years. He was a native of Bideford, Devonshire, England. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Pridham of the same place, by whom he had two sons, Philip and William. His father, before a man of ample means, gave his sons a good education. One son was a popular Anglican minister, another a successful lawyer. Charles the subject of this sketch, he set up in business, but he became dissatisfied with his surroundings, 64 years ago. He with his wife and two children bid adieu to his native land in May 1844, and started for the wilds of America, landing in Charlottetown, after a two months voyage. He settled on the farm on Colville Road, on which he lived until his death. Before he got his house ready for his family his wife became sick, and after a short illness died leaving him with his two little boys. Two years later he met and married Sarah Jane Fletcher, (aunt of Hon. Ex-governor, James H. Fletcher of Portland, Oregon and C. F. Fletcher of Charlottetown) by whom he had eight sons and three daughters, all grown to man and womanhood—Walter, James, George and Jane (Mrs. Wm. Ball) predeceased him, Albert; Rev. S. E. Edwards, a popular and very successful Methodist minister out west, Samuel in Taunton, Mass; Daniel P. and John R. in Washington, Seattle; Elizabeth Ann (Mrs. Brown) Michigan; Fanny (Mrs. Everett) Bally out west; and R. Nicholas out of the home. His wife predeceased him two years ago. He experienced all the privations and discomforts of the pioneer but by sound judgment, and persevering industry he found himself surrounded in his later years with all the comforts and many of the luxuries of this life. When the weight of years began to press heavily upon him he was kindly, and tenderly cared for by his son, R. Nicholas and the latter's wife and children. He also leaves forty-three grand children, and eleven great-grand children. In politics he was a Liberal, in religion a Methodist. Many years ago he was appointed a Magistrate, which position he filled to the satisfaction, of the community, and honour to himself, until the death of her Gracious Majesty the late Queen Victoria. The same distinction was conferred upon his son R. Nicholson a few years ago on account of increasing years he did not qualify under King Edward VII. In his capacity of J. P. many cases were brought to him for advice. He by his wisdom, and kindly nature and sound judgment, had many settled out of Court. He never looked for political honor. He was highly respected by all that knew him, and they were not a few. Rev. Mr. Harrison of Cornwall conducted the funeral services, at the house, and at the grave. An unusually large number of neighbors, and friends, followed him to his last resting place. The pall bearers were Hon. John Balderston, James Wynne, Ewan McMillan, Andrew McElroy, James Beer, William F. Fraser.

The death occurred at his home, at Colville Road, Lot 31, P. E. I., on Feb. 9th, 1908, of Charles Colwill at the ripe age of 89 years. He was a native of Bideford, Devonshire, England. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Pridham of the same place, by whom he had two sons, Philip and William. His father, before a man of ample means, gave his sons a good education. One son was a popular Anglican minister, another a successful lawyer. Charles the subject of this sketch, he set up in business, but he became dissatisfied with his surroundings, 64 years ago. He with his wife and two children bid adieu to his native land in May 1844, and started for the wilds of America, landing in Charlottetown, after a two months voyage. He settled on the farm on Colville Road, on which he lived until his death. Before he got his house ready for his family his wife became sick, and after a short illness died leaving him with his two little boys. Two years later he met and married Sarah Jane Fletcher, (aunt of Hon. Ex-governor, James H. Fletcher of Portland, Oregon and C. F. Fletcher of Charlottetown) by whom he had eight sons and three daughters, all grown to man and womanhood—Walter, James, George and Jane (Mrs. Wm. Ball) predeceased him, Albert; Rev. S. E. Edwards, a popular and very successful Methodist minister out west, Samuel in Taunton, Mass; Daniel P. and John R. in Washington, Seattle; Elizabeth Ann (Mrs. Brown) Michigan; Fanny (Mrs. Everett) Bally out west; and R. Nicholas out of the home. His wife predeceased him two years ago. He experienced all the privations and discomforts of the pioneer but by sound judgment, and persevering industry he found himself surrounded in his later years with all the comforts and many of the luxuries of this life. When the weight of years began to press heavily upon him he was kindly, and tenderly cared for by his son, R. Nicholas and the latter's wife and children. He also leaves forty-three grand children, and eleven great-grand children. In politics he was a Liberal, in religion a Methodist. Many years ago he was appointed a Magistrate, which position he filled to the satisfaction, of the community, and honour to himself, until the death of her Gracious Majesty the late Queen Victoria. The same distinction was conferred upon his son R. Nicholson a few years ago on account of increasing years he did not qualify under King Edward VII. In his capacity of J. P. many cases were brought to him for advice. He by his wisdom, and kindly nature and sound judgment, had many settled out of Court. He never looked for political honor. He was highly respected by all that knew him, and they were not a few. Rev. Mr. Harrison of Cornwall conducted the funeral services, at the house, and at the grave. An unusually large number of neighbors, and friends, followed him to his last resting place. The pall bearers were Hon. John Balderston, James Wynne, Ewan McMillan, Andrew McElroy, James Beer, William F. Fraser.

The death occurred at his home, at Colville Road, Lot 31, P. E. I., on Feb. 9th, 1908, of Charles Colwill at the ripe age of 89 years. He was a native of Bideford, Devonshire, England. At the age of 22 years he married Miss Pridham of the same place, by whom he had two sons, Philip and William. His father, before a man of ample means, gave his sons a good education. One son was a popular Anglican minister, another a successful lawyer. Charles the subject of this sketch, he set up in business, but he became dissatisfied with his surroundings, 64 years ago. He with his wife and two children bid adieu to his native land in May 1844, and started for the wilds of America, landing in Charlottetown, after a two months voyage. He settled on the farm on Colville Road, on which he lived until his death. Before he got his house ready for his family his wife became sick, and after a short illness died leaving him with his two little boys. Two years later he met and married Sarah Jane Fletcher, (aunt of Hon. Ex-governor, James H. Fletcher of Portland, Oregon and C. F. Fletcher of Charlottetown) by whom he had eight sons and three daughters, all grown to man and womanhood—Walter, James, George and Jane (Mrs. Wm. Ball) predeceased him, Albert; Rev. S. E. Edwards, a popular and very successful Methodist minister out west, Samuel in Taunton, Mass; Daniel P. and John R. in Washington, Seattle; Elizabeth Ann (Mrs. Brown) Michigan; Fanny (Mrs. Everett) Bally out west; and R. Nicholas out of the home. His wife predeceased him two years ago. He experienced all the privations and discomforts of the pioneer but by sound judgment, and persevering industry he found himself surrounded in his later years with all the comforts and many of the luxuries of this life. When the weight of years began to press heavily upon him he was kindly, and tenderly cared for by his son, R. Nicholas and the latter's wife and children. He also leaves forty-three