"THE BARGAIN CENTRE"

HOW THEY STAND IN CITY LEAGUE BASEBALL

The Guardian is indebted to Mr. Charles Stewart, official scorer for the City League for the complete and interesting summary which appears below relative to individual work of each player during the course of the games played in the first section which ended last Friday.

Much time and no little trouble was experienced by Mr. Stewart in the recording and compiliation of said figures therefore congratulations are in order for this "silent official" as scorers are sometimes called, not only from the officials and players but the vast following of fans as well.

It may be noticed that "Dutchy" Diamond, among the first four in the last official standing, is now leading the parade of swatters with a splendid average of .437. Jack McEachern is a close second batting for .400, while George Francis, leading some time ago is in third position with .375.

Percy McInnis of the Rovers is the biggest "thief" in the league, he having succeeded in pilfering sixteen sacks with a leading run total of six. Ed. Lynds of the Stars is on McInnis' heels with eleven stolen bases and five runs.

It may also be noticed that the Anchors although not so far ahead this trip in team batting, are still showing the way with .248; Stars second, .245 and Rovers third, .212.

The Anchors as a team arethe biggest offenders in errors, miscuing for a total of 27. The Stars are next totalling 19, while the Rovers have less errors than either, 15 in all.

The following is a complete summary, with one game exception of the big doings:

Institute Members Honor Secretary

At the June meeting of the Cardigan Women's Institute Miss Genoa Lewis, who has been the capable Secretary of that Branch for the past four years was presented with a valuable gift and a pleasing address by the Institute members with whom she has been a general favorite:

Miss Genoa Lewis,
Cardigan, P. E. I.

Dear Miss Lewis:

We, the women of Cardigan Institute, have learnt with earnest regret that you have resigned from your position as teacher in Cardigan High School, where you have been so warmly appreciated for several years; and at the same time you will sever your connection with the Women's Institute in the same place where you have been not only a valued member, but the faithful painstaking secretary for over three years, fulfilling every duty, always cheerful and optimistic and ready to help out in every undertaking.

We realize that your task has not been an easy one, but never learnt it from you, and we have no hesitation in saying that in like manner you will fulfill every obligation you are called upon to assume.

With the heartfelt appreciation and very best wishes of the members absent and present, we ask you to accept a small token of our regard, in memory of our happy relations together.

Hoping to see you among us soon again, we are

Yours very affectionately,
The Members of the Women's Institute,
Cardigan, P. E. Island.

—PLAY ENJOYED.—"The Path Across the Hills," a play in three acts, was presented by the Social Dramatic Players of Borden, on Wednesday night, the 16th inst., to a packed house, in their home town, and as it was the initial production of this organization, they were enthusiastically received by the delighted audience. The acting throughout displayed careful attention to those details which bring out the strong points of comedy-drama, and as an amateur production, was highly commendable, and deserving of congratulation, the character portrayals being of an especially high order. Between the acts a number of high class specialties were given by Mr. Munroe, banjo artist and vocalist, of Saint John, N.B., and Miss Georgie Read, of Borden, pianist, which were repeatedly encored. It is the intention of the players to present the "Path Across the Hills" in several localities during the coming season and they should be assured a generous patronage. The following are included in the members of the cast: P. J. McInnis, Clayton Green, Roy McKenzie, Fred H. Wigmore, John A. Gaudet, Mrs. J. V. Macdonald, Kathren Howatt, Thelma Gaudet, Mrs. John J. McIsaac.

MISS JULIA RYAN

After a five weeks illness from spinal meningitis, Miss Julia Ryan of this city passed away at the Charlottetown Hospital about half past eight Sunday morning at the age of twenty years and ten months.

Miss Ryan, who was the daughter of Mrs Minnie Ryan, was a young woman of splendid character and of lovable disposition.

After graduating from the Union Commercial College she was employed for a time in Woolworth's store, and later in the Western Union Telegraph office, discharging her duties capably and faithfully.

About two weeks ago she entered the Charlottetown Hospital where everything possible was done to restore her to health and strength, but Providence willed otherwise.

Her death is of unusual sadness as her sister, May, died four years ago at about the same age, twenty years and six months.

Great sympathy will go out to the bereaved widowed mother, and other members of the family, who have been called upon to bear such a heavy burden of sorrow. Out of a family of eight, only three remain, two sons, Dennis and Edward and one daughter Eileen, three children having died in infancy.

The funeral will be held from the residence of her mother, 89 Gerald Street at 8.40 a. m. tomorrow (Tuesday) to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, and thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery.
