

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN PICTURES FOR GUARDIAN READERS

AUTO SPECIALLY BUILT WITH LEFT-HAND DRIVE FOR CANADIAN USE
The photograph reproduced ABOVE drive for Canadian use, for Lord Jency is seen standing by his car, the coronet emblem on the hood, which was brought out by him mounted in front, the insignia of a coronet in England with a left-hand drive to Rideau Hall, Ottawa. His excellent vice-regal vehicle.

COMES NEAR DEATH

Sir Malcolm Campbell, holder of the world's automobile speed record of 100 miles per hour. Only a lucky skid saved him from almost sure death. He is shown here beside the car whose steering gear broke when travelling.

REPUBLIC OF BARCELONA COMES INTO BEING

Gen. Lopez Ochoa in the act of signing the proclamation which made Barcelona a Republic after the re- officers who served with him in the of the former king.

GATHER AT OLD YORK TO HEAR STORIES

and grandpa said: "All the kiddies better to eat you with." Happy study are enjoying the stories in the Old York, England. The maid is her grounds.

COME FROM ALL OVER BRITISH ISLES

Here are three competitors with their entries arriving at a recent show of fancy mice held at Market, London, Eng., when exhibits from all over the British Isles were shown.

VISITING CANADA

Randolph Spencer Churchill, son of Winston Churchill, who has been touring United States and Canada, photographed while visiting a college at Toronto, Ontario.

LINDERBERG'S MOTHER TAKES TO AIR

Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh of Detroit, mother of the flying colonel, has taken to the air, too, but by the radio address on how to bring up children.

HAROLD LLOYD, JR., CRASHES INTO PICTURES

Harold Lloyd, Jr. is here seen taking his first screen test under the direction of his proud father and mother. And it's not a talking picture even if it is a talking likeness of all concerned. Harold Lloyd has been having an enforced holiday from movie-making as a result of an appendicitis operation but he left his hospital bed to get in this picture, Mrs. Lloyd, who played opposite Harold for several years, is the former Mildred Davis. Their first child was a girl, Gloria, Harold, Jr., was just three months old when he posed for this picture.

PLANS OCEAN FLIGHT

Mrs. Edith R. McColl, Galt, Ont., stenographer, who has announced her intention of attempting a solo Atlantic flight, which is said to be sponsored by P. A. Broadbent of Toronto.

LEFT YOUNG LORD AND LOST PET "TRING"
Lord Duncannon, eighteen-year-old son of Earl of Bessborough, Canada's new governor-general, with his pet black Labrador retriever, "Tring" which has been lost for more than a week and for the return of which he young lord is offering a reward of $40.

FARMER MEETS INSTANT DEATH AT LEVEL CROSSING

Here is shown remains of car in passenger train at level crossing in which James L. Hie, Everton, Ont., Rockwood, near Guelph, Ont. The farmer, was instantly killed when victim was dragged 100 feet under the machine was struck by a C. N. R. (the wreckage of the vehicle).

ON JOURNEY FROM ENGLAND TO CAPE TOWN

Miss May and W. Scott are seen on a journey to Cape Town, South Africa, in their machine, photographed before leaving Birmingham, England.

COME ON, SUMMER

Here's what the well-dressed movie star will wear at the beach this year, says Lillian Bond, here seen in rose-jersey bathing suit and cloak trimmed in black and white.

PRIDE IN ANIMAL'S APPEARANCE

A barber grooming a camel, giving his customer a clean shave and a probably longer than that without having his camel groomed well. To him manicure. A camel, they say.

ISHBEL KEEPS UP WITH THE TIMES

Miss Isabel MacDonald, daughter of the Earl of Rockwood, England, where she is of England's prime minister, is shown taking flying lessons in the cockpit of her aeroplane.