Wrought-iron tables are much used. Wrought iron is also used for wall decoration. A great spray of vine leaves painted in the pinky-mauve shade is beautiful. Placed against a cream-painted wall, the green is a colour that is in the eye. Cyclamen goes with it beautifully. Bowls of massed anemones will pick up the two colours.

Three Injured In Tanker Blast

NEW YORK, March 24 (AP)—With a roar heard five miles distant, the Texaco Oil tanker Reaper exploded today in the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corp. drydock in Brooklyn, seriously injuring three men.

The ship burst into flames immediately after the explosion which police said apparently was caused by the ignition of gases in the hold of the 6,500 ton tanker.

Built in Bath, Me., in 1916, the tanker arrived in New York Tuesday from Port Arthur, Tex., bringing a cargo of oil. Most of the oil had been removed before the blast occurred.

Stamps Will Commemorate Royal Visit

OTTAWA, March 24 (CP)—When the King and Queen stop ashore on Canadian soil at Quebec May 15 to begin their tour of the Dominion, post office employees from coast to coast will place on sale crisp sheets of new postage stamps specially issued to commemorate the Royal visit.

Postmaster-general Molarty announced today the commemorative stamps would be of one, two and three cents denomination. They will be available at all post offices until the supply is exhausted. Post office officials refused to say how many would be issued, however, as the information would be improperly available to philatelic markets. The royal stamps will be collector's items and the price of stamp markets would soon be fixed if the total number were known and the public might have difficulty buying them.

The one-cent stamp will be green and black with full-face portraits of Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose. The two-cent stamp will be brown and black with a picture of the National War Memorial to be unveiled here by the King May 18. The three-cent stamp will have full-face portraits of King George and Queen Elizabeth and will be red and black.

All three stamps will be double size, slightly wider than they are high. The border will be the same as on ordinary stamps, and there will be no special working to indicate they mark the visit of royalty.

Fascist Gajda Moves to Fore Again as Nazis Enter Prague

By N.E.A. Service

PRAGUE, March 21—Twelve years ago Rudolph Gajda stood stripped of his uniform and his powers as a general in the Czech army and Europe's newest democracy hailed the action as a death blow to fascism.

Today with the newest move of Adolf Hitler to complete dismemberment of the little republic, the name of Gajda is hailed again in the streets and there is indication that he may return to power to reverse the verdict of 1927.

No story of the newest chapter in Czecho-Slovakia's fate could be more ironic than that of this man. Nor is there a story more colorful. Gajda was a Moravian peasant farmer's boy. But early he left the farm to become a druggist's apprentice. From that he went on to the great war as a soldier of the Austro-Hungarian army. But his allegiance to the Austrians was short-lived for Gajda with characteristic flair planned into the great war as a soldier of the Serbian cause. Moreover, he took hundreds of his Austrian compatriots with him.

He was with them in their famous retreat through Albania, following in the mud, starved, turned up in Russia fighting with the Czech soldiers. He took part in the epic march across Siberia and emerged a full-fledged general.

From that day the star of young Gajda burned ever brighter. A grateful little country, now a republic, Czecho-Slovakia sent him to the Czech military school at St. Cyr. He won quick promotion and upon his return to Prague was made chief of staff.

The war, however, had done strange things to the thinking of General Gajda and so he was not long in his office as chief of staff when other ambitions fired him.

Was he not the idol of the Czech legionnaires? Was he not the big man of the army? And was there not still sharp division in the politics of the new Czecho-Slovakia, between the democrats and the fascists?

Well, why not make himself boss of the new state, sweep aside all differences? After all, democracy was falling in every hand. Would it be a matter of time until even the new Czech Cornered in the past starting the final lap of the 1-2 miles, manoeuvred free by his grinning Irish jockey, Workman, nine-year-old son of the Cottage-Carrolla, use his hind legs to make the big race since Troytown triumphed in 1920.

From the stands where 200,000 of the crowd of 260,000 were massed along a 600 yard stretch for the final lap, Workman and MacMoffat were just two spots of color—Tim Hyde in his emerald shirt on Workman and A. Alder in Primrose on MacMoffat.

Workman, the critics had argued, had nothing to give to the pair on the stretch, but he bounded ahead of the Primrose shirt this afternoon, and never left the issue in doubt. A year ago he finished third to the Battleship and Royal Danial.

The amendment passed amidst the hottest debate of the session. Liberal members, led by the opposition leader when he said "the same old cry since confederation of separation from Canada" had been "resurrected in order to divert the attention of the fishermen and primary producers of this province."

MONTREAL, Mar. 23—The gross revenues of the all-inclusive Canadian National Railways system for the week ending March 21, 1938 were $3,202,442 compared with $3,215,808 for the corresponding period of 1938, a decrease of $13,366.

and the expected proclamation of a new leader.

General Gajda, state would fall also!

THEN AND NOW

So reasoned the ambitious and fascist-minded Gajda as early as 1925 and 1926. Accordingly one day a Czech Fascist party was born and Gajda was on his way to realize his ambition. But not fast enough for the Czech government was quick to act back in 1927 and so Gajda was all about the Czech Republic. Democracy was triumphant.

Practically all of Czecho-Slovakia applauded that action which the sullen Gajda went down to disgrace. The whole of Europe applauded it as well as a "lasting" victory against fascism.

Europe, of course, could not foresee the sweep of Hitler's ambitions.

Byron Nelson Wins Tourney

(By The Associated Press)

PINEHURST, N. C., March 23—With utter disregard of par, Byron Nelson of the Texas spaces walked with $1,000 top prize money today in the 72-hole North and South open golf tournament.

The 27-year-old Texan, who teaches golf at Reading, Pa., rattled off four consecutive rounds of 71-68-70-71—280 on the par 72 layout. He was two strokes ahead of Horton Smith of Oak Park, Ill.

Sammy Sneed of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., the leading money winner of the 1938 campaign and Canadian open champion, slipped to a mediocre fourth-round 75 and fell back into a tie for third place with Dick Metz, of Chicago, who stroked out a 70. Bach took $450.

From the stands where 200,000 of the crowd of 260,000 were massed along a 600 yard stretch for the final lap, Workman and MacMoffat were just two spots of color—Tim Hyde in his emerald shirt on Workman and A. Alder in Primrose on MacMoffat.
