

COAL

FOR THE BEST

CALL 2498

ARNAFAST COAL Co.

O'Connor Surrenders In Feud With Chandler

CHICAGO, Nov. 4 (AP)—The feud that raged for seven days between Leslie O'Connor, general manager of Chicago White Sox, and A.B. Chandler, Commissioner of Baseball, over the signing of a 17-year-old Chicago High School pitcher, ended today with O'Connor's "surrender."

The $500 fine imposed by Chandler was paid. Subsequently, Chandler lifted his suspension order denying the privileges of the major leagues rules and the representation to the White Sox and O'Connor, whose offer to resign as general manager was refused by the club.

Leslie M. O'Connor Vice-president and general manager of the Chicago White Sox.

Peace in one of the baseball's biggest jurisdictional controversies was negotiated by President Will Harridge of the American League.

Harridge, in a letter to the White Sox, urged the club to back down in its showdown with Chandler, and requested O'Connor, individually, to refrain from legal action against Chandler. O'Connor had threatened such action.

Harridge, in a letter to the White Sox, urged the club to back down in its showdown with Chandler, and requested O'Connor, individually, to refrain from legal action against Chandler. O'Connor had threatened such action.

Woodcock Out Of Ring Until Next Year

LEEDS, England, Nov. 4 (AP)—European heavyweight champion Bruce Woodcock, undergoing treatment in a hospital here for an eye injury, will not fight again until next year, manager Tom Hurst said today.

Woodcock, who got a piece of grit in his eye recently while working in a quarry, was scheduled to return to the ring Dec. 9 against an unselected European opponent. He last fought April 15, losing to Joe Baksi of Kulpmont, Pa.

Hockey Teams To Leave For Olympics Jan. 3

LONDON, Nov. 4 (CP)—Hockey teams from Canada and the United States, entered in the 1948 Olympics at St. Moritz, Switzerland, will leave New York Jan. 3 aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth.

John Alvarne, secretary of the British Ice Hockey Association, said today.

The official added that he hopes to arrange exhibition games in Britain and the continent before the teams go to St. Moritz for the games, Jan. 30 to Feb. 8.

Ahearn revealed that tentative plans call for the Canadian players to arrive at St. Moritz—6,000 feet above sea level—at least six days before the start of Olympic play to enable the players to become acclimatized.

Ahearn is arranging a schedule of games to be played prior to the games and also a possible post-Olympic tour.

The American team returns to the United States Feb. 28 but no date has been set for the Canadians.

REMEMBER WHEN

By The Canadian Press

Dave Castilhoux, then in the R. C. A. F., hard-bitten campaigner of the ring, called on all his experience at the Forum to retain his Canadian welterweight championship when he outpointed Pte. Al Lust, Calgary, over 12 rounds, five years ago tonight. Castilhoux weighed 138½ pounds and Lust 147.

DUNWICH, Suffolk, England (CP)—This fishing village, once the seat of the East Anglian kings, is to be sold by auction.

Ruel Let Out As Manager

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 4 (AP)—Harold (Muddy) Ruel has been discharged as manager of St. Louis Browns and will be paid off for a contract that still has a year to run, club owner Richard Muckerman said today.

Muckerman said the decision was voted by the club's directors and declared "all of us were disappointed in both the showing of the team and of Ruel's work."

Ruel said he was "humbled." Muckerman made no mention of plans to sign a manager for 1946.

Abbies Lineup

The following members of the Abbies rugby team are asked to be at Men's today at 3 p.m. to secure transportation to St. Dunstan's University for the game: J. Hennessy, Richard, Duffy, Archer, DeCote, Wilson, Gormley, MacDonald, Perry, LePage, M. Hennessy, Martin, Younger, Goodwin, Strain.

George Wallace, manager; George W. MacCallum, coach.

SPORTING NEWS

NOVEMBER 5 1947 THE GUARDIAN, CHARLOTTETOWN PAGE SEVEN

Poile Thinks Trade Good For Chicago

Prince Of Wales Team Meet Abbies This Afternoon

Abbies and Prince of Wales meet in an Island intermediate football league fixture at the S.D.U. gridiron this afternoon and from the result fans should get an inkling of just how the league will turn out when these two squads, plus the addition of second Saints, get through battling each other.

