

BANK CHARTERS EXTENDED FOR ONE YEAR

OTTAWA, May 17.—Hon. W. S. Fielding's motion to give a third reading to his bill to amend the Bank Act by extending existing charters to one year provoked quite a discussion.

Major Sam Sharpe (N. Ontario) said that a royal commission should be appointed to investigate the banking system of Canada. There were certain defects in that system, as many bank failures had attested. Some Canadian money went to Wall Street to assist American stock gamblers in their operations.

Hon. Mr. Fielding did not favor the motion of investigating the banking system. He submitted that any needed reforms could be discussed when the Bank Act was revised.

Dr. Sproule (East Grey) in a spirited speech, replied to the finance minister. He said that the Canadian banking system did not deserve the praise it received. The savings of the people were gathered in from all parts of the country and sent down to the head offices of the big cities for stock speculations in Wall Street. He believed that a local bank was better than the branch home industries. He believed that the embargo on marriages now prescribed by bank managers should be prohibited by amendments to the criminal code.

The death occurred at Union Road yesterday of Mrs. Albert Mellich of that place. The deceased, who was formerly a Miss Campbell of Montague, had been ill but two weeks and the news of her demise will come as a shock to her many acquaintances. She leaves a husband, two sons, two daughters and one brother, Peter Campbell of Montague, to mourn. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon to the Union Road Cemetery.

At the People's Theatre last evening a picture show paralleling in excellence anything yet put on was enjoyed by the throngs of patrons who filled the theatre. The drama unravelled in the picture "When the Light Waned" was of absorbing interest throughout and a fitting climax amply demonstrated the ingenuity of the Vitagraph people. The other reels were most interesting and held the close attention of the audience. Miss Annie Laurie in the spot light specialty and illustrated song performed in a manner equal to her previous appearances when she captivated her hearers with her beautiful voice. She is a singer worth travelling no small distance to hear and her part in last night's show at the popular theatre was to say the least, indisputable.
