Judge—Before being hanged, have you a last request to make?
Barber—Yes, your honor, I'd like to shave the prosecuting attorney's neck once.
Her Father (to suitor): "My daughter doesn't want to be tied to an idiot all her life."
Suitor: "Just so, sir. Why not let me take her off your hands?"

A crowning achievement of MARCONI Radio Engineering

Sensational!

The New ONE DIAL MARCONI RADIO

YOU have only to hear this Radio Receiver once to realize the difference, the big, vital difference, between it and any other Radio you have ever listened to.

Never until now such tonal realism, such true selectivity, such accuracy, such pleasing volume and such operative simplicity.

Sensational is the only word to describe the performance of this New 6-Tube One Dial Marconi Radio. Designed for you by Marconi engineers, it expresses in fullest measure the standard of perfection which assures lasting satisfaction in your Radio investment.

Battery Operated or Batteryless

You can have this supreme New Radio either way. There are two Battery operated Receivers—the Table Model, as shown, at $115; or a handsome Console Model, with built-in speaker, at $165.

The New Batteryless One Dial Marconi is in one style, a beautiful Console, with built in speaker. No batteries. No aerial. Plugged into any lighting socket, it proves its leadership in the field of "no battery" Radio.

In justice to yourself and before you decide on your Radio investment, you should see, hear, operate these wonderful New One Dial Marconi Receivers. Only then will you know the heights to which Marconi research and engineering skill have carried modern Radio performance, in both the Battery Operated and Batteryless fields.

LECTURE AT BREADALBANE.—On the evening of Friday, Nov. 18th, Rev. W. Bruce Muir, St. James Church, Ch'town, gave an interesting and instructive lecture in the Orange Hall, Breadalbane. Although the weather was somewhat unfavourable and the roads in a rather poor condition, yet a fairly large gathering was present. Rev. R. Hensley Stavert presided and introduced the lecturer of the evening. Mr. Muir chose for his subject "Burns Scotland's national Bard". The subject was dealt with in a masterly and scholarly way. The lecturer's rendering of a number of Burns' outstanding poems was indeed splendid. The audience was delighted with the lecture. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was moved by Mr. J. J. Graham and seconded by Mr. Hugh McLeod and tendered by the chairman Rev. R. Hensley Stavert to Mr. Muir and by him fittingly acknowledged. Mr. Muir then announced to the gathering that the people of St. James Church, Ch'town had decided to present to the new Presbyterian Church at Bradalbane the pulpit and the three pulpit chairs used in St. James Church before the present pulpit and pulpit chairs had been purchased. A hearty vote of thanks to the St. James Congregation for their kindness and generosity was moved by Mr. J. J. Graham and seconded by Hugh McLeod, and tendered by the chairman to the people of St. James Congregation through their pastor, Rev. W. Bruce Muir. This was suitably acknowledged by Mr. Muir who assured the people that he would convey to the congregation of St. James their expression of gratitude on the part of the Presbyterians, an congregation at Bradalbane to them for their generous gift. The meeting was then closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

In Memoriam

MR. DOUGLAS C. BERTRAM
Death occurred at the home of his sister, Mrs. David Corbett, Maple Creek, Sask., of Mr. Douglas C. Bertram on Nov. 5th, 1927 at the age of 64 years. The deceased was the youngest son of the late John Bertram formerly of Glasgow Road, P. E. I. He resided in Plapout district, Sask., for a number of years, where he took up farming. Being in failing health, he went to visit his sister Mrs. David Corbett, where everything that could be done with medical skill and kind hands, yet with all of no avail for God saw fit to call him away. He died trusting in the merits of a crucified Saviour. He leaves to mourn a widow, four brothers and two sisters, namely David in Coloma, B. C.; Frank in New Bedford, Mass.; Thomas and Hammond of Hunter River P. E. I.; Mrs. David Corbett, Maple Creek; Mrs. Charles Tripp, New Bedford, Mass. The funeral took place from the United Church on Thursday, Nov. 10th to the Maple Creek Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)

Two years ago Today!

December Second marks the Second Anniversary of the "Great Orthophonic Revolution" which gave the world a new musical outlook.

On that momentous day (December Second 1925) the Victor Company overthrew all previous notions regarding the possibilities of home music. Since that time, the day of its conquest over Canadian hearts, the new Orthophonic Victrola has climbed ever from one glorious triumph to another.

Today—you may have a new Orthophonic Victrola which does everything for you—gives you music from a whisper to tremendous volume,—operates electrically if you wish—and even changes your records for you! Today—you may have your choice of eight beautiful cabinets—your choice too, of the unequalled repertoire of V. E. Orthophonic Victor records which has been built up in these two years.

Today—the new Orthophonic Victrola gives you everything you so much desire in beauty, in convenience, in the musical art!

Today—there is nothing in the way of music enjoyment, no means of attaining superlative reproduction which is not represented in its highest form in some model of the new Orthophonic Victrola.

Since 1925 it has moved ever upward—increasing in its splendid isolation. Models from $1400 down to as low as $115 on convenient payments at His Master's Voice dealers. Hear them today!