Today's meeting will mark the first time this season that the two City teams have clashed and each who have been following the work-outs of both can see nothing else but an evenly fought match all the way with the Abbies probably having a slight edge in the speed department plus more experience sprinkled throughout their lineup.

Abbies already have a victory in the credit column due to their surprising victory over the Saints in the league opener and with the Saints edging out Prince of Wales on paper it looks as if Jim McCallum's crew should win this one, but both the above mentioned tussles were decided by the break rather than by any display of superiority and today's encounter is very likely to be decided on the same basis.

Both teams were untried, at the start of the season. Coach Gordon Bennett of Prince of Wales had to do nearly a 100 per cent rebuilding job while Abbies were re-organized after several years of inactivity. Both have come along surprisingly well and the Abbies by a victory today can take a long step towards getting the title in their grasp as another victory over the Saints could clinch matters.

Come next Saturday afternoon Prince of Wales and Saints will clash for the second time and this one should be a natural. Not only will it be a game of the intermediate league but also the second game of the Island intercollegiate series and for Prince of Wales it will mean a do or die effort to retain a chance of holding onto the title which they have won now for the past several years.

Saints previous to the first game of that series were the Toronto-Chicago trade that sent five Maple Leafs to the Windy City in exchange for brilliant Max Bentley was made known, and said fans are still wondering just what club will fare out best on the deal.

Local followers of the National Hockey League had plenty to mull over yesterday when the Toronto-Chicago trade that sent five Maple Leafs to the Windy City in exchange for brilliant Max Bentley was made known, and said fans are still wondering just what club will fare out best on the deal.

One thing is certain and that is that Chicago got a lot of valuable hockey material. All five have made their mark in the pro game and should bolster the sagging Chicago team who now have six straight setbacks to show for six games. Bentley will of course add a lot of centre ice strength to the Leafs and will be decided insurance should anything befel Appa. If he can keep up his brilliant scoring pace all should be well with the Leafs but if he happens to fall to click then the Toronto hockey wolves will be clamoring for the scalps of the instigators in the trade, the most surprising one in a good many years.

Speaking of the Leafs, Jim (Toronto Globe and Mail) Coleman has the following observations on the Leafs and Canadiens clashes:

"Now, at long last, it's a case of the shoe being on the other foot. For the past four years we've watched the Maple Leafs planning their season so that, ultimately, they could beat Les Canadiens. The Maple Leafs, invariably, were the underdogs, waiting for their opportunity in the Stanley Cup playoffs."

"The Maple Leafs—equipped with only a few top-flight hockey players—were waiting for that time when they could catch Les Canadiens off-stride and knock them out of the series which leads to Abbies and Prince of Wales football squads clash in an Island intermediate league game at the S.D.U. gridiron this afternoon and from the result fans should get an inkling of just how the league will turn out when these two squads, plus the addition of second Saints, get through battling each other.

Today's meeting will mark the first time this season that the two City teams have clashed and each who have been following the work-outs of both can see nothing else but an evenly fought match all the way with the Abbies probably having a slight edge in the speed department plus more experience sprinkled throughout their lineup.

Abbies already have a victory in the credit column due to their surprising victory over the Saints in the league opener and with the Saints edging out Prince of Wales on paper it looks as if Jim McCallum's crew should win this one, but both the above mentioned tussles were decided by the break rather than by any display of superiority and today's encounter is very likely to be decided on the same basis.

Both teams were untried, at the start of the season. Coach Gordon Bennett of Prince of Wales had to do nearly a 100 per cent rebuilding job while Abbies were re-organized after several years of inactivity. Both have come along surprisingly well and the Abbies by a victory today can take a long step towards getting the title in their grasp as another victory over the Saints could clinch matters.

Come next Saturday afternoon Prince of Wales and Saints will clash for the second time and this one should be a natural. Not only will it be a game of the intermediate league but also the second game of the Island intercollegiate series and for Prince of Wales it will mean a do or die effort to retain a chance of holding onto the title which they have won now for the past several years.

Saints previous to the first game of that series were the Toronto-Chicago trade that sent five Maple Leafs to the Windy City in exchange for brilliant Max Bentley was made known, and said fans are still wondering just what club will fare out best on the deal.

Local followers of the National Hockey League had plenty to mull over yesterday when the Toronto-Chicago trade that sent five Maple Leafs to the Windy City in exchange for brilliant Max Bentley was made known, and said fans are still wondering just what club will fare out best on the deal.

