

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

E. L. and Mrs Goodwill, Peterboro, Ont. who have been spending a vacation in the city at Mr Goodwill's former home, leave this morning on return.

Miss Florence Currie, Fairview, returned home Friday from a visit to East Royalty where she was the guest of her cousin, Mrs Wallace Wheatley.

The law students of Charlottetown entertained some of their friends to a delightful motor party last evening with two former members of the society who were recently admitted as attorneys as the guests of honor. One of the brightest quips of the evening was the reading of the eulogistic biographical sketches of the new-fledged attorneys as recently published, with amusing variations.

Numbers seven and eight Companies of the Fourth Regiment H. B. and the Regimental Band returned last evening from Petawawa on a special train which arrived at ten forty-five. The boys were well pleased with their trip and enjoyed themselves while in Petawawa. They were treated to a variety of weather conditions, for the most part fair and very warm with a few thunderstorms at intervals. In the competitions, officers report that the Fourth upheld its own although it is not known just how good they did do, nor will it be ascertained until the final results are posted in November. All the men are returning as they went as far as health and spirits are concerned.

BANK PRESIDENT'S WILL DISTRIBUTES $345,000.

OTTAWA, July 24—The probate of the will of George Hay, formerly president of the Bank of Ottawa, shows an estate valued at $345,000. Of this $10,000 is left to Presbyterian missions and church funds, $500 each to the Ottawa Orphans' Home and the Old Men's Home, and $1,000 to the Protestant General Hospital. The balance of the estate is divided among the widow and six children.

OUTBREAK AGAIN IN LIBERIA.

WASHINGTON, July 24—Severe fighting among the tribes of Liberia in the vicinity of Cape Thomas, has broken out again. The Liberian troops have been signally defeated in an effort to quell the uprising.

BONDS WORTH $70,000 MISSING.

NEW YORK, July 24—The Russo-Chinese bank, one of the most powerful financial institutions of the far east, is short $70,000 in negotiable bonds, which disappeared from its branch office here some time last week and there is no clue to the thief.

Minard's Liniment cures Burns, etc.

The Guardian has received from Wallace Wheatley, East Royalty, a stalk of hay measuring five feet six inches in height.

Bramwell Botts, Sydney, is spending a short vacation with friends in this city after an absence of several years. He is the guest of John and Mrs Burhoe.

The mail train arrived in this city last evening at eleven, fifteen, one hour and twenty-five minutes late, and was the only train yesterday arriving behind time.

Persons sending advertising to The Guardian will confer a favor on the management if they will state whether they want it in The Morning Daily or Rural Daily, how long and how frequently they wish it inserted in each, and whether as a business local, display ad, or classified ad, bearing in mind that if for the latter it can run but for consecutive insertions. All ordinary amounts under one dollar are accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those having a regular advertising account.

In yesterday's issue the movement of certain churches in endeavoring to raise a sum to be sent to Campbellton to be applied to the relief of sufferers there was not credited to any denomination. It appears that The Guardian should have stated that these appeals were made in Grace and First Methodist Churches in accordance with a letter from the N. B. and P. E. I. Conference asking immediate financial aid for the congregation there who are now without even a church in which to worship. The response to the appeal is expected to be a generous one.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

BARCELONA, July 24—Antonio Mura, former Spanish Premier, was wounded today by a would-be assassin. His assailant was arrested.

PROMINENT KNIGHT TEMPLAR DEAD.

PROVIDENCE, July 24—Rev. Dr. Henry W. Rugg, grand master of the grand encampment of Knights Templars of the United States and grand master of Masons of Rhode Island, is dead at his home here of a complication of diseases.

Rev. Dr. Rugg was a native of Framingham, where he was born on September 3, 1833.

CAPT. BERNIER OFF FOR ARCTIC TRIP.

OTTAWA, July 24—Captain Bernier, Canada's polar navigator, whose ambition it has been for many years to reach the North Pole, is to have an opportunity for almost as distinguished a bit of Arctic exploration. With the government steamer "Arctic" provisioned for a two years cruise, Captain Bernier is now on route to Canadian polar waters with the government's permission to attempt the northwest passage and bring his vessel around to Victoria (B. C.), a feat which was unsuccessfully attempted by Parry, Ross, Franklin and other polar navigators during the last century.

Captain Bernier sailed from Quebec on the Arctic under sealed orders last month. Yesterday a letter was received from him at the department of marine, dated Chateau Bay, off Labrador coast, July 12. Attached to this letter was a memorandum giving the programme of his two years cruise.

CHEAP DEVICE TO COOL A ROOM.

Procure a small zinc-lined tank holding from two to three gallons of ice and salt, and put in about a half pint of ammonia. This tank can be placed in a corner of the room occupying very little space, and a drip pan put under it to catch the water condensed by the heat of the room.

