Youth Steals Truck, Then Meets Police

A half-ton truck was stolen in Summerside Tuesday night and a short time later the driver ran into the arms of the law — and then was let go because the officers did not know at the time the vehicle was stolen. Now the youth is being sought.

The truck, owned by Mr. Harold Gaudet, proprietor of the Capitol Theatre, Summerside, was parked on First Street, beside the theatre, when it was stolen.

Later in the night members of the Borden Mounted Police Detachment, patrolling the road in the Carleton-Seven Mile Bay area, stopped a truck when the driver failed to dim his lights.

The youth walked off with the keys.

Later, Police learned the truck was stolen. Yesterday they turned it to the owner. But there is no sign of the keys.
