COMES 5TH IN CLASS — The 1937 class of trained attendants at the "Parker School" had their graduating exercises in the Herbert Symonds Parish House, April 16th, at 4.30 p. m. Twenty-four pupils received their badges. Tea was served by the graduates to a large number of friends and relatives. Miss Parker gave a brief outline of the work which she is doing, and hopes that many people will become interested in it. Col. E. Hurlbut gave a very interesting address. Among the graduates was Miss Mary Monaghan, Hazelbrook, P. E. I. who came 5th, in her class. Her many friends here wish her every success. Miss Monaghan is at present working in the Verdun Mental Hospital, Verdun, Que.

Minutes of previous meeting were read, approved and signed. Two new members paid dues. The committees for month reported and the following new committees were appointed:—Sick, Mrs. A. Ranaghan and Mrs. Joseph McNeill. School, Mrs. George McEachern and Mrs. James Quinn. Programme, Mrs. Richard Quinn and Miss Margaret McEachern. Members presented finished square for a quilt which is to be lotteried in aid of Institute. Money was voted by buying for quilt and to provide tickets for lottery.

WINS DECISION EASILY
KINGSTON, Jamaica, May 2—(CP Cable)—Juan Herrera, former of Cuba and now Jamaica light heavyweight champion, easily outpointed Dominic Carelli, claimant of the Italian title, in a 10-round bout here Saturday night. Herrera took practically every round.

LEAPS TO DEATH

MONTREAL, May 1—(CP)—An unidentified man leaped into St. Lawrence River today from the rail of the main span of the Jacques-Cartier bridge, 190 feet above the water. Seaman on board the steamship Fleurus saw the leap but were unable to recover the body.

The figures for the different sections of the movement were: Wolf Clubs, 31,120; Scouts, 44,401; Lone Scouts, 5,772; Sea Scouts, 3,191; Rover Sea Scouts, 211; leaders of all ranks, 6,980. Rover Scouts, 2,693.

As in previous years, Ontario reported the highest provincial membership, with a total of 31,585. Quebec is next, with 8,736; Saskatchewan, 8,626; Alberta, 6,032; British Columbia, 6,851; Nova Scotia, 4,795; New Brunswick, 3,865; P. E. I. 575.

The report warmly congratulates the officers of La Federation des Scouts Catholiques de la Province de Quebec upon an increase within a year of more than 50 per cent. membership.

Congratulations are also extended to the Salvation Army Life Saving Scouts upon a substantial addition to their numbers in 1936. Papers confirming the affiliation of the Life Saving Scouts and the Boy Scouts as autonomous organizations under the Chief Scout for Canada and the Canadian General Council were signed during the annual meeting.

The report showed that Boy Scout Christmas Toy Shops operating in 161 towns and cities provided the Dominion last Christmas provided gifts for approximately 100,000 children of needy families.

Scout Apple Days were held in over 150 places, and many thousands of apples sold for eating out of hand to the mutual benefit of apple growers and local Scouting funds. Much incidental advertising of the good eating qualities of Canadian apples was secured.

The planting in the Scout Forest at Angus, Ont., of 70,000 trees during the May 24th week-end was a feature of the report on Scout reforestation work. Since 1929 450,000 trees have been planted on the site. Similar activities were reported from Nova Scotia and Manitoba. In New Brunswick the number of Scout Forest Wardens had substantially increased.

For the first time the World Friendship Proficiency Badge comes in for mention, as a means of encouraging goodwill and understanding among the Boy Scouts of all nations. During the year 25 Canadian Scouts carried on the necessary exchange of letters with Scouts in other countries to qualify for this new badge.

During 1936 a total of 10,361 Proficiency Badges qualifying for various kinds of public service were studied and passed by Wolf Cubs and Boy Scouts. Scouts studied and passed 11,098 badges in subjects aimed to improve them physically, and to assist them in discovering a life occupation. The service badges included: Ambulance Man, 1,416; Citizen, 172; Coast Watchman, 4; Cyclist, 1,190; Fireman, 1,367; Forester, 231; Friend to Animals, 324; Handyman, 889; Interpreter, 451; Missioner (home nursing), 781; Pathfinder (guide for tourists, etc.) 794; Piolet, 4; Public Health Man, 476; Rescuer (from drowning), 402; Safety Man, 400; World Friendship, 25.

Another story of the notable success of Scouting for boys and young men in Indian penal institutions was related by an Indian Scout before a Rotary Club in India. Twelve years ago he had suggested to the head of a large reformatory for boys that a Scout troop might help solve their disciplinary problem. He was told the idea was impracticable, as armed guards were necessary to keep order, and discipline was only maintained by public floggings. He was, however, permitted to visit the institution once a week to introduce Scouting games, and before long he was permitted to live on the premises. A Scout troop was eventually started, three years after his departure. Recently he had returned, to find an amazing transformation. Armed guards were gone, floggings were things of the past. The boys were even permitted, upon "Scout's Honour," to visit their homes, and return at an appointed time. And to date not a single boy had failed to keep his promise.

GOWN FOR QUEEN IS ALL BRITISH

LONDON, May 4—(CP)—All-British materials are being used in the making of the Coronation gown of Queen Elizabeth which will be much on the lines of that worn by Queen Mary at her own Coronation in 1911. The latter gown now hangs in the Ontario Museum at Toronto, cut on Princess lines, with short sleeves finishing above the elbow, and a little chemise of lace. The symbolic embroidery, combining the emblems of Great Britain and Empire, will decorate the dress back and front. Oak leaves and acorns, the Tudor rose, the thistle, shamrock the Star of India, and the lotus lily, all figure in Queen Mary's gown of 1911. Elizabeth's gown will be worn beneath the Imperial robe of purple royal velvet specially woven for the occasion. White shoes will match the gown. Queen Elizabeth will not wear a veil when she drives to Westminster Abbey, and a striking contrast will be provided by the simplicity of her uncovered hair on the outward journey, and the glittering crown and rich velvet robes which she will wear on the return drive to Buckingham Palace.

