The Western Guardian

—IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

—W K McGOUGAN, Globe Fox Exchange, is Guardian Agent in Summerside.

—THE MORNING DAILY Guardian can be obtained at Lafferty's Tonsorial Parlors, Summerside.

—BUSY SEASON—The farmers around Summerside have about completed their haying, the crop is above the average and has been saved in prime condition. The potato crop also seems to be exceptionally good as well as the grain crops.—H.

—HARVEST EXCURSION.— Upwards of 400 left Summerside yesterday morning by the S. S. Empress on the Harvest Excursion to the Canadian West. About one hundred went from Prince County and the balance from the Eastern section of the province.—H.

—THE SECOND GAME in the playoff for the championship of the Prince County baseball league, took place on school grounds Monday and resulted in a win for the Independents by a score of 6-2 over the Pioneers. The batteries were: Pioneers—McNeill and Buote; Independents, Morrison and Thompson. The last game takes place to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon between the Red Sox and Independents.—C.

—DELEGATES ARRIVE.— Among the delegates who arrived last night to attend the Maritime Board of Trade meeting, which opens at 10.30 to-day at Summerside, were the following: W. S. Stewart, Charlottetown; E. A. Riley, Moncton; E. C. Chipman, Moncton; T. S. Williams, Secretary, Moncton; H. L. Hewson, Amherst; E. A. McCurdy, R. G. Hood, W. H. Beers, Newcastle; T. E. McNutt, Charlottetown; Rev. R. S. McArthur, E. T. Higgs.

—AN ELECTRIC STORM of short duration took place along the shore east of Summerside Monday morning. At Bedeque the storm was very heavy, the lightning entering, apparently through the window, the home of Mr Alex. Henderson, and striking his fifteen-year-old daughter, Miss Sophia, who was rendered unconscious, in which condition she remained for over an hour, but with the exception of the shock suffered little or no injury. In the house the only damage caused was the breaking of several lights of glass. —C.

—THE DEATH OCCURRED at his home in St. Eleanors Monday morning after an illness of some months, of Mr. Jacob Howatt, a former resident of Summerside, where he resided for a number of years. Deceased, who was 79 years of age, was a painter and decorator by trade, and was one of the oldest residents of Summerside, residing in the large dwelling in the west end of the town, which he constructed in the 70's. Of late years he has resided, with his wife, who was a Miss Trowsdale, at St Eleanors.—C.

—WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage took place at the Salem Baptist Church, Folkstone, Eng., on July 2, of Miss Lida Simpson, of Fairhaven, N. B., and Signal Sergeant Charles Cunningham, of West St. John. Miss Maud Cunningham, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and Sergeant-Major Scott was the groomsman. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham left for London and from there on a tour through Scotland. Mr. Cunningham is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cunningham and enlisted in the 12th Battalion of the first contingent, and upon arriving in England he took an examination in Physical Culture and the use of bayonets, and passed with honors, although he was the youngest Canadian there, being only 21 years of age. He is now company sergeant major instructor in the 12th Battalion. Mr. Cunningham is well known in Summerside, where he received his education, his father being for several years engineer at the Electric Power Station, and now Chief Engineer of one of the St. John Ferry steamers, residing in West St. John. —C.

SYLVIA PANKHURST WILL NOT REGISTER.

LONDON, Aug. 16.— Sylvia Pankhurst famed as a militant suffragette will not comply with the national registry regulations she asserts.

"I am not going to register that's all I know about it," declared Miss Pankhurst last night at a meeting followed by a demonstration of East London suffragettes.

"For my part I think it is merely a ruse to get more power out of the workers. I am not a man so they can't take me to war, but they won't send me to a munitions factory. They know there will be trouble.

"They pay two shillings eight pence (66 cents) a dozen for soldiers khaki shirts and men must fight for better conditions for women."

2,000 AMERICANS IN CANADIAN RANKS.

LONDON, Aug. 16.— There are no fewer than 2,000 Americans in the ranks of the Canadian military contingent, said Major General Sam Hughes, Canadian minister of militia at a meeting of Americans held here last night.

"I have already written letters of gratitude and sympathy," said General Hughes, "to mothers of more than one hundred American boys, who have fallen while fighting in Flanders alongside of Canadians comrades.

"More than 2,000 enlisted and we could have many more if we wished. Any number of West Pointers offered their service as officers and some are now with us."

EXPORT OF DIES FROH GREAT BRITAIN.

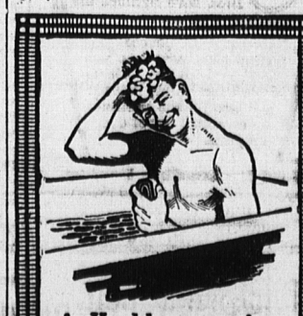
LONDON, Aug. 16.— Some misconception seemingly having arisen in Canada on the question of the export of dies, we are requested to state that the policy of the British Government is to treat all parts of the Empire alike. No Canadian requests for licenses to import have been refused.

LARGEST WILL PROBATE EVER IN ONTARIO.

WINDSOR, Aug. 16.— Harry Cly, Registrar of the Essex county, Surrogate Court, received the will of the late Edward Chandler Walker of Walkerville for probate. The document is the largest in volume of contents and value ever probated in the Province of Ontario, local barristers declare.

The value of the estate, as given in the will, which covers sixty pages of typewritten copy, is $4,126,000. The cost of law stamps necessary for registration will be $2,100, besides other legal costs. The order for these stamps was placed with the Government Wednesday afternoon.

The will is three times as valuble in its aggregte as the business of any one year handled by Registrars of Essex in the history of the court.



A Health-preserving delight

The use of Lifebuoy Soap makes the bath a supremely soothing pleasure as well as a health-insuring delight. The cream of pure oils gives a velvety lather that is cleansing and healing. The very mild carbolic solution means a perfectly healthy skin. The odor vanishes in a few seconds after use.
