

Your Boy
Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a strong tonic, entirely free from alcohol.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN
Head Office in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The annual meeting of the Wiltshire Dairying Co., takes place on Jan 10th as will be seen by their ad elsewhere.

A handsome Indian Maiden is the frontispiece of a 1910 calendar just to hand from Frank F. West, wholesale commission dealer in and shipper of fresh fish, 110 Pulton Market, New York.

Persons unable to get No 133, 'The Guardian' news department, by phone at any hour are asked to ring 124 as it is useless to call up any other number. In the interim, between the hour of closing Saturday night and that of opening in the early morning of Monday, communications and news can be dropped in the letter box of 'The Guardian' main entrance, and further inquiries can be made by phoning as above.

Ewen J. and Mrs McMillan, City, left yesterday for their home in Bloemfontein, S. A., where Mr McMillan is Commissioner of Agriculture.

The members of the C. P. R. passenger department in King Street, St John, have presented W. B. Howard, the genial D. P. A., who has so many friends here, with a handsome suit case fitted with toilet articles. Mr Howard, who was taken by surprise, heartily thanked the donors.

The latest news, first of all.
E. Wheatley, City, went to Pictou yesterday.
G. S. Lea, Moncton, well known here is visiting in St John.

Mrs J. W. Rodd, Harrington, is the guest of her sister, Mrs W. B. Prowse, Prince Street.

Cletus Elhaton, who is attending St Dunstan's College, is now visiting his home in Bathurst, N. B.

W. W. Walker, City, has issued a magnificent calendar this year, entitled "So Sleepy," which is sure to please all.

Good discounts on dry goods, etc are being offered by Edward Kelly whose ad appears elsewhere in this issue.

The employees of the Unique theatre, St John, presented F. G. Spencer, the proprietor, who is well known here, with a gold headed cane and ad dress on Xmas Eve.

Fr. d. Snow, Crapaud, who has been to Sydney looking for a winter market for beef has returned and reports every thing quite satisfactory.

Allan Wadman, Crapaud, in the employ of Fred Snow, butcher, is now enjoying a well earned vacation at Elliot's Sta the guest of his sisters Mrs Goss and Mrs McLeod.

Chas. B. H. Watt & Son, Portland Me, formerly of this Province, have the Guardian's thanks for a "prev" calendar, entitled "Near to Nature's Heart," from a painting by W. C. A. Frerichs.

At the conclusion of the Bible class in the Main street Baptist church Sunday afternoon Rev David Hutchinson, the pastor, was made the recipient of some very costly and lasting gifts. Fred Paris, president of the class, made the presentation which consisted of the following: dictionary stand, Hastings' Bible Dictionary, Doctor Stocker's Life of Jesus, Doctor Stocker's work on the Atonement, The Literary Digest for 1910, and the Pastor's Private Record of His Work, a volume that will last for eight or ten years.

On Wednesday morning the eight of December there died suddenly a his home at Brookfield, Edward Moor in the forty second year of his age. He was a son of the late David Moor of Milton and leaves to mourn behind a wife, and eight young children, seven sons and one daughter (four brothers and four sisters). The brothers are: Lemuel of Hunter River, William of Cavendish; Benjamin of West Royalty; and James of Milton. The sisters: Mrs Wm Senter of Hunter River; Mrs John McPherson of Sask.; Mrs John Coles of Sask.; and Mrs Robert Ford of Ebenezer. He was one of the leading farmers of Brookfield, always cheerful and obliging and the very large attendance at his funeral bore ample evidence of the esteem in which he was held. The services were conducted by the Ven. Rev. Archdeacon Reagh of Milton and Rev. W. I. Green of Brookfield and the members of Tanton L. O. L. A. John A. McLeod, Wm A. Beaton, Rec Sec and Robert McDuff on behalf of Tanton Lodge have forwarded the following kind address: "Whereas I have pleased God in his infinite wisdom to remove from your home circle by death, a kind and loving husband and father, we on behalf of the members of Tanton L. O. L. No 112 desire to convey to you our deep sympathy. We know that simple words fail to alleviate the pangs of wounded hearts but we would direct you to him, who alone can sympathize with you and who has promised to be to the fatherless, in the death of our husband to the widow and a father beloved brother we are again reminded that dust we are and unto dust we must return, we feel that we have lost one whom we have always esteemed a worthy brother but we trust that our loss is his eternal gain. The Brookfield Division also sent the following kind expressions signed by W. I. Green, A. A. McDonald, W. P. and A. Beaton. "As it has pleased God in his allwise providence to remove from you your kind and loving father, we on behalf of the members of Brookfield Division No 263 S. O. T. wish to extend to you our heart felt sympathy in your sad bereavement. Mere human sympathy is of little avail therefore we would direct you to him who alone can sympathize with you and who alone can sympathize with all and comfort the broken hearted and while you will greatly miss the guidance of a loving father we trust that the Great Patriarch a love will direct you to that haven of rest where death divided friends at last shall meet to part no more.

Miss Annie McCoy, City, is visiting her home in Moncton.

The tide will be high this afternoon at 2 and tomorrow afternoon at 1:40.

The Prince Edward Amateur Dramatic Club intend repeating that very laughable society comedy "Christo her Jr." in the Opera House on New Year's night in aid of the Anti-tuberculosis Society.

Lloyd Crockett, Summerside, formerly of Moncton, is in the City. Mr Crockett has been spending the best holiday of his life in Charlottetown and vicinity, and will no doubt, soon return as he is more than pleased with this his first visit to the capital. He had no idea that Charlottetown is such an advanced and up-to-date city with its many large stores, and public buildings, as well as wide and up-to-date streets. His long tedious trip by train here on Friday last as been almost entirely forgotten as he has met friends everywhere all of whom have been so exceptionally genial and hospitable that an exceedingly interesting and important visit anticipated from him in the near future.

The remains of the late Minnie Lay, daughter of Rev Fred and Mrs Lay, New York, were brought over in the Empress, Wednesday 10th, and forwarded to Bradabane, where they were met by the undertaker D. I. McQuarrie, and brought to the former home of her mother, Mrs Angus Brien, the funeral service took place Saturday afternoon to rapaud cemetery. The service being conducted by the Rev Mr Field, taking as his text, "Her sun went down like yet it was day," it being very appropriate as the deceased was only sixteen years of age. The pallbearers are: Milton Hughes, Frank Snow, avil Holm, Saml French, Keith Bosoli and Major Macintosh. Sheaves to mourn three sisters, Edna, Ene and Ruth, and one brother. The remains were accompanied by the rents. The large contribution of owsers attested to the high esteem in which she was held.
