LONDON, May 14.—The strike of the Cunard employees at Liverpool, which threatened to interfere with the maiden voyage of the Aquatania, was settled yesterday.

WHEN NOTHING TASTES GOOD TO YOU

You eat simply because you must. You are troubled with dyspepsia. It makes your life miserable. You have a bad taste in your mouth, a tenderness at the pit of your stomach, a feeling of puffy fullness, headache, heartburn, and sometimes nausea.

"Now when the house is being thoroughly cleaned, is the time to brighten up your furniture. You can do this by using Liquid Veneer, a preparation that has gained the approval of all who have tried it. It is easy to use and makes old furniture look like new. Two Macs, 149 Great George St. METT.

EXAMINATION.—The following is the roll of honour in De Blois school for the month of April. Grade VI.—1. Alma Perry; 2. Maria Gallant. Grade V.—1. Ben Richard; 2. Susie Handran; 3. Julian Gaudet; 4. Emma Perry. Grade IV.—Cyril Richard. Grade III.—1. Katie Perry; 2. Malhilde Bernard. Grade II.—1. Henry Handran; 3. Johnny Perry; 4. May Richard. Grade I.—Opheline Gaudet.

DAMAGED WHARF.—The S. S. Empress, which arrived in Charlottetown at about 4 o'clock on Sunday morning leaving about noon, was responsible for slight damage to the wharf. Through some misunderstanding between the engine room and those in charge of the signal bells, the boat was run into the wharf at a fair rate of speed, in spite of a desperate and admirable effort on the part of the man at the wheel.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. NORMAN McLEOD

In the death of the late Norman McLeod at Clyde station on April 10th, Hartsville lost a good citizen and the Presbyterian Church a faithful and esteemed elder. He was seventy-three years old and left a large family to mourn his departure.

MR. DAN McKENZIE.

The community of Dundas was shocked on Friday morning the 8th day of May, 1914, when the news went around that Dan McKenzie, son of Rodrick McKenzie of this place, was dead. He had been ailing for some time past but his demise was not so soon expected.

MR. JOHN McLEOD.

On Thursday morning the 7th day of May, 1914, there passed away into the spirit world the soul of a beloved brother John McLeod of Big Lot, King's County, in the 75th year of his age, leaving to mourn, a sorrowing widow, four sons; Rev. Peter Allen, Kemptville, Ont.; John W. Upton, Duncan G. Vancouver, B. C.; James A. on the homestead; one daughter, Mrs. G. H. Jones, Brackley Point Road; three brothers, Rodrick in Boston, Murdoch and Duncan, Dingwell Mills, and one sister, Mrs. Malcolm McLeod, Dundas.

The deceased was one of the old "land marks" of Dundas. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church for many years past, and lived a good, honest upright life. Kind and indulgent in his own family, he was a husband and father; of a kindly disposition to the poor and needy, always ready to entertain strangers and make them comfortable and happy while under his roof. He was not a man of many words but he laid the foundation of his spiritual life down deep upon the Rock of Ages, and was able to say at the end of the journey through life, "I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." He said to his pastor a few days before he died that he was ready, and did not wish to return. The sorrowing friends, therefore, need not "mourn as those who have no hope."

MR. HUBERT A. VESSEY.

It is with the deepest regret The Guardian chronicles the death of Hubert A. Vessey in his thirtieth year of his age, deceased was a honest, industrious, hard-working young man, always ready to lend a helping hand to them, who needed his assistance. On April the 6th when, having wood for a neighbor, he complained of not feeling well, and returned to his home early in the afternoon. About two o'clock in the morning he grew worse. Dr. Urchison was immediately called in, but all that medical skill, and loving hands, could do, could not banish that dread disease, pneumonia, and on the twenty-second, his spirit peacefully passed away to its eternal ward, there to await his Saviour's all. Besides a large circle of friends and relatives, he leaves to mourn, a heart broken father and one sister atie. Although the roads were almost impassable, his remains were allowed to their last resting place by about 90 sleighs. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hattie of the Presbyterian church. The pall bearers were Mr.

ussell Boyce, Eddy Boyce, Charles McCaughy, Bradford Boyce, Neil almond and Donald McFayden.

THE LATE MR. JOHN C. MCCARTHY

The residents of Tignish and vicinity were shocked on Tuesday last to hear of the death of Mr. John C. McCarthy; Sea Cow Pond. The circumstances connected with the death are particularly sad but somewhat different from what was first reported. Mr. McCarthy left Tignish on Monday night for Sea Cow Pond about six miles distant. It is thought that when but a short way from home the horse became frightened and bolted throwing the deceased to the ground overturning the wagon upon Mr. McCarthy. When picked up the unfortunate man was still breathing but expired shortly afterwards. His neck had been broken. The late Mr. McCarthy was one of the most highly respected residents of Tignish and was prominently connected with the lobster business being one of the leading packers. He had attained his 75th year and leaves to deplore his loss, besides a host of friends, his sorrowing widow and a large family—Four daughters and five sons. The daughters are: Miss Beatrice, teacher at Kelly's Cross, Sister St. Mary, Notre Dame Academy, Charlottetown; Sister St. Alcer, cius, Montreal and Sister St. Gerald, Providence, R. I. The sons are: Chester, Law Student, Charlottetown; Gerald, Principal of Georgetown High School, S. A., in the employ of the C.N.R. at Victoria, B.C., and Lester, Manager for P.E. Island for Messrs. W. S. Loggie Company, Chatham, N.B. The funeral took place at Tignish Catholic church on Friday where a requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Parish Priest, Father Dougal Macdonald. It was exceptionally largely attended and among the visiting clergymen present were Rev. Maurice McDonald, Alberton, Rev. Stephen Macdonald, Brae, Rev. P. P. Arsenault, Mt. Carmel, and Rev. T. Curran, Kelly's Cross.

MR. MURDOCH GILLIS.

The death occurred at Lyndale on May 20th of Mr. Murdoch Gillis, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Gillis. The deceased was of unassuming nature, of a retired disposition and liked and respected within the circle of his acquaintance. He was born on the farm where he died 67 years ago. He belonged to a large family of eleven children, ten of whom have passed from the scenes of earth and have joined the majority. The only survivor of that large family is the Rev. John Gillis of Wood Islands. The funeral took place on Thursday the 14th inst. and was largely attended. The Rev. James McDougall of Cape Traverse conducted religious services at the house and grave and gave a very impressive funeral address. The remains were laid in there last resting place in the Orwell Cemetery at the Big Church on the Murray Harbor Road. He has left a disconsolate widow, and one brother already mentioned above, who follows behind the hearse, with a niece Mrs. M. McLean of Ocean View. The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Messrs Alex. Bruce, I. R. Bruce, A. H. McDonald, John C. McLeod, Dingwell Jenkins and Joseph McDonald. The friends of the late Mr. Murdoch Gillis of Lyndale embrace this opportunity of
