"I'LL CLEAN your sink in just a wink...!"

"... and I won't make it dull, dingy or old looking as coarse, harsh cleaners do." Kitchen sinks that are cleaned only with Bon Ami shine like new after years of use. Simply because Bon Ami doesn't scratch or dull the glossy surface of enamel or porcelain.

And Bon Ami not only makes sinks look clean, it also makes them smell clean. There's never any heavy, musty odor where it's been used!

You'll enjoy cleaning with Bon Ami. It's so smooth and fine... so pure and white... so harmless to your hands.

Skye, Scotland, he was brought to this country a babe of nine months old in his parents' arms who settled in Brooklyn, where Alexander spent the rest of his life with the exception of about 2 years rallooding in Western Canada before he was married. The widow, five daughters and one son survive, one son and one daughter passing on before. Mrs. Mary Lamont, Mrs. Christy Stewart, Mrs. Lizzie J. Banks, all of Boston, Mrs. Margaret Matheson, Brooklyn; Mrs. Agnes Whiteway, Dover, and Mr. John Martin McPherson in the old home.

Three brothers, Norman, Archie and John D. McPherson having passed on before, Mr. McPherson is still survived by five brothers and two sisters as follows: John B. McPherson, John A. McPherson, both in California; Dan McPherson, B.C.; Angus T. McPherson, Bellevue, California, P.E.I.; Ewen McPherson, Wood Islands, P.E.I.; Mrs. Lizzie Rennie, Littleton, Mass., and Mrs. Christie MacLean, Dundas, P. E. I. The funeral was the largest seen in this parish for many a year, testifying to his popularity and the respect in which he was held.

Mr. McPherson was a man of sterling qualities, thinking true and kind and straight out with what he thought when the occasion required it, also a man of deep irremovable religious convictions. Great lovers of the word, the House, the public and private worship of God, Mr. and Mrs. McPherson were, and their children follow in their footsteps. In rain or shine they were, if at all possible, found in their Heavenly Father's House. Firm and deep was his loyalty to the Presbyterian Church of his fathers, and great was his grief—as a life-long Christian friend who knew him well put it—when he lost to the union of 1925 the place of worship in his younger days, he silently watered his pillow with his tears many a night when he transferred his church membership to the Valleyfield Cemetery until the Resurrection morning when we believe Alex. McPherson will be open-eyed, acknowledged and acquitted, while meantime the soul of this genuine believer at his death immediately passed into glory.

The services at the home and grave were conducted by his Minister, Rev. Allister Murray, Caledonia. The bearers were J. M. Matheson, D. A. McLean, D. E. and Neil McPherson, Angus and Norman J. McPherson. He gives his beloved sleep. Our heartfelt sympathies are with the bereaved widow and family. (Patriot please copy)

THEATRES BEMOAN LOSS OF PLAYERS

MANCHESTER, Sept. 20. — (C.P.) —Flies have so encroached on the big theatres that the "stars" of the stage who naturally would be expected to fill the famous old theatres of London, are seldom in them.

"Gracie Fields is mainly occupied with films. Cicely Courtneidge and Jack Hylton seem to be exclusively screen stars now," says The Guardian. "The achievement of repute and popularity by the English film companies has made matters harder than ever for theatre managers who want to cast a play attractively, for the disappearance of stage talent to the studio becomes more general and more rapid, as Wembley, Twickenham, Elstree, and Shepherd's Bush all join the Hollywood search for personal attraction."

Most actors and actresses prefer stage work, but money speaks and speaks so loudly that they cannot continually deny the call, the Guardian writer points out. Young players who have had a little West End success and are beginning to learn their business are immediately recruited for the studios and disappear.

"The effort to do both kinds of work is a losing battle."

IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAM W. GODFREY

William W. Godfrey, a native of Prince Edward Island, passed away at the Elliot Hospital, Manchester, N.H., August 1, 1934, after an illness of eleven days duration, at the age of 44 years.

Mr. Godfrey was the son of the late Noah Godfrey and his wife Mary J. Clowe, of Peters Road, P. E. I.

The funeral services were held from the Baptist Church, Londonderry, N. H., Saturday afternoon, August 4th. Rev. Mr. Swallow preached the sermon, which was very comforting and consoling to the loved ones who mourned his sudden death.

Mr. Godfrey leaves six sisters: Mrs. Caroline Fuller, North Easton, Mass.; Mrs. Sarah Arnold, Farmington, N. H.; Mrs. Ada McLean, Murray River, P. E. I.; Mrs. Emma McLean, Montague, P. E. I.; Mrs. Ethel Ray, Beverley, Mass., and Mrs. Annie Chester, Epping, N. H. The latter four living in the New England States.

Mrs. Walter was the soloist and sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," also, "The Old Rugged Cross."

Burial was in the Pleasant View Cemetery, Londonderry, N. H. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

The deceased has many relatives and associates of his boyhood days in Prince Edward Island. To the surviving members of the family deep sympathy is extended.

IN MEMORIAM

ALEXANDER MCPHERSON

Mr. Alexander McPherson passed to his eternal rest at his home in Brooklyn, Caledonia, Aug. 11, 1934, aged 77 years, after considerable sufferings for months though with one or two short spells of such recovery as gave his loved ones and friends hope that he would remain with us for years more. But it was not to be. God knows best and acts with unerring wisdom. So Mr. McPherson is not, for God took him. Born in Digby, Parish of Kilmuir,
