THE entertainment given in the Princetown Road Church on the evening of the 23rd inst was a most decided success. Following is the program:—Opening Chorus.—Choir (Highfield); Remarks.—Rev. F. Frizze; Recitation.—Lea Good; Gramophone selections.—W. Burke; Recitation.—Flossie; Good; Violin selections.—Mrs. McMillan and Miss Taper (encored); Gramophone Selections.—W. Burke; Dialogue.—The Rival Speakers by E. Heaney and A. McKinnon; Recitation.—Sadie Chouven; Chorus.—The Choir; Recitation.—Berlie Middleton; Solo.—Hazel Newson (encored); Recitation.—Maud Good; Violin selections.—Mrs. McMillan and Miss Taper (encored); Dialogue.—"Old Heads on Young Shoulders"; Recitation.—Fanny Horne; Gramophone selections.—W. Burke; "God Save the King." At the close of the program a vote of thanks was tendered those who took part in concert, which was neatly responded to by W. Burke. A most interesting feature of the concert was that at its close, a very hearty invitation was given to those who took part in the program, extended by the pastor, from Mr. and Mrs. Dollar, to repair to their home, which invitation was most readily accepted, all the more so, as they were assured not only a welcome to their home, but a replenishing for the inner man. Before leaving the house a vote of thanks was tendered the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Dollar, for their very thoughtful kindness. Thus was brought to a close one of the most enjoyable of evenings.

DR. L. NELSON PICKARD of Britania, Nfld., no New York as stated yesterday, is visiting his home after an absence of five years. Dr. Pickard is resident physician for Harvey & Co., owners of the well known slate quarries and in addition to this he has a large outside practice in the surrounding community. The town is situated about one hundred miles north of St. John's and is on a beautiful arm of the ocean. The principal industries are slate quarrying, lumbering and fishing and the population engaged in these pursuits makes an excellent field for a physician. Dr. Pickard will remain in the city for about three weeks renewing old acquaintances.