One thing is certain and that is that Chicago got a lot of valuable hockey material. All five have made their mark in the pro game and should bolster the sagging Chicago team who now have six straight setbacks to show for six games. Bentley will of course add a lot of centre ice strength to the Leafs and will be decided insurance should anything befel Appa. If he can keep up his brilliant scoring pace all should be well with the Leafs but if he happens to fall to click then the Toronto hockey wolves will be clamoring for the scalps of the instigators in the trade, the most surprising one in a good many years.

Speaking of the Leafs, Jim (Toronto Globe and Mail) Coleman has the following observations on the Leafs and Canadiens clashes:

"Now, at long last, it's a case of the shoe being on the other foot. For the past four years we've watched the Maple Leafs planning their season so that, ultimately, they could beat Les Canadiens. The Maple Leafs, invariably, were the underdogs, waiting for their opportunity in the Stanley Cup playoffs."

"The Maple Leafs—equipped with only a few top-flight hockey players—were waiting for that time when they could catch Les Canadiens off-stride and knock them out of the series which leads to TORONTO, Nov. 4 (CP)—If the Black Hawks die as well as Bud Poile thinks they will, one of the National Hockey League trade which gives them five players for two Chicago fans should soon forget the loss of their great centre star, Max Bentley.

One of five Toronto Maple Leafs' chaffers who go to the Hawks in return for Bentley and rookie Cy Thomas, Poile said.

"I was certainly surprised but I think it's for the best. We'll get Chicago back in the playoffs or bust."

A centre player with one of the hardest shots in hockey, the Fort William boy has never quite worked all his playing this season with Chicago back in the playoffs or bust.

As a result of the swap the once promising young forward, Steve Stewart and Gus Bodnar—all Fort William products, will be reunited. Stewart and Bodnar figured in the trade, although Bodnar has done all his playing this season with Pittsburgh Hornets. Other Hornets in the deal were defencemen Bob Goldhorn and Ernie Dickens.

Bodnar heard the trade announcement over the radio and just then the telephone rang. On the other end of the line was Poile and both said "hello Chicago."

"I think it's a break," said Bodnar. "With Chicago I'll get regular play and I'm confident I can prove I belong in the majors. The way Dickens and Goldhorn were going at Pittsburgh they have to help the Hawks."

Stewart heard the news over his automobile radio while he waited for his wife and 10-week-old son to arrive at the airport from Port Arthur. Gaye had finally found living quarters for his family but due to the switch they will return to Port Arthur after watching the Hawks and Leafs tangle here Nov. 12.

The general feeling in hockey circles here was that manager Conn Smythe of the Leafs was getting the best of the deal with Hawk boss Bill Tobin. It wasn't the first time that Conn participated in a trade that sent players into grab bags and swapped them for stars.

On the basis that recent N.H.L. statistics show that the club's strongest down the centre usually wins the Stanley Cup, the Leafs seem to have gained strength. None of the players they are losing has contributed to the team's success this season but with Bentley, Syl Apps and Ted Kennedy the world champions will have three of the smartest playmakers in hockey.

Abbies and Prince of Wales meet in an Island intermediate football league fixture at the S.D.U. gridiron this afternoon and from the result fans should get an inkling of just how the league will turn out when these two squads, plus the addition of second Saints, get through battling each other.

Today's meeting will mark the first time this season that the two City teams have clashed and each who have been following the work-outs of both can see nothing else but an evenly fought match all the way with the Abbies probably having a slight edge in the speed department plus more experience sprinkled throughout their lineup.

Abbies already have a victory in the credit column due to their surprising victory over the Saints in the league opener and with the Saints edging out Prince of Wales on paper it looks as if Jim McCallum's crew should win this one, but both the above mentioned tussles were decided by the break rather than by any display of superiority and today's encounter is very likely to be decided on the same basis.

Both teams were untried, at the start of the season. Coach Gordon Bennett of Prince of Wales had to do nearly a 100 per cent rebuilding job while Abbies were re-organized after several years of inactivity. Both have come along surprisingly well and the Abbies by a victory today can take a long step towards getting the title in their grasp as another victory over the Saints could clinch matters.

