CLYDE RIVER.—There will be regular service in the Presbyterian Church at Clyde River on July 8th. The Rev. W. R. Auld B. A. B. D., will speak.

CHURCH SERVICES.—Rev. J. Heaney will conduct services next Lord's Day at Cornwall at 11, at Kingston at 3, at North Wiltshire at 7. There will also be service at Cornwall at 7, conducted by Mr. Geo. Cuiwys.

CAPT. AND MRS. GORDON OF GEORGETOWN announce the marriage of their daughter Helen Sylvia to John Erskine son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Lockerby of Fortune Cove this month. 1391-7-4M31pd.

VISITING CLERGY TO ASSIST.—The Reverend Edwin Lukes, B. A. College, Windsor, will take charge of the parishes of Georgetown and Cherry Valley during the months of August and September.

SIMMONS—MORRELL WEDDING.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Morrell, Sunny Brae, their daughter, Miss Daisy, was united in marriage to Mr. Leslie Simmons, by Rev. James Crisp, in the presence of a number of invited guests. The happy couple will go on a short wedding tour, after which they will reside in Freetown, P. E. I. says a St. John Exchange.

PRISONERS OF WAR.—Donations of $5.00 each have been received from Mrs. Percy Pope and the St. Peter's Bay Presbyterian Church. Trooper Gill 4th C. M. R., who has been adopted by the St. Peter's Bay Presbyterian Sunday School writes as follows: "I thank you very much for sending me parcels through the Red Cross. I can assure you it brightens our life quite a lot to think that the people of Canada are so thoughtful of us out here. I hope it won't be long before we are all home."

FAREWELL SERMON.—A Fredericton Exchange says that on Sunday evening, Rev. Thomas Marshall delivered his farewell sermon as pastor of the Fredericton Methodist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall leave on Thursday for their new home at Fairville, where Mr. Marshall assumes the pastorate of the Methodist Church. The new pastor of the Fredericton church, Rev. George M. Young, is expected here from Campbellton, next Monday. He will preach his first sermon to his new charge on Sunday, 15th inst. Mrs. Marshall a few days ago was presented with a wrist watch and a purse of gold by the ladies of the congregation. Both Mr. Marshall and Mr. Young are former Charlottetown Pastors.

CANADIAN MAGAZINE.—The current issue of the Canadian Magazine is of a peculiar interest in this confederation jubilee year, giving as it does an excellent history of the Confederation Movement from its inception to its consummation, also articles dealing with the commercial and industrial progress in each of the provinces, during the past fifty years, each of these being written by the premier of the province concerned. The article on Prince Edward Island was contributed by ex-Premier, now Chief Justice Matheson. There was also an article on Canadian Commercial progress by Sir George E. Foster beside the usual excellent quota of literary matter always to be found in this popular magazine.

MT. STEWART SCHOOL.—Mt. Stewart High School closed on June 29th after a very successful year's work. In May 23rd the semi-annual examination was held at which the large number present showed their evident interest. Great regret was expressed at the loss of their Principal who had handed in her resignation and the scholars through their Progress Club presented Miss MacLeod with a very valuable ebony mounted Toilet Set in appreciation of her untiring efforts in their behalf. The assistant Miss Morrison who was unable to finish her term because of illness was also kindly remembered by her pupils.

COMING TO P. E. I.—Rev. Harry Pierce delivered his closing address to his congregation at Hillsboro, N.B., on Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Pierce, in his usual eloquent manner, expressed his regret at leaving his work among those of his church, and thanked his people for their kindness and hearty co-operation in his efforts here. Rev. Mr. Pierce left on Thursday to enter upon the work of his new field at Pownall, P. E. I.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very interesting event took place at Kelly's Cross, on Tuesday morning, June 26, when the bride, Miss Loretta Whelan, a prosperous young farmer of Emyvale, led to the altar Catherine McGinn, one of Emyvale's popular young ladies. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Dr. Curran. The bride, who was beautifully attired in a dress of blue silk crepe de chene, with white plure hat, was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Katie Clarkin, who also wore blue. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Daniel McGinn, brother of the bride. Immediately after the marriage ceremony, the bridal party went for an automobile drive through the surrounding country, returning at 12 o'clock, when dinner was served to the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. In the evening a large number of invited guests assembled, and a very pleasant time was spent in dancing, singing, etc., until daylight brought thoughts of home to the happy crowd, when all dispersed, leaving their good wishes to follow the happy young couple to their new home.

COVE HEAD SCHOOL.—The semi-annual examination of Cove Head Road School was held on Wednesday afternoon, June 27, in the presence of a large number of visitors and friends. The pupils were examined in the different subjects by their teacher, Miss Loretta Whelan, ably assisted by Miss Stella Morris, Donaldson and Miss Ida Whelan. At the conclusion of the examination the following program was delightfully rendered. Opening—Welcome—by seven of the lots. Recitation—Edna Macdonald; Dialogue—"Lost in the Woods"—Jean McEachern, Frank Whelan, Helena White, Katherine Ready; Recitation—Edna Macdonald; Duet—Helena White and Katherine Ready; Recitation—Ruth Birt; Flag Drill three boys and three girls; Recitation—Dorothy Macdonald; Solo—Bessie White; Recitation—Rosella Woodridge; Recitation—Perle Jay; Recitation—William Macdonald; Dialogue—Walter Pickle, Edward White and Emma Whelan; Recitation—Roy Woodridge; Exercise—Julian White and Derle Macdonald; Duet—Vacation Days, Katherine and Bessie Ready. At the close of the program the pupils were treated to ice cream and cake by the teacher assisted by the ladies of the district. Much regret was expressed at the departure of their teacher, Miss Loretta Whelan, who had by her ability as a teacher won the esteem of all. A splendid address was read by Edna Macdonald, and the presentation of a handsome kodak was made by Katherine Ready. The teacher thanked her pupils for their thoughtfulness, and extended to them hearty good wishes for a joyous vacation. The proceedings were brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.
