Canada Going Ahead With Plans To Attend Olympics; Wolves To Sail Jan. 17

Around The N.H.L. Camps

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
CALGARY, Nov. 3—After winning all three games of an exhibition series here against an All-Star team from the Northwestern Hockey League, New York Rangers of the National Hockey League were travelling across the Prairies tonight enroute to Winnipeg to take on Montreal Maroons. Stanley Cup holders, in another exhibition series.

Content to keep pace with the minor leaguers, Rangers had to turn on all their power Saturday night to come from behind in the last period and edge out the All-Stars 4-3. Bill Cook scored the winning goal on a pass from Ott Heller with two minutes to go.

Bill Cook, with two, Bun Cook and Ott Heller found the goal for Rangers. For the Maroons, the defence men did all the scoring. Bob Gilmore getting two and Gordon Savage, who refuses to come to terms with Montreal Canadiens, the other.

Harold Starr, chunky defence man, was out of the game with sore shoulder suffered when he ploughed into Bill Cook in practice yesterday. The latter took his place on defence.

OLYMPICS TROUNCE WINGS

DETROIT, Nov. 3—(A.P.)—Serving notice they will make a determined bid to retain their International Hockey League championship, the Olympics trounced their Detroit major league brothers, the Red Wings, 7-3 tonight in the second game of the Detroit City series. The Wings were downed 2-2 and the third is scheduled for Tuesday night.

The minor leaguers outskated and outgamed the Wings for most of the game witnessed by 8,000 fans. Deacon, Foster, Duguid, and Starr tallied before the major leaguers could dent the twentysix goal tally.

Serrill scoring the Wing's first goal in the final period.

Maroons Eke Out Win

WINNIPEG, Nov. 3—Russell Blinco's lucky goal in the third period gave Montreal Maroons, Stanley Cup holders, an even break in their two-game exhibition hockey series with Philadelphia Ramblers, Canadian-American League newcomers. Maroons triumphed 2-1 in the final game last night. Ramblers eked out a 2-1 victory in the first struggle last Wednesday.

Despite injuries in their ranks, Ramblers fought all the way but could do little to overcome the Maroons' strategy. The first period went scoreless. Late in the second Joe Lamb, who showed a marked improvement over his play in the first game, received a pass from Allan Shields to give Maroons the lead.

The young Ramblers, however, rallied and tied it up within two minutes. After a smart play around Maroon's goal, Mac Colville passed the rubber out to his brother Neil who drilled a shot to goal. Beveridge's pads, Shibley came in fast from left wing to take the rebound and scored.

Beveridge was unbeatable in the third. He turned aside five burning drives early in the period as both teams began to press for a winning margin. Russell Blinco broke fast from Maroon's area and while skating at full speed lifted a hard drive from Ramblers' blue line. Shooting from right wing, Blinco's drive flashed through the Ramblers' defence and found its mark just inside the goal line.

Bill Miller and Bill Mackenzie of Maroons played with the Ramblers.

MONTREAL, Nov. 3—Canada's acceptance of Germany's official invitation to the 1936 Olympic Games has been made more than one year ago and Canada's status as a participant remained unchanged. P. J. Mulqueen of Toronto, chairman of the Canadian Olympic Committee, said tonight.

Mr. Mulqueen and W. A. Fry of Dunville, Ont., President of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada were in conference with heads of Canada's winter sports bodies Saturday with a view to closer co-operation in regard to the winter games. Mr. Mulqueen said the matter of Canada's participation had not been officially discussed as no official protest had been received by the committee.

When the matter was informally discussed by some representatives at the gathering, Mr. Mulqueen informed the meeting that any official representations would be considered fully at the annual meeting of the A. A. U. of C. and Canadian Olympic Committee at Halifax November 22.

Called primarily to discuss finances and other routine matters in connection with Canada's athletes in the winter games at Garmisch-Partenkirchen in February, the meeting was told that 120 winter sports athletes would carry the maple leaf.

Halifax Wolverines, Canada's hockey representatives, will sail from Halifax probably January 17 and provision was made for 15 players, a coach and manager. The team of six skiers will sail one week earlier and two additional men will be picked up in Europe.

Lack of necessary funds was stressed by William Roughton, Montreal, president of the Canadian Amateur Skating Association. Mr. Roughton said it was possible no team of skaters would be sent to Germany because of lack of money and regretted that valuable points might be lost in the event of such a procedure.

The only team not bothered with financial troubles was the hockey team, Mr. Mulqueen told the meeting. Hockeyists, through Mr. Fry, had promised to pay the complete cost of their expenses. Mr. Mulqueen recalled that in the 1932 Olympics the hockey team contributed $7,000 more than was necessary and this sum helped considerably to defray expenses of other teams.