NATIVE OF MANITOBA

LONDON, May 1—(CP Cable)—Pilot Officer W. L. Warner, one of the five killed in yesterday's Royal Air Force accident when "two bombers collided in mid-air" at Methwold, Norfolk, is a Manitoban the Air Ministry announced today.

In Memoriam

MR. J. J. McLEOD

The death of Mr. J. J. McLeod, which occurred at his home in Bonshaw early Saturday morning will be learned with regret by numerous friends throughout the province.

Born in Hunter River 79 years ago the late Mr. McLeod when quite a young man removed to Riverdale where he farmed for a number of years, later removing to Bonshaw, where he was known as one of the most successful farmers in this district. The late Mr. McLeod in addition to his regular farm work was an ardent poultryman and for many years a director of the P. E. Island Co-operative Egg and Poultry Association. During the last meeting of Farmers' Week in this city, despite his illness he attended several of the meetings, receiving a warm welcome from his friends. He was also a director of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co.

A steadfast Liberal in politics the late Mr. McLeod was for many years President of the Queen's County Liberal Association, of which he is now Honorary President.

He was also at the time of his demise an elder of the United Church and a member of the Orange Lodge of Argyle. There are left to cherish the memory of a kind and loving husband and father, his sorrowing widow and the following family: John A., West Royalty; Louis D., Victoria; Norman A., on the home, Riverview; Geddie, Bonshaw; Stephen, at home; Sterling, Bonshaw; Mrs. John Gordon, Mrs. Harry Cudmore, Appin Road; Mrs. Reg. Jenkins, City; Mrs. J. W. McDonald, Mrs. Clark Crosby, Mrs. J. W. Boyce, Bonshaw; and Mrs. Geo. Milford, Liverpool, N.S.

One brother, Murdoch, the last of the family, resides at Bonshaw. To all of whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

MRS. ROBERT PENNY

The death of Mrs. Robert Penny of Beach Point took place at her home on the evening of April 7th, 1937. She had been in poor health for some time, but her passing was unexpected.

Mrs. Penny, formerly Violet Saunders, was born at Murray River 71 years ago, the daughter of Robert and Elizabeth Saunders. She was a member of the Church of Scotland and very faithful in attending her church. In addition to her husband she is survived by three children, Mrs. George Stewart and Mrs. Sydney Brooks, both of Beach Point, and James R., at home. She also has seventeen grand-children and two great-grand-children. The funeral service was held in the Christian church on April 9th, and was attended by a large number of sympathetic friends. The hymn's sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," and "Nearer, my God, to Thee." The pallbearers were Wallace McKay, Wallace Hume, Louis Harris, David White, Allan MacLeod and John MacKenzie. Rev. T. R. Goudge conducted the services and burial took place in the Murray Harbor cemetery.

HANDICAPPED

Among the guests at a reception was a distinguished man of letters. He was grave and somewhat taciturn. One of the ladies present suggested to the hostess that he seemed to be out of place at such a party. "Yes," replied the hostess with a bright smile. "You see, he can't talk anything but sense."

Mixed Claims Com. To Meet Friday

(A.P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

WASHINGTON, May 3—The German-American mixed claims commission is scheduled to meet Friday to act on three major questions affecting a final settlement of United States claims against Germany for $50,000,000. One of the claims affects the Canadian Car and Foundry Company. The 20-year-old claims grew out of war-time explosions at Black Tom and Kingsland, N. J., which United States representatives blamed upon German spies. Questions to be settled include: 1—Germany's plea that the United States government's petition for a rehearing in the cases be denied. The mixed claims commission twice has decided the Black Tom-Kingsland cases in favor of Germany and the United States now is seeking to have them reopened. 2—Germany's challenge of the commission's jurisdiction in considering the agency of Canadian Car and Foundry Company as a claimant for $7,000,000 damages. The agency Germany contends, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of a foreign corporation. 3—The United States' effort to have the commission act favorably on an agreement signed at Munich last July under which the claimants would receive 50 per cent of the face value of their claims.

Richard Paulig, the German agent, has filed with the commission a memorandum repudiating the Munich agreement "upon instructions from the German government."

Advance in Price Commodities Said To Be Overdone

(CP)

MONTREAL, May 3—(CP)—A sharp reaction in prices of commodities and securities in Canada during April is apparently based on recognition that recent "seasonal advances in prices of basic commodities, particularly metals has perhaps been overdone," the Royal Bank of Canada reports today in its monthly business letter for April, released five days in advance due to "events of the last few days."

"In Great Britain armament demands are creating a situation in which the avoidance of inflation will be difficult," says a preamble to the letter. "In the United States the financial situation is favorable to continued recovery. "Speculative excesses have been checked but the recent reaction in commodity and security markets is probably out of proportion to the valid news. Throughout the world there is a surplus of money and this surplus will continue to exert pressure towards expansion."

The immediate situation, especially in the United States, was "further complicated by the rumor the price of gold might be 'decreased,' the letter continues. "Denial of any forthcoming change in the price of gold brought re-established confidence but only after markets in the United States and foreign countries had been seriously affected. "A drastic decrease in the price of gold might be expected to reduce prices temporarily in the United States. The psychological shock would be profound. Obviously the resulting setback to recovery would not be welcomed by the administration."
