—THE TRAIL OF THE 98th AT KENSINGTON.—The lecture and stereopticon views presented at the C.M.B.A. Hall, Kensington, on Monday night by Major Parker Hooper, were highly appreciated by a large audience. The views of shell-torn France, Belgium and parts of Germany had a particular heart interest for many. The views are so intensely interesting and so plainly depicted that Major Hooper has little trouble in explaining the details which he does in distinctly audible "soto voce." The lecture and views are perhaps the most vivid presentation of the "real thing" that those who have not been at the front are privileged to see. Major Hooper does not forget sentiment for a memory of the dear departed heroes, whose mortal remains repose in Flanders fields and the views of crosses marking the graves of Island heroes, brought many a silent but unregretful tear from relatives in the audience of the dear departed.