Halifax Wolverines will represent the Dominion in Germany as winners of the Allan Cup in 1934-35. Mr. Fry said a committee comprised of Mr. Burns, Claude Robinson of Winnipeg, and Billy Hewitt, Toronto, had been named before the Allan Cup finals last spring to consider what players, if any, would be added to Canada's representative team for strengthening.

An invitation from the German Olympic Committee for Canada to send 30 boys and 30 physical education instructors to view the games was read by Secretary Crocker.

The invitation was objected to by Mr. Henschorn "because of present conditions in Germany, and because it might be regarded as propaganda. Mr. Mulqueen suggested formation of a committee to look into the matter and mentioned Dr. Lamb, Mr. Crocker and Dr. Hart as possible members.

Before adjourning the session Mr. Mulqueen criticized "certain private persons who are conducting amateur boxing shows at a profit."

Scout News and Notices

All Scout committees and all interested in Scouting are reminded of the annual meeting of the Provincial Association in the City Hall at half-past seven this evening.

Mr. H. Greenaway, of the headquarters staff, Ottawa, has had a busy week in connection with organization and classes. He had a most successful series of lectures on "Demonstrations on Cub work" and also a profitable time with the patrol leaders and other officers practically all day Saturday. In the evening a most enjoyable banquet was given in St. Paul's Hall by the Provincial Ladies' Auxiliary, at which, in the unavoidable absence of the President, Mr. J. O. Hyndman, the Vice-president, Mr. L. D. Murray, presided. The feature of the function was the splendid inspirational address by Mr. Greenaway, the speaker being welcomed and introduced by Provincial Commissioner Morris. Votes of thanks were proposed and seconded as follows: To the Ladies' Auxiliary, Scouts Tom Norrie and Frank Anderson; to St. Paul's Vestry, Scouts Bob Morris and Billy Coombs; to Mr. Greenaway, Scouts Durrell Murray and Ira Stewart. Afterwards Mr. Greenaway showed an interesting series of moving pictures of the rallies at Halifax and Charlottetown in connection with the Chief Scout's visit; also of how a forest fire is handled.

Fate Of Wolverines And Maritime Class "A" Hockey Will Be Known Today

HALIFAX, Nov. 3—Whether or not Halifax Wolverines will be held together to represent Canadian hockey at the Olympic Games in Germany this winter will be known definitely within 24 hours, prominent sportsmen here declared tonight.

Secrecy clouded the frantic activity of the club committee over the week-end but it was generally believed a drive was being organized to pool enough resources to meet the heavy expenses of rink-time, equipment and training that meet every team at the opening of the season.

It was a well known fact in sport circles of this city the last year's Allan cuppers led heavily through-out the Maritime Hockey League schedule of 1934-35 and that even the gate receipts of packed houses during the Canadian championship playoffs failed to overcome those deficits.

Just what yesterday's meeting of the Wolverines' committee decided may never be known. It had been expected the fate of the team hung in the balance of the club's decision, but evidently an open verdict was returned. Sworn to secrecy, the only statement members of the committee made tonight was that they would have a definite statement sometime tomorrow whether or not the Halifax team would go into training for the opening of the Maritime Hockey League this month.

Upon this statement, too, hinged the fate of the Maritime's only class "A" hockey loop which has produced Canadian champion teams for the past three consecutive years. It was thought hardly likely that the backers of Charlottetown Abbies and Saint John Beavers would venture a two-team league. Moncton Hawks disbanded last winter. Officials of the Canadian Olympic Committee meeting in Montreal yesterday declared the Wolverines would be Canada's hockey representatives in Germany next year, but evidently they did not consider the possibility of the team disbanding.

Only one player has been lost to the professional ranks. He is Ron Hudson, brilliant right winger who scored in every game after the Wolverines hit the playoff trail against Charlottetown last winter. Coach Red Stuart has also moved. He is now coaching Sudbury Wolves. The rest of the players are all in Halifax.

Seat Sale Opens At Forum This Morning

Ice-making begun at the Forum on Saturday has proceeded ahead so satisfactorily that it is expected the Abbies will drop over the boards this evening for a light workout. Skating alone will be included in that the players may gradually accustom themselves to the feel of the blades.

Interest is mounting daily in the coming Bruin-Canadien tilt Wednesday night when the Forum officially throws open its doors for the season. The seat sale opens this morning and fans are urged to secure their reservations early and avoid disappointment. The touring National Hockey League teams conclude their stay in Halifax tonight and will entrain Tuesday morning for the Island where they wind-up the pre-season series.

