In Memoriam

MRS. WILLIAM B. BULMAN

The death occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on July 12, 1947, of Mrs. William B. Bulman, at the age of 72 years. Mrs. Bulman was a daughter of the late George and Mary (Semple) Houston, and was a life-long resident of New Glasgow. She was a favorite with young and old, and her genial manner and kind hospitality won for her many friends. Not only in the home will she be missed, but in the community, where she took an active part in Missionary and Institute work, and especially in her church, where she was the faithful and efficient organist for many years.

There are left to mourn: a stepson, Chester, at home, two sisters, Mrs. Edgar Stevenson, Westminister, Mass., and Mrs. Fred Clark, Cavendish; also many other relatives and a wide circle of friends who will fondly cherish her memory always. Her husband and her brother, Dr. Houston, predeceased her during the past year.

The funeral, under the direction of Mr. Jas. E. Andrews, was held on July 15th. Services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Gough. The pallbearers were: Eric Stevenson, Mervin Bulman, William Semple, Harold Dickleson, George Clark and Chalmers Laird. Interment was in New Glasgow Cemetery.

Somewhere back of the sunset, Where loveliness never dies, She sleeps in a land of glory, 'Neath the blue and gold of the skies. 'Tis only good-night, dear Laura, It's just what we used to say, We will meet again in the morning At the dawn of a beautiful day.