Come next Saturday afternoon Prince of Wales and Saints will clash for the second time and this one should be a natural. Not only will it be a game of the intermediate league but also the second game of the Island intercollegiate series and for Prince of Wales it will mean a do or die effort to retain a chance of holding onto the title which they have won now for the past several years.

Saints previous to the first game of that series were the Toronto-Chicago trade that sent five Maple Leafs to the Windy City in exchange for brilliant Max Bentley was made known, and said fans are still wondering just what club will fare out best on the deal.

Local followers of the National Hockey League had plenty to mull over yesterday when the Toronto-Chicago trade that sent five Maple Leafs to the Windy City in exchange for brilliant Max Bentley was made known, and said fans are still wondering just what club will fare out best on the deal.

One thing is certain and that is that Chicago got a lot of valuable hockey material. All five have made their mark in the pro game and should bolster the sagging Chicago team who now have six straight setbacks to show for six games. Bentley will of course add a lot of centre ice strength to the Leafs and will be decided insurance should anything befel Appa. If he can keep up his brilliant scoring pace all should be well with the Leafs but if he happens to fall to click then the Toronto hockey wolves will be clamoring for the scalps of the instigators in the trade, the most surprising one in a good many years.

Speaking of the Leafs, Jim (Toronto Globe and Mail) Coleman has the following observations on the Leafs and Canadiens clashes:

"Now, at long last, it's a case of the shoe being on the other foot. For the past four years we've watched the Maple Leafs planning their season so that, ultimately, they could beat Les Canadiens. The Maple Leafs, invariably, were the underdogs, waiting for their opportunity in the Stanley Cup playoffs."

"The Maple Leafs—equipped with only a few top-flight hockey players—were waiting for that time when they could catch Les Canadiens off-stride and knock them out of the series which leads to

Winner To Get Shot At Wadsworth

TORONTO, Nov. 3 (CP)—What appears to be an effort to return middleweights to the flistic spotlight here was indicated today when promoter Frank Tunney announced he had matched Canada's two most promising men of the division—Chief Bennett of Sudbury and London's young Bobby Flanagan—to fight next Monday night.

The winner of the eight-round bout will be in line for a shot at the Dominion title of aging Len Wadsworth of Hamilton.

Abbies and Prince of Wales meet in an Island intermediate football league fixture at the S.D.U. gridiron this afternoon and from the result fans should get an inkling of just how the league will turn out when these two squads, plus the addition of second Saints, get through battling each other.

Today's meeting will mark the first time this season that the two City teams have clashed and each who have been following the work-outs of both can see nothing else but an evenly fought match all the way with the Abbies probably having a slight edge in the speed department plus more experience sprinkled throughout their lineup.

Abbies already have a victory in the credit column due to their surprising victory over the Saints in the league opener and with the Saints edging out Prince of Wales on paper it looks as if Jim McCallum's crew should win this one, but both the above mentioned tussles were decided by the break rather than by any display of superiority and today's encounter is very likely to be decided on the same basis.

Both teams were untried, at the start of the season. Coach Gordon Bennett of Prince of Wales had to do nearly a 100 per cent rebuilding job while Abbies were re-organized after several years of inactivity. Both have come along surprisingly well and the Abbies by a victory today can take a long step towards getting the title in their grasp as another victory over the Saints could clinch matters.

Come next Saturday afternoon Prince of Wales and Saints will clash for the second time and this one should be a natural. Not only will it be a game of the intermediate league but also the second game of the Island intercollegiate series and for Prince of Wales it will mean a do or die effort to retain a chance of holding onto the title which they have won now for the past several years.

Saints previous to the first game of that series were the Toronto-Chicago trade that sent five Maple Leafs to the Windy City in exchange for brilliant Max Bentley was made known, and said fans are still wondering just what club will fare out best on the deal.

Local followers of the National Hockey League had plenty to mull over yesterday when the Toronto-Chicago trade that sent five Maple Leafs to the Windy City in exchange for brilliant Max Bentley was made known, and said fans are still wondering just what club will fare out best on the deal.

One thing is certain and that is that Chicago got a lot of valuable hockey material. All five have made their mark in the pro game and should bolster the sagging Chicago team who now have six straight setbacks to show for six games. Bentley will of course add a lot of centre ice strength to the Leafs and will be decided insurance should anything befel Appa. If he can keep up his brilliant scoring pace all should be well with the Leafs but if he happens to fall to click then the Toronto hockey wolves will be clamoring for the scalps of the instigators in the trade, the most surprising one in a good many years.

