Canadian Naval Delegate Remains At Conference

(Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, Ont., April 4-Canada's delegate to the London Naval Disarmament Conference, Hon. J. L. Ralston, Minister of National Defense, who was to have sailed for Canada tomorrow, is staying on another week, sailing April 10. This was in response to a cable from Prime Minister Mackenzie King, based on the developments for an agreement of the past few days which seem to have reached a point warranting the continued presence of Col. Ralston.

-FORTUNATE ENDING TO RUN-AWAY-A somewhat sensational runaway took place on the street at Summerside last Friday afternoon. A team belonging to Mr. Fred Compton of St. Eleanors, driven by his hired man, was coming down Central Street when the bolt on one side of the shafts gave way and the animal, which is a powerful and very handsome western horse of recent importation to the province, became restive. The driver jumped to the ground but was unable to hold the horse, which got away from him and careered wildly to Water Street, where it took the right angle turn east and in doing so looked like going through the large plate glass front of Messrs. Prowse and Sons auto showrooms. Instead, however, the sharp turn at the curb overthrew both horse and wagon in violent fashion, the animal falling headlong on the concrete sidewalk. That its brains were not knocked out or its back or a leg broken was marvelous, but it picked itself up and, with the broken shafts dangling dashed on down Water Street some distance before it was captured. Apart from its shaming up, it had received no injury but a scratch or two. These western animals are surely hardy animals and know how to look after themselves in an emergency. The wagon also, excepting for the broken shafts, was not much damaged.-S.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

At the morning service yesterday, Dr. A. C. Vincent spoke on "Christ's Intercessory Prayer," using as a basis for his address John 17, richest and tenderest of all the prayers of Jesus. At this season with its approaching commemoration of the greatest of sacrifices and the most impressive of miracles, we draw aside the veil and enter, with becoming reverence and humility, the very presence of God, in Jesus Christ. As we contemplate his agony, as we think of his sacrifice for us we bow in reverence, in humble adoring love.

The chapter, John 17th, is perhaps the deepest, most intimate revelation of the prayer life of our Lord. How we wish that all his prayers had been preserved to us! O, incomparable liturgy! Truly in this contemplation we are on holy ground!

This gracious passage falls, before our consideration, into three main divisions.

CHRIST'S PRAYER FOR HIMSELF. "Father glorify Thy Son." The duty is accomplished, the great task is finished. The Royal garment had been laid aside for the garment of servitude, but he has finished the work and is ready to return to his Father. Not for himself is the glory sought, but what he might glorify the Father. "I have finished the work." His task involved the revelation of God to us, we cannot, without Jesus picture God. When we think of God, we think of Jesus.

CHRIST'S PRAYER FOR HIS DISCIPLES. I have chosen them. I have watched them, led them, kept them. I leave them now. I commit them to Thee. I do not ask that they be taken from the world, but that they may be kept from the evil. "They are not of this world." Note Christ's distinction of discipleship, the measure of our discord with the world is the measure of our concord with the Saviour. Make them perfect. Sanctify them in truth. Only through the word, which is the truth may they be sanctified.

CHRIST'S PRAYER FOR ALL WHO BELIEVE. This is a great petition for true unity, the spiritual unity of all who believe in him, a unity that can be understood through the Master's own vivid parallel "That they all be one, even as we are one, I in them and Thou in me." The true Church universal, whatever may be its name or sign, is composed of those who believe in Him, are one in his spirit.

And so this morning, as we stand in the full light of the glory of this marvellous prayer, may we be purified, may we be humbled, may we be consecrated to go forth daily and live as those whose souls are hid with Christ in God.

The evening sermon "The Night of Temptation," was another of the very interesting and impressive series on dramatic night scenes from the Bible. A very able address listened to with the closest interest by a large congregation.

The music for the day was, as usual, worshipful and impressive. Mrs. J. D. McNeill, contralto, sang with feeling Bartlett's "Come Jesus, Redeemer," at the morning service, while Mrs. Vincent, soprano, sang "Rock of Ages" in Johnson's setting, very effectively at the evening service. Eight young people were received into church membership. The ordinance of the Lord's Supper was observed at the evening service.