Passengers Are Landed From Stranded Ship

(By Guardian's Special Wire)
KINGSTON, Jamaica, Nov. 2—Eight passengers were brought to Kingston by launch today from the grounded aluminium liner Sorvagen.

The salvage tug Warbler was standing by and it was expected she would start work refloating the vessel tomorrow. The Sorvagen went ashore early Friday morning off Port Morant, near where the Holland-American cruise liner Rotterdam grounded last month.

Bound for Kingston from Demerara and Port of Spain, the Sorvagen carried only eight passengers and was believed in little danger. The sea was calm and plates had been sprung from pounding.

The crew remained aboard to aid in tomorrow's refloating operations. The vessel was announced today by Alfred P. Sloan, President.

Sloan in a statement characterized the ship as "a fine specimen of modern shipbuilding."

Birthday Greetings

TO MARION MOFFATT, Vancouver swimmer, born in Moosejaw, Sask., 18 years ago today. Miss Moffatt was a member of the Canadian swimming team at the British Empire Games in London last year. Competing against the Empire's best she came in fourth in the 100 yards backstroke event.

Nomad Practice

The Nomad football team will hold a practice at the C. A. A. grounds this afternoon at 5.15. All players are asked to attend. The game which was postponed Saturday afternoon because of the inclemency of the weather will in all probability be played Wednesday.

Penalty Kick Wins Title

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
FREDERICTON, N.B., Nov. 3—A successful penalty kick Saturday by the means of Fredericton High reby halfback Art McLennahan was the means of Fredericton High retaining its long reign as Intercollegiate Rugby Champions of New Brunswick after a lapse of one year. The 3-0 victory, recapturing the title from St. Vincent's High of Saint John, was a repetition of the provincial final score last year, when St. Vincent's won the crown.

Dal Defeats Acadia 11-0 On Wet Field

WOLFVILLE, N. S., Nov. 3—Dalhousie's scrum, heaviest and fastest in the City Rugby League, served the Tigers well on a slippery field here yesterday when they shut out Acadia University's axmen 11-0 to remain in the running for the League title.

Aggressive as any hungry pack could be, the Tiger scrum kept the ball well within Acadia territory most of the time with well-organized dribbling and when axmen did break loose, a hard-hitting Dalhousie back-line was waiting to bring them down.

Following a scrimmage inside the Acadia 25-yard line, Allie MacSwien went over for Dalhousie's first score and Perce Sheppard got two extra points for the kick after try from a hand angle.

Dalhousie continued offensive tactics in the second half and two unconverted tries were scored. Carl "Poo" DeWolfe picked up a loose ball and fell over the line after the scrum had dribbled through 100 centre field. Speedy George Thompson, following up fast, caught his own kick and carried the ball 25 yards to go over for a try in a corner.

If Dalhousie defeats Wanderers next Saturday, the Tigers will be tied with Acadia for first place in the League for a play-off.

Acadia's Intermediate team partially revenged the axmen's defeat when they took Dalhousie Cubs 5-0, when Leslie Bayne converted Harley Cameron's try half way through the first half.

Senior lineup—
 Dalhousie: Connor, fullback; Mitchell, Thompson, Ross, Stoddard, three quarters; Buckley, MacSwien, Dugan, Halves; Gunter, Sheppard, Cook, DeWolfe, Lawrence, Mercer, Ball, forwards.
 Acadia: Tedford, Rannels, Feindel, Le Shaw, Balouch, Ralston, Beveridge, Ho'gate, Sanford, Davies, Ideson, Allaby, Ellsworth, Spicer, R. Shaw.
 Commander Murray of Halifax, referee.

Intermediate lineup:
 Dalhousie: Hudson, MacGregor, Koresky, Hanaway, Balouch, Dean, Lipton, Webber; Phillips, MacKenzie, Pauker; Beeber, Nicholson, Stephenson, Rodgers.
 Acadia: Bayne; Spurr, Bligh, Archibald, Fountain; Cameron, Eaton, Foshay; Gillis, Haney, Demings, MacDonald, Stevens, McMurrice, Edwards.

Shot By Friend In Mistake For Bear

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
CLARENDON, N.B., Nov. 3—William Sinnet, 40, was fatally wounded Saturday afternoon when his life-long friend and neighbor, George Kuppey, mistook his form for that of a bear in the woods near Sinnet's farm here.