Speaking of the Leafs, Jim (Toronto Globe and Mail) Coleman has the following observations on the Leafs and Canadiens clashes:

"Now, at long last, it's a case of the shoe being on the other foot. For the past four years we've watched the Maple Leafs planning their season so that, ultimately, they could beat Les Canadiens. The Maple Leafs, invariably, were the underdogs, waiting for their opportunity in the Stanley Cup playoffs."

"The Maple Leafs—equipped with only a few top-flight hockey players—were waiting for that time when they could catch Les Canadiens off-stride and knock them out of the series which leads to

"The Chew for You"

HICKEY AND NICHOLSON'S BLACK TWIST

A Home Product—Popular Everywhere

Woodstock Continues To Head Bowlers

Would Let Winning Team "Pour It On"

By DOUGLAS AMARON

MONTREAL, Nov. 4 (CP)—Dixie (Montreal Gazette) Carroll, taking a look at the basketball scores being piled up this fall by University of Western Ontario's football Mustangs, asks how far should a team go in humbling their opponents and comes up with his own answer in the statement: "If they're point-hungry it's all the more to their credit."

Apparently there were some mumbblings in intercollegiate circles when Western rolled up 139 points against Toronto, McGill and Queen's in its first three games this season and the opposition only totaled 15.

"There isn't a doubt that Western's top-sided scores not only make the losing teams look bad but they reflect on the ability of other coaches whose teams are not doing so well this year," wrote Carroll. "You never hear the complaint from the losing coaches, but some of the disgruntled alumni of the defeated colleges don't like the way the Western team has been 'pouring it on' this season." Dink finds this complaint unjustified. "What's wrong with winning by large scores anyway... the greatest thrill in football for the fellows playing the game is scoring touchdowns... and what about the customers who paid their way to get in? Don't let anyone tell you they aren't thrilled by seeing touchdowns scored..."

"The Mustangs are a great team... and if they are point hungry it's all the more to their credit. The Mustangs are top dog now but it won't always be that way. When somebody else gets on top and starts to beat them you can expect to hear the chant: 'Pour it on! Pour it on! Pour it on!' there is nothing for McGill and Queen's to do but hide their time..."

NEW GLASGOW, N. S., Nov. 5 (Wednesday)—(CP)—Woodstock, N. B., trundlers still were leading with 24 games won and six lost as the second day of the Maritimes and Eastern Maine annual bowling tournament ended early today.

Nudging into second place was Conn-Mariell of Halifax with 20 points, while home town rollers, New Glasgow All-Stars, were ensconced in third spot. No Maine teams were entered this year.

In individual scoring, Harry Peterson of Woodstock was supreme with an average roll of 112.

The Uhren of New Glasgow V8s had the highest three-string total with a score of 383, while two Charlottetowners, Bud Desjardines of Edmundston, N. B., and Mike O'Toole of Conn-Mariell, were tied with single-string rolls of 148.

Won	Lost	Points	Points
Woodstock	24	6
Halifax Conn-Mariell	20	10
New Glasgow All-Stars	19	11
Fredericton	17	13
Moncton	17	8
Yarmouth	14	11
Dartmouth	14	16
New Glasgow V8s	13	17
Edmundston	11	14
Charlottetown	11	10
Halifax Imperials	10	15
Glace Bay	9	16
Truro	8	22

Later in the month.

TORONTO, Nov. 4 (CP)—Harold (Baldy) Cotton, former National Hockey League star, announced today he had resigned his position with a Toronto dairy firm to devote full time to his duties as chief scout of the Boston Bruins organization.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4 (AP)—Lawrence A. Baker of Washington, D.C., has been nominated to succeed Holcombe Ward of New York as president of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association, it was announced today.

Abbies and Prince of Wales meet in an Island intermediate football league fixture at the S.D.U. gridiron this afternoon and from the result fans should get an inkling of just how the league will turn out when these two squads, plus the addition of second Saints, get through battling each other.

Today's meeting will mark the first time this season that the two City teams have clashed and each who have been following the work-outs of both can see nothing else but an evenly fought match all the way with the Abbies probably having a slight edge in the speed department plus more experience sprinkled throughout their lineup.

