led out in mobilization, and Prague along with other cities was dark. Taxicabs were requisitioned for transport of officers and men in the virtually complete mobilization. No filling stations were open; there was conservation of gasoline. Trains were packed.

Some international trains were not crossing the borders. Arriving at a frontier, a train would stop. Passengers wishing to go on had to carry their own baggage and cross the border afoot, hoping another train would pick them up.

A group of 44 United States citizens, fearful of crossing the frontier into Germany, returned to Prague. They had heard reports they would be placed in German concentration camps.

Women and girls were called to air-raid precaution stations for instructions on what to do in event of gas or bombing raids.

Overwhelming support of the Government by the citizens is in many instances being observed in Austria before she was annexed by Germany, and it is a spirit which would seem to indicate that there might be a different story to tell in Czechoslovakia.

—“NERVES” SHE CALLED IT—Losing interest—losing friends—she went out any two more ways too tired. “Nerves” she thought—but it was her kidneys, the filters of her blood, that needed attention.

She took Dodd's Kidney Pills at once. The improved action of her kidneys cleared away blood impurities and excess acids. Fatigue, headache, backache, lack of energy, disappeared.
