

MR. EDWARD SMITH

The Best in the World Says Charlottetown Man

That's How Edward Smith Regards Decro, the Famous Herbal Remedy, and He Speaks From Personal Knowledge

Mr. Edward Smith, of 60 Cumberland Street, Charlottetown, joins with many other Prince Edward Island people in acclaiming Decro's remarkable success as a corrective for deep-rooted, distressing digestive ailments. Mr. Smith, who is well-known in the Canadian Merchant Marine, makes the following statement:

"I was greatly troubled with stomach disorders and indigestion. Everything I ate would cause gas to form in my stomach and I would have headaches all the time. Severe pains in the small of my back frequently bothered me as did constipation also. However, I am much better now and am going to keep on with the Decro treatment until I get my full strength back. I am no longer troubled with my stomach, have no more headaches and the pains in my back are gone, while my bowels are regular. I cannot praise Decro too highly, for it has made me feel 100 per cent better. I strongly recommend Decro for all who suffer from complaints similar to mine. It is the best medicine in the world."

Decro helped Mr. Smith because it is prepared from the juices of herbs, roots, bark and leaves, known for centuries as nature's correctives for digestive complaints. In Decro, they are scientifically combined to give the best result. Decro contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs and is a safe, reliable health-builder for old or young.

Decro is being specially introduced in Charlottetown by E. A. Foster. It is also sold as follows: Montague—H. J. Mabon. Souris—Souris Drug Co. Summerside—Gallant Drug Co., Limited, and by a good druggist everywhere.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN H. MCKINNON.

At Sturgeon, on February 9th, 1924, the Angel of Death hovered over the home of Mr. John H. Mc-

Kinnon, and gently removed him beyond the pale of suffering. Mr. McKinnon had been in poor health for some time, and gradually grew worse, until despite the best medical skill and tender care of his family, he passed peacefully away in the 69th year of his age. Besides the bereaved widow the following family survive:—J. L. McKinnon, Merchant, Peters Road; Mrs. Fred Johnston, Murray Harbor North; Myrtle and Mrs. W. D. Johnston now at home, Mrs. A. MacDonald, Peters Road; and Elsie Mayburn (deceased).

The surviving brothers and sisters are:—Neil McKinnon, Milltown Lot 61; James A. Attleboro, Mass; Daniel Wm. Fairfield, Mass; Mrs. W. B. Hicken and Mrs. Alex. Campbell Alliston, and Mrs. Walker Duke, Montague.

The deceased was a man who was very widely and favorably known, and possessed the best will of a host of acquaintances at home and in surrounding localities. It is not too much to say Mr. McKinnon made a success of his chosen profession—farming and by steady work and courage made a home which is a credit to his skill and perseverance in this onerous calling.

He is a man who will be much missed in the community, as he took a deep interest in whatever was for the best interests of the people. But particularly will his loss be felt in the home. Here during his illness he had the comfort of being cared for by a family entirely devoted to his needs, and was sustained by visits from his Pastor and others. It is gratifying to know that he possessed a very clear view of these spiritual truths, which are the only real solace, as we bid adieu to our dearest earthly friends. The funeral services conducted by his Pastor Rev. H. A. Brown, were most impressive and cheering. The coming of the end had no fears for him, and with a firm hope, he passed away quietly to the "Great Beyond" as one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams. The procession to the Cemetery at Sturgeon, where interment was made was very large.

The bereaved family desire to thank all the friends who so generously helped them during their sad bereavement.

MRS. N. J. MACEachERN

On February 20th, there passed away at Fairfield, after a lingering illness, Mary, the beloved wife of Neil J. MacEachern at the early age of twenty-three years. Although the deceased had been ailing for some time, hopes were held for her recovery, yet the end was sudden, and all that kind and loving hands and medical skill could do was of no avail. She died fortified by the rites of the Roman Catholic Church.

She was of a kind and generous disposition—loved and respected by all who knew her and she will be sadly missed by a large circle of friends.

The large cortege which followed her remains to St. Columba's cemetery showed the esteem in which she was held. A Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. R. J. MacDonald, who also officiated at the grave.

She leaves to mourn, a sorrowing husband and one son, George, a grief stricken father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Campbell, two sisters, Margaret and Jennie and one brother, George, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended. The pall-bearers were: Sylvanus McAulay, James Campbell, Henry McMahon and Chas. McMahon. May her soul rest in peace. (Patriot please copy.)

MISS ANNIE MCCORMACK

At her late residence 22 Grandville St., Charlottetown, on Feb. 15th, after a lingering illness which she bore with patience and resignation to the Divine Will, Annie McCormack, in the 73rd year of her age. Deceased was of a bright and cheerful disposition and was liked by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She died consoled by the last rites of the Catholic Church administered by Rev. Father Walsh who attended her in her last illness. On Monday morning Feb. 18th her remains were conveyed by rail to St. Peter's her former parish and despite the bad condition of the roads a large crowd was at the station to meet the train and followed the remains to the Catholic Church where a high Mass of Requiem was said by the Pastor, Rev. A. McAulay who also performed the obsequies at the grave in the adjoining cemetery, where her mortal remains were laid to rest, there to await the glorious resurrection. She leaves to mourn two sisters, Mrs. Stephen McIntyre and Eliza in Charlottetown, also two brothers, James at Cable Head East and Joseph in Maine, U. S. A. The pall bearers were Capt. John McDonald, Pius Sutherland, Freeman Leslie, Charles McKinnon, Vincent Sutherland and Alfred O'Henley. May her soul rest in peace.

MR. WILLIAM SUTHERLAND.

The death of Mr. Wm. Sutherland deserves more than a passing notice. Born in Greenwich in 1874, a son of the late John and Martha Sutherland he spent his life on his beautiful farm overlooking St. Peter's Bay where he was born and was one of the most successful farmers in the community. He was very much esteemed as a man who stood four square to the world and whose word was his bond. During his life he took an active interest in every work which tended towards the better interests of the community. His passing has left a blank in the community which will not be easily filled.

During his illness which he bore with Christian patience he was tenderly nursed by his faithful wife who never left his bed side. He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Miss Ethel, teacher, and three sons, Shirley, Robert and Gordon; also one brother James and two sisters Mrs. Chas. Sanderson and Mrs. William McLaren of Greenwich and Cable Head to whom the sympathy of all goes out in the loss of a dear husband, father and brother.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor the Rev. J. M. McLeod, interment at Midgell cemetery Feb. 13th, 1924. A good man is gone.

Deceased had been in failing health for a year and a half and suffered much at times and was confined to his bed for the last five months. He is survived by three sons, William Allen and Everett Lincoln in the United States, David in West Brook, Maine. His two eldest sons James and Howard predeceased him many years ago, having died in early manhood. Also three daughters, Lillian, Mrs. Harold Woodward in New York; Kessia in Charlottetown, Bessie, Mrs. Robert Andrews with whom he made his home for the last four and a half years and who cared for him in his last illness.

His funeral took place Saturday 9th conducted by the Rev. A. W. Robertson of Kensington and at the grave by Rev. R. H. Stavert of Hunter River. The pall bearers at the house were, C. M. Howatt, Murray Robertson, Alex Douglas, Robert Douglas, Robert Bowness, James E. Andrews. The remains were conveyed by team to New Glasgow cemetery where friends from Mayfield, his old home, laid him to rest beside his wife who predeceased him over thirty-two years ago.

Alkaline Shampoos Bad For Washing Hair

Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified oil as that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. Besides it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified. Before of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.