This process of condensation is quite rapid and will very quickly reduce temperature. The larger the room the larger the tank and vice versa. The practicability of this scheme has been tested, and it is simple, clean and inexpensive. The tank will have to be replenished but once a day except when the weather is extremely warm.

There is one objection to this plan of cooling rooms on our hottest days and that is we will be apt to feel the heat of the streets when we are obliged to go out, and are more likely to suffer from prostration or sunstroke. That is something for us to think of, especially old people, before we make the experiment. Of course, it is understood that these little tanks can be made no less ornamental than radiators, and take up very little space in a room.

CYCLONE VISITS ITALY HUNDREDS INJURED.

MILAN, July 25—The list of dead in the cyclone which yesterday swept the country northwest has increased to sixty and the injured number several hundred. The material losses are estimated at many millions. Assistance has been sent to the villages which suffered most severely but there are many homeless to be taken care of.

EARL GREY ARRIVES.

OTTAWA, July 24—His Excellency Earl Grey with Countess Grey and party returned to the capital today after some six weeks' absence in England.

His Excellency will leave on August 2 on his Hudson Bay trip. Countess Grey will accompany him as far as Winnipeg and will spend most of August among the Canadian Rockies.

SUNDAY'S SAD RECORD OF MANY DROWNINGS.

OTTAWA, July 25—The Ottawa and Gatineau Rivers claimed three lives through drowning within the 24 hours of yesterday.

BOSTON, July 25—Another long list of drownings marked Sunday's record. Eleven deaths in New England have been reported. The majority of the victims were enjoying a boating party in the lake or stream, but the treacherous canal, was not forgotten, claiming two deaths. And still another drowning was due to a young woman losing her balance and falling from a row boat.

G. T. COMPANY NOW REFUSE ARBITRATION.

MONTREAL, July 25—A totally new phase has come over the Grand Trunk strike situation. Arbitration has been attempted by the G. T. Company, which claims that the time for such action has passed and that all they now require is such protection as will enable them to move their trains. They feel prepared to undertake the full operation of their system, both in the passenger and train service.

OATHS IN DIFFERENT LANDS.

The ceremony of taking the oath has been known since earliest history. The only changes in form which have come in thousands of years have been due to the introduction of the Bible and the cross by Christian nations. As administered in most of the English law courts the form of the oath is practically the same as that in the United States, though rather more ceremonious. In France it is perhaps the simplest. A crucifix above the judge's seat is supposed to obviate the necessity of the witness handling either the cross or the Bible.

"You swear to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth" said the judge. And the witness, raising his right hand, answers: "I swear it."

In Austria a Christian witness is sworn before a crucifix placed between two lighted candles. Holding up his right hand the witness says: "I swear by God, the Almighty and All Wise that I will speak the pure and full truth in answer to anything I may be asked by the court."

If the witness is of the Jewish race he uses the same words, but places his hand on a Bible opened at the page on which appears the third commandment, and the crucifix is removed.

In a Belgian court the witness says: "I will speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help me God and all the saints." No Bible is required in the administering of this oath. The Italian witness generally takes the oath in a dramatic manner. Resting his hand on an open Bible he exclaims: "I will swear to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth!" More ceremony attends the administering of an oath in a Spanish court. The witness kneels on his right knee and places his right hand on the sacred book. The judge then says: "Will you swear to God and by those holy gospels to speak the truth to all you may be asked?" The witness replies: "Yes; I swear." To which the judge rejoins: "Then if thus you do God will reward you and if not will require of you." In a few districts this form is varied by the witness placing the middle of his thumb on the middle of his forefinger, kissing his thumb and declaring: "By this cross, I swear." It is to be hoped that the Norwegian witness is properly impressed with his obligation to speak the truth or considerable energy is wasted. He is required to raise his thumb, forefinger and middle finger, these signifying the Trinity. Before the oath is actually taken a long exhortation is delivered, running in part: "Whatever person is so ungodly, corrupt or hostile to himself as to swear a false oath or not to keep the oath sworn sins in such a manner as if he were to say: 'I'll swear falsely, then may God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Ghost punish me, so that God the Father who created me and all mankind in His image, and His fatherly goodness, grace and mercy, may not profit me, but that I as a perverse and obstinate transgressor and sinner may be punished eternally in hell. If I swear falsely, then may all I have and own in this world be cursed; cursed be my land, field and meadow, so that I may never enjoy any fruit or yield from them; cursed be my cattle, my beasts, my sheep, so that after this day they may never thrive or benefit me; yea, cursed may I be and everything I possess.' And sometimes all that—and all the rest of it—in the matter of a suit brought to collect for a pair of boots, perhaps.