The Sunday School, which has been showing a gratifying increase during the past months, reached the figure of 192 yesterday, which is the best attendance since the beginning of 1930.

The weekly prayer meeting will be held in the main church building on Wednesday evening at half past seven.

GRAHAM

After Three Years of Preparation Now Gives an Impressive Object Lesson in Greater Value-Giving

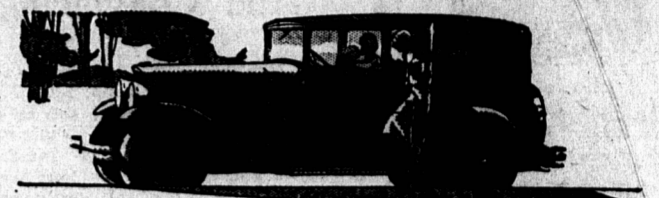

THERE could be no better time than this to give practical proof that by strict adherence to quality standards in massed manufacturing, motor cars can rise above commonplace quality and still be held down in price.

The way has been well paved for this exhibition of greater value-giving which the Graham brothers are now able to present, by nearly three years spent in perfecting their plant processes and by the manufacturing volume awarded by more than 160,000 owners.

Those valuable years, were preceded by more than 20 years in which they have tried earnestly to hold fast to the conviction that quality is the best policy in quantity production as in everything else.

In those progressive years the Grahams have learned much of incalculable value. They owe all they have to their public and they pass on now, at a moment when they believe it will be most appreciated, the fruits of their experience, in a line of cars so obviously superior in value that they advertise themselves - at prices so strikingly attractive that they represent impressive object lessons in greater value-giving.

HINTS ON ROSE CULTURE FOR AMATEUR GROWERS

A place apart from other flowers should be selected for your rose garden, sheltered from high winds and closely surrounded by trees, as close as apt to cause mildew. Having selected the site, the ground should be double dug to the depth of eighteen inches or two feet and a supply of manure (old cow preferred) mixed with the soil. On top of this place some turf upside down and soil on top of this. In planting, the budded part of the bush should be two inches below the surface. When planting spread the roots and cut of any broken or bruised parts. Roses can not be too firmly planted; when planting, tread the soil around each plant. Firm planting is essential.

YERNON RIVER AND VICINITY

The fishing season opened on Tuesday last and a large crowd turned out to try their luck. The saying goes, "The early bird catches the worm," so sure enough some of the boys were at the mill dam here at five o'clock in the morning.

Mr. Billie Ross, Vernon, and Mr. Jack Curley, Hermitage, were among the fishermen here last week.

They are still doing quite a business in potatoes here. Mr. H. B. McLeod, general merchant, loaded six cars last week.

Mr. Smith Lea was a visitor to the city Saturday.

Mr. Ed. Sterns, Uigg, was a visitor here recently.

Among the recent visitors to the city were, Joseph Weatherlie, Village Green, Milton Furness, Vernon, Gordon Ross, Vernon River, Ed. Sterns, Uigg, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Shaw, Vernon River, Jack Morrissey, Glencoe, Wilfred Drake, Millview, Edna Fraser, Vernon and Charlie McEellan, Vernon River.

A sad gloom was cast over the community in learning of the death of Mr. Lester Hayden, who died at his home here on Friday April 4th.

Mr. James Fraught, Vernon River is having the telephone put in his house.-V.

Honor Roll of Vernon River School for March:-

Grade IX-1. Aldie Carver, 2. Mar-

All diseased leaves should be collected from the ground and bushes and burnt when black spot is first discovered. Spray with Iver of sulphur and lead arsenate.
WINTER PROTECTION. Do not smother roses with long, wet manure. Many roses are ruined by covering them up this way. The best plan is to mound up the earth six or eight inches around the roots. It is true that those who have only a few under their care will value and enjoy them more than many roses produced for them by a professional gardener. Besides, why should you give the gardener all the delight and satisfaction which should be yours?
