THE PREMIER'S ELECTION ADDRESS

Wholly a Severe Indictment of the Late Government's Record and its Policy on Protection—Balfour's Free Trade Tenets have only a Nominal Place, He Says.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—(Special).—Campbell-Bannerman's election address is wholly devoted to a severe indictment of the late Government's record and its policy on Protection. He says that the last decade represents an unbroken expanse of mismanagement and legislation conducted for the benefit of the privileged classes, of wars and adventures abroad hastily undertaken and recklessly pursued, and that the legacy bequeathed by the Unionists is one of embarrassments. He regards Balfour's free trade tenets as holding only a nominal place in the estimation of the Unionists. He characterizes Protection as immoral and oppressive, based on the exploitation of the community in the interest of the favored trades and financial groups.

TRADE RELATIONS CANADA AND ITALY

MONTREAL, Jan. 6.—Signor Pietro Alvinio, Naples, is on a visit to Canada, and he is interested in the development of commercial relations between Canada and Italy. Like other bankers in the chief Italian ports, his firm is financially interested in shipping and in over-sea commerce. Signor Alvinio thinks there ought to be a direct line of steamships between Italy and Canada. The business at present transacted between Canada and Italy is either through London or New York, and all the Italian immigrants who settle in Canada travel by way of the United States. American steamship companies thus profit by the traffic which might go to Canadian ports.

REMARKABLE WEATHER PREVAILS

CALGARY, Jan. 4.—The extraordinary spring weather which has prevailed in Calgary for a month reached a climax today when the Elbow river broke up. Cattlemen say they never saw anything like it. The wind from the mountains has been balmy for weeks, sidetracking overcoats and furnaces.

GREAT BRITAIN IS FOR PEACE

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—A Paris cable to the Sun says: The Matin prominently prints statements it alleges King Edward recently made to a French statesman who was visiting Buckingham Palace. The paper does not disclose who the statesman was but it is supposed to have been M. Boumer, president of the Chamber of Deputies, who at present is regarded as the most likely successor of President Loubet. The King is quoted as saying: "I have reason to believe that whatever the impression on the continent may be, no nation has really thought of troubling the peace of Europe and I am certain no one thinks of breaking it at the present moment." Referring to the British Cabinet he said the new Ministry was animated most sincerely by pacific intentions. As regarded the relations between Great Britain and France there was no reason why there should be any change. All the members of the Government were determined to be friends with France. Sir Edward Grey the Foreign Minister, in particular was a loyal and convinced partisan of the entente cordiale. His Majesty further intimated that it was the intention of the Cabinet to continue and develop its predecessor's efforts to bring about closer relations with Russia with the view to removing possible differences.

PREPARING FOR COMING WAR

PARIS, Jan. 4.—The Echo de Paris says: "There is feverish activity at Toulon and several ships of the Mediterranean squadron are being over hauled there. Various rumors are in circulation but the general opinion of naval officers is that the government intends to be ready for any developments that may follow the conference on Moroccan returns. "The warships in the roads have received their full complement of men and ammunition and are taking on great quantities of coal."

THE RUSSIAN CHRISTMAS BRINGS GOODWILL TO ALL

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 7.—(Special).—Fine snow sifting down from a cold sky furnished ideal weather for the Russian Christmas so far as St. Petersburg was concerned. All the theatres and other places of amusement, even the restaurants, were closed. The day was given up to the proverbial Russian hospitality. The dissensions which have torn and distracted this country seemed to disappear for the day and even the Radical newspapers expressed Goodwill to All. The day passed quietly throughout all the large cities.

NEW EVIDENCE IN MURDER CASE

The Victim not Shot in Bed as Supposed But in Some Other Place—A Family Quarrel.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 7.—(Special).—The police today secured evidence leading to the belief that Chas. Edwards was not shot in his bed but at some other place and that the body was afterwards placed in bed. Blood was found on the stockings and a part of clothing on the body was inside out. Startling facts have developed in connection with the family matters between the Edwards and the Millers.

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENTS OCCUR

Express Smashes into Platform at the Grand Central Station, New York and a Man Killed—Engine Runs into a Passenger Train.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—(Special).—One man was killed and another severely injured in the Grand Central Station tonight. The Adirondack express was being shunted and after the engine cut away the air-brakes on the train failed to work. The heavy train crashed through the buffers and into the platform where several people were standing. One man trying to escape from the station building was killed and another, a porter, while rescuing a woman, who was in great danger, received severe injuries. CORRY, Pa., Jan. 7.—(Special).—Through the engineer's failure to remember his orders is due a disastrous wreck last night at Horn's siding when three persons were killed and twenty injured. A light engine crashed into an express passenger train and a very bad smash up resulted.

GIRL STOPPED OWN FUNERAL

TALQUAH, I. T., Jan. 5.—After having been pronounced dead by a physician, having fallen senseless through fright after an explosion of fireworks, the body of Carrie Moss was prepared for burial by an undertaker, and friends came to pay their last sad respects. The mourners were gathered about the bier, the preacher had paid his tribute, the village choir had sung and the undertaker was in the act of screwing down the coffin lid, when to the amazement of all, the girl sat bolt upright. She was apparently as well as ever, but she could recall nothing since her shock by the torpedoes.

GREAT WIND STORM STRIKES CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—Thomas D. Henderson was killed by a falling sign, a score of persons were injured and $100,000 worth of property was destroyed by a wind storm which struck Chicago Wednesday night. At one time the wind blew sixty miles an hour. In every part of the city pedestrians were hurt by flying signs or falling chimneys. Along the north shore trees were uprooted. In Evanston and South Chicago the wind worked great havoc, the greatest loss being in South Chicago, where an open hearth furnace under course of construction by the Illinois Steel Company was blown down. The Steel Company's loss is $50,000.
