WHAT CHRISTMAS PRESENT?

Which makes the better Christmas box—the 52 issues of 'The Youth's Companion,' costing only $2.00 for the whole year, or one book, costing $2.00 to $3.00.

In quantity, variety and value of reading 'The Companion' excels. Is not such a paper, bringing every week into the home circle charming stories, articles on a thousand subjects by famous men and women, delightful short sketches, humorous anecdotes, and an infinite variety of other wholesome, entertaining reading—is not such a paper the very one for any appropriate, acceptable Christmas box? Think of it! In a year 'The Companion' gives you as much reading as twenty 400-page books of travel, history, fiction, miscellany, biography and humor, and not a line in it that

THE COUNTERFEITERS AT THE OPERA

An excellent company in a good play was the opinion of those of Charlottetown's theatre goers who witnessed the production of the Gladys Klark Co. in 'The Counterfeiters' last evening. It was a detective story calling forth the artistic cast and each member sustained their reputation of the previous evening. Splendid gowns were worn by the ladies and Gladys Klark, as Kate Burke, did some splendid acting and proved herself a true artist. Miss Flossie Glenwood, (Marquette Johnson) was a winsome and lovable girl while Millie Merton, (Edyth Lea), proved a general favorite and true intercessor for the fair Flossie. Ned Keene the detective and Flossie's love was a strong actor and played his part well.

Richard Glenwood took the villain's difficult part most successfully and his hypnotic influences were most realistic. Dr Leslie made a hit with his airtight manded ways while his servant, Noah Lott, was a negro always turning up when most needed. To realize how good all the actors were, one would have to see the play which was immensely enjoyed by all. The specialties cut out all tiresome waits. Billy Kinball did some exceptionally wonderful feats and was loudly applauded.

shakes one's faith in truth and honor, not a phrase that makes light of the things that sweet and pure. Is it not a Christmas gift worth having—a Christmas gift that is worth waiting for? Send your subscription ($2.00) at once so as to receive free all issues of the Companion for the remaining weeks of 1909, as well as The Companion's 'Venetian' Calendar for 1910 lithographed in thirteen colors and gold.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,

Companion Building, Boston, Mass.

The Guardian has received from the Primrose Music and Book Concern, 29 Manning Arcade, 24 King St. W., Toronto, a copy of the Canadian Flag song just issued. The words are by Katherine Hale, (Miss A. B. Warne), a gifted poet, essayist and book reviewer of Toronto and the music by J. W. Garvin, B. A., of Peterboro and Toronto, who is known as an original and talented melodist who is also well known in educational, political, and literary circles. This National song bids fair to be a notable event in the annals of Canadian publications. The melody is written in march time and is suitable for solo, chorus or band work and is so tuneful and stirring that its appeal is universal, while the words typify or symbolize to a marked degree, the spirit and destiny of the country. Al together it is a song so 'Imperial' that it will no doubt meet with universal demand and be sung for generations to come.