The farmer, wearing a black leather coat and hat, was on his knees digging in moss to set a trap. His back was turned to Kuppey who, with the visibility poor, fired at a distance of 50 yards. When he heard the "bear" Kuppey found he had shot his former schoolmate through the abdomen.

Sinnet died at his home late last night. He leaves a wife and three small children.

It was the second fatal shooting of the present hunting season in New Brunswick. Dr. F. A. McGranl, coroner, said no inquest was held unless ordered by the Attorney-General's Department.

Mount Allison Rugby Team Defeats U.N.B. Team 12-3 To Capture N. B. Title

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

SACKVILLE, N. B., Nov. 3—Running roughshod over University of New Brunswick's fighting rugby machine, Mount Allison University smothered the New Brunswick intercollegiate crown from their traditional rivals Saturday afternoon by scoring three tries and a goal from a penalty kick to make the count 12-3. The victory was Mt. A.'s first title win over U.N.B. since 1911 when the red and black lost 16-0.

The first game of the home-and-home total-count series resulted in a scoreless tie. A sudden death game for the Maritime intercollegiate title will be played by the Allisons and Acadia University of Wolfville, N. S., by Thursday of this week at the latest.

Although rain poured in the first half, making a muddy field and soggy ball for the entire contest, the goateer, husky U.N.B. man who played opposite Robertson, was outstanding. Both sides showed unusual accuracy in fielding punts. Generally the backfields had little to do but tackle.

A solo dribble by Gough ended in the first try, Robertson falling to convert. On a penalty kick Captain Bob Brodie made the score 6-0.

In the second half Burke scored again for Mt. A. in combination with Gascoigne. Robertson's second attempt to gain the two extra points was unsuccessful. After a loose scrimmage on the 30-yard line Gascoigne made the third try for the local collegians, putting them far in the lead. Robertson hit a goal-post in attempting the convert. A penalty kick by Don Jamer from a difficult angle 10 yards out provided the three U.N.B. points. He missed another penalty kick.

Fears Held For Overdue Schooner

(By Guardian's Special Wire)
ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Nov. 3—A west-bound schooner, Newfoundland land shipping had one vessel sunk, another missing and a third in port here tonight having a propeller replaced.

En route to Boston the steamship Artigas limped into St. John's last night after a fire had burned her down to the waterline. Her crew was able to row safely to Coachman's Cove after taking to the boats.

Meanwhile, it was feared the schooner Cleme Dalton had been lost with all hands. She was unreported since Oct. 21 when she set out from Beale Harbor for Catalina. The section of the Newfoundland Coast was harassed by a great storm three days after the Dalton put out.

The auxiliary schooner Arnaldo sank off Partridge Point Friday night after a fire had burned her down to the waterline. Her crew was able to row safely to Coachman's Cove after taking to the boats.

ized the move as "an experimental effort to better stabilize employment and to make it possible to increase annual earnings for automobile workers."

Prices Expected To Reach $1.50 a Barrel As Demand Exceeds Supply

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 2—New Brunswick potato growers have already received more than $250,000 for tubers shipped to Ontario and Quebec and are looking forward to the most successful season in years.

G. C. Cunningham, member of the now suspended potato marketing board who has been retained by the provincial government to do "special potato work," announced today that so far 1931 carloads of potatoes have been shipped from this province to Ontario and Quebec, mostly to Ontario.

There are between 250 and 275 barrels to a carload and the price has ranged from 90 to a dollar. Today the price is $1.50 a barrel, only from 15 to 18 cents a barrel, Mr. Cunningham said.

While the crop is only 50 percent of what it was last year, due to an average reduction of at least 25 percent and a reduction of approximately 40 percent, he stated that this is working to the advantage rather than the disadvantage of growers.

"There is no question," he said, "but what it is helping prices, we haven't nearly enough potatoes to supply the demand. The price now ranges from 80 cents to a dollar and the general opinion in the potato growing districts is that it will rise to $1.50 or two dollars later in the season."

Mr. Cunningham continued that farmers who obtained loans of up to $200 from the government last spring to purchase fertilizer are repaying these rapidly. Some growers who had such loans received from $1,500 to $2,000 for their crops.

"For potato growers who had a reasonable crop—there were some—last year and who are now in some ranges of heat and drought of the summer—this is decidedly the best season in years," the potato official declared.

The 931 cars shipped to Central Canada so far compares with 898 cars shipped up to November 2 last year and brought eight or nine times more money.

Due chiefly to the curtailed crop, however, seed shipments are down. Only 289 carloads of seed potatoes have been shipped to date, compared with 368 carloads in the corresponding part of last season. Most of this seed stock has gone to Cuba.
