Always Ready and Reliable. Practically all pains arising from inflammation can be removed with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Simply rub it on the sore spot and it is quickly absorbed by the skin. Its healing power is conveyed to the inflamed tissue which is quickly soothed. This fine old remedy is also a specific for all manner of cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains. Keep a bottle handy always.

Gleanings From Tryon And Vicinity

Miss Mary Swin is visiting at the Baptist Parsonage, Miss Swin is Principal of the Cunard St. Manual Training school in Halifax, N. S. She is a niece of Rev. J. B. Daggett, and Mrs. Daggett.

Rev. J. B. Daggett, returned on Tuesday from a two weeks visit to New Brunswick and Maine, and occupied his pulpit on Sunday.

Benj Boulter and his sister Gertrude are visiting their brother Shadrach Boulter of Victoria. It is about thirty years since Mr. Boulter visited the Island. He is located in the States.

The date of the Baptist picnic has been changed from June 30th to July 9th.

The memorial stone which is to be erected to the soldiers of the war has arrived. It will be set up at once and will be unveiled on July 14th. The programme will be announced later.

The home of Rev. Geo. Somers is sorely afflicted these days. Last week Mrs. Somers underwent a serious operation at the Charlottetown hospital. Their oldest son, Somers, himself expects to undergo an operation at an early date. He is unable to carry on his work as a pastor. Rev. A. G. Haberlin is looking after his work. Much sympathy is felt for the family in their trials.

Mr. Benj. Boulter occupied the pulpit of the Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Boulter is a lay preacher. His grandfather was the Rev. Benj. Boulter, who was one of the pioneers of the Baptist denomination here. His sermon on the fruit of the spirit was much enjoyed, especially by the friends of his boyhood.

Graham Crossman one of Tryon's oldest citizens, being over eighty years of age passed away on Friday last. He was buried on Saturday afternoon in the cemetery at North Tryon.

Emil (Dutch) Levsen

This is his first year in the majors, but he is making good on the pitching staff of the Cleveland American Leaguers.

Miller's Worm Powders will not only expel worms from the system but will induce healthful conditions of the system under which worms can no longer thrive. Worms keep a child in a continual state of restlessness and pain, and there can be no comfort for the little one until the cause of suffering be removed, which can be easily done by the use of these powders, which are very effective.
