Rev William Harrison, City, was a passenger on the mail train last night returning from St. John where he attended a meeting of the N. B. and P. E. I. Methodist Conference, of which he is chairman of the Charlottetown district. At this meeting the conference passed a resolution expressing their sympathy with the fire sufferers at Campbellton, especially those of the Methodist congregation there, and offered the assurance of such practical assistance as might enable them to rebuild and continue the work of the church. A committee was appointed to consider the course of action to be pursued to this end composed of Rev Mr Harrison and J. W. Harvey, St John, and they recommended that each church in the conference be immediately asked to assist financially. This will be done by letter setting forth the sufferer's needs and containing a strong plea for immediate help.

The Guardian learns that Rev J.A. Winnfield is sending out several more practical farmers with their wives and families about the end of September or early in October. Two of these have already secured farms through the agency of a son of one of them who came out in April last. Mr Winnfield has received splendid letters of encouragement from many who came out last April. Farmers forgoing laborers next spring should apply to Mr Winnfield at once stating rate of wages, etc. Mr Winnfield is now in Scotiand attending a number of agricultural shows in the interest of P. E. I.

The Cheese Board met in this City yesterday with a small attendance of salesmen present. The buyers in attendance were A. J. Biffin, Mr. Spillet, G. E. Auld, and R. E. Mutch.
