PRIME MINISTER MAKES DONATION TO WAR SERVICES

OTTAWA, June 15—"Canadian Authors' Series," a library of books being formed by the education division of the Canadian Legion War Services, has been increased by two autographed volumes by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, Lieut.-Col. Wilfrid Bovey, national chairman of the division, said today.

Mr. King's books, "The Secret of Heroism" and "Industry and Humanity," will be sent this week, along with 200 other volumes from the pens of well-known Canadian writers, to the C.L.W.S. education headquarters in London. The books will form the basis of a large library being established for men of the Dominion's fighting forces who are studying trades and professions under the Legion's wartime scheme.

In presenting his books Mr. King congratulated the Legion "upon its educational services, and upon the novel idea of obtaining copies of works by Canadian authors."

Included in the shipment leaving Canada this week are works by Canon F. G. Scott, Sir Charles D. G. Roberts, Mazo de la Roche, Lawrence J. Burpee, L.M. Montgomery, Hector Charlesworth, A. S. Bourinot, P. D. Ross, Lloyd C. Douglas and many others. Most of the books bear the autographs of their authors.
