established fact in fair measure for a beginning, and it is sincerely hoped that the inspection of food and the closing of unsanitary houses will soon follow.

The visit of Dr. Porter, who very kindly gave an address in the Prince Edward Theatre under the auspices of this Society and who is with us this evening, is very encouraging and is taken as a distinct privilege.

No doubt the eloquent and effective addresses given by him here and in other sections of the province that he is visiting, will have a stimulating effect on the interests of the public health.

The officers and members of this society are grateful to the physicians who invariably give of their time and in many cases of their means, readily and generously, to relieve urgent cases of disease, and also the press and a generous public for sympathy and support.

I desire to acknowledge Mr. Gallagher's kindness in placing the Prince Edward Theatre at the disposal of the society free of cost, for the benefit of the public health, on the occasion of Dr. Porter's lecture, and the ladies who conducted the envelope collection have our lasting gratitude.

J. McCAREY, President.

Miss DeBlois' report will appear tomorrow.

KINDLY REMEMBERED.—On the evening of March the first the choir of the Princetown Methodist church and their friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Kent to spend a social evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith, (nee Miss Sadie Kent) who has taken up her residence in Wheatley River. During the evening Mrs. Smith, who has been a faithful member of the choir for the past three years and will be much missed by them, was presented with a suitable gift.

Mrs. Smith, although taken by surprise, thanked her friends for their kindness. The evening was spent in music and conversation, Mr. Kent favouring the company with several solos accompanied by the violin, which was much appreciated by all.

After a dainty supper was served and all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Smith much happiness in their newly married life, they departed or their homes feeling they had spent a very pleasant evening.

BELLEVEUE NOTES.—Mr. D. H. McPherson, has purchased from Mr. Daniel McDonald his farm of 200 acres, McPherson is to be congratulated on securing such valuable property.