Abbies already have a victory in the credit column due to their surprising victory over the Saints in the league opener and with the Saints edging out Prince of Wales on paper it looks as if Jim McCallum's crew should win this one, but both the above mentioned tussles were decided by the break rather than by any display of superiority and today's encounter is very likely to be decided on the same basis.

Both teams were untried, at the start of the season. Coach Gordon Bennett of Prince of Wales had to do nearly a 100 per cent rebuilding job while Abbies were re-organized after several years of inactivity. Both have come along surprisingly well and the Abbies by a victory today can take a long step towards getting the title in their grasp as another victory over the Saints could clinch matters.

Come next Saturday afternoon Prince of Wales and Saints will clash for the second time and this one should be a natural. Not only will it be a game of the intermediate league but also the second game of the Island intercollegiate series and for Prince of Wales it will mean a do or die effort to retain a chance of holding onto the title which they have won now for the past several years.

Saints previous to the first game of that series were the Toronto-Chicago trade that sent five Maple Leafs to the Windy City in exchange for brilliant Max Bentley was made known, and said fans are still wondering just what club will fare out best on the deal.

Local followers of the National Hockey League had plenty to mull over yesterday when the Toronto-Chicago trade that sent five Maple Leafs to the Windy City in exchange for brilliant Max Bentley was made known, and said fans are still wondering just what club will fare out best on the deal.

One thing is certain and that is that Chicago got a lot of valuable hockey material. All five have made their mark in the pro game and should bolster the sagging Chicago team who now have six straight setbacks to show for six games. Bentley will of course add a lot of centre ice strength to the Leafs and will be decided insurance should anything befel Appa. If he can keep up his brilliant scoring pace all should be well with the Leafs but if he happens to fall to click then the Toronto hockey wolves will be clamoring for the scalps of the instigators in the trade, the most surprising one in a good many years.

GUNNERS ATTENTION

GUNS TIGHTENED AND REPAIRED

Rod & Gun Repair Shop

56 Cumberland Street

City

YEO

THEATRE

"NOTORIOUS"

INGRID BERGMAN

CARY GRANT

Montague—Fri. - Sat.

Attention English Setter Breeders

At stud to a limited number of approved females, Auburn Bill from highly bred American field trial stock. Auburn Bill is stake in The Grouse Futurities. Here is a chance for new blood with qualities that count, high head, high tail. For sale, one only male 10 months old, dam Ruby Gal; one only female 15 months old, dam Champion Dusky's Queen. These dogs are from the best hunting stock.

OAK KENNEL
E. FRANK ACORN.

MINORA BLADES

LOW-COST SHAVING

Minora outlasts and "outshaves" ordinary double-edge blades. For honest-to-goodness economy, try the quality blade in the low-price field. Fits your double-edge razor.

Famous Man O'War Was Buried Yesterday

(By The Associated Press)

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 4—Last tributes befitting "de modest hoss" were paid Man O'War today at a burial ceremony attended by an estimated 2,000 persons at Faraway Farm.

The great winner of 20 races and loser of but one—to a horse appropriately named "Upset" was extolled by nine speakers in what probably was the most elaborate last rites ever given an animal.

Automobiles were parked for almost a mile along Huffman's Mill Pike leading to Samuel Eldred's vast farm, where "Big Red" spent the last 27 years of his life. He was 30, exceptionally old for a horse, when he died Saturday.

SO CLEAN

EVERY INCH OF THE BUILDING HAS BEEN SCRUBBED AND POLISHED

TONIGHT

FORUM

SKATE IN NICE SURROUNDINGS

Rosebud PIPE TOBACCO

Try ROSEBUD and see for yourself how it DOES deliver satisfaction

USE ANY RAZOR

COLGATE GUARANTEES FASTER, CLOSER SHAVES OR DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!

Colgate Shave Cream is light and it's right. Easy to spread... Colgate stands your whiskers up so your razor can shear 'em off dead easy.

For more information, see us today.

THE COLGATE SHAVE CREAM

15¢-30¢-45¢

SKATES AND BOOTS

We are open to buy Skates and Boots; also Hockey Equipment. Must be in good condition.

Paying Highest Possible Prices.

EXCHANGE STORE
108 Richmond St.
PHONE 869