Fishermen are overjoyed at the prospect of being allowed to fish this spring, for the majority of them own their gears and even the prices now quoted for lobsters they expect to save their time.—Z.

—SUDDEN DEATH.—Summerside was shocked on hearing of the sudden death of Mrs. W. B. Bowness on Friday night. She was apparently in her usual health and was preparing to retire for the night when death overtook her. She leaves behind a husband and two sons and three daughters. The sons are Bryon and Dr. Francis, of Summerside, and the daughters are Mrs. Ingles, of Shediac, N. B., Miss Pearl at home and Miss Ethel in Boston. Mrs. W. T. Huggan of Charlottetown is a sister.—X.

—WEDDING BELLS.—An unusual event took place on Tuesday, 9th inst., when Mr. James J. Arsenault, son of Mr. Joseph J. Arsenault, of St. Chrysostome, and Miss Denise Gallant, daughter of Prosper P. Gallant, of Caisie, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Father Boudreau performed the ceremony, after which the happy couple proceeded to the home of the bride for breakfast. After dinner, they repaired to the home of Mr. Arsenault, followed by friends and relatives. The afternoon was spent in various kinds of amusements which were continued after supper till a late hour. The bride and groom were the recipients of valuable gifts.—M.

IN COMMEMORATION OF LORD ROBERTS

To the Editor Daily Chronicle
Sir,—General Sir Horace Smith-Dorrien wrote to me with regard to my fund, and has kindly given me his full consent to quote his letter.

He says:—
No suggestion has been so practical as your offer to provide the men in the trenches with Bovril, and such a project, bringing strength to our soldiers as it will, would, I am sure, have met with the approval of our much regretted late Field-Marshal.

I have already forwarded to the trenches sufficient to make over 23,000 cups, which has been very much appreciated by the soldiers themselves. The expense of this gift has been partly defrayed from the entire profits derived from the sale of the "Lord Roberts" postcard, which contains his photograph, a facsimile of his handwriting, and his address. Six of these cards will be sent on receipt of a stamped addressed envelope and a postal order for 6d.

I am desirous to raise a fund to secure a constant supply of Bovril, as there are many weeks of bitterly cold weather still to be faced. I am anxious to send out 100,000 cups at once, and should be most grateful to those who will support my fund by sending me a donation.

I take this opportunity of thanking sincerely those who have sent me donations anonymously. The Lord Mayor writes me today: "The suggestion to send further and larger supplies of Bovril to the men in the trenches has my hearty approval and good wishes."

—PLEASANT OUTING.—The hockey special from Charlottetown arrived in Summerside at 6.30 on Friday evening and left Summerside on return at 12.30 Saturday morning. The passengers who arrived by the special, considerably over one hundred, were a credit to the travelling public, both at the rink and depot as the rough element were not present.—H.

—FUNERAL HELD.—The funeral of the late Joseph Bears took place to Brooklyn Cemetery, Lot 16. Some weeks ago Mr. Bears went to Massachusetts for treatment. It was of no avail, however, and he passed away at the home of Mr. Isaac Duneford, Belmont. The body arrived home on Thursday. Deceased was a son of the late Benj. —ON GOVERNMENT BUSINESS.—Hon. S. T. Gallant, of Pineville, was Tignish Thursday looking after Government works here. While talking with him the Guardian's correspondent was told that the Portland Packing Company would again operate its factory at Tignish harbor this year. Gallant on Thursday evening and spent a very delightful time dancing and listening to a musical programme arranged by her son Henry.
