REMOVED

We have removed from 120 Euston Street to 180 Queen St. to stables formerly occupied by Fred. Cameron, trainer. These stables are situated between the tailoring establishments of John T. McKenzie and James Callaghan, most convenient to everybody, large and roomy, having in connection eight large stalls, where horses can be tied in perfect safety. We will be pleased to meet all our old and new customers with better accommodations and facilities than ever for first class work. Thanking one and all for their past patronage, I take this opportunity of soliciting a continuance of same.

It pays to buy in this province. L. A. Wright referred to in yesterday's issue belonged to Summerside.

Rev. Thomas Marshall, Sackville, N. B., formerly of this city, has arrived home from a trip to Bermuda.

Many friends will sympathize with G. H. and Mrs. McCallum, Summerside, in the death of their infant son which is reported elsewhere in this issue.—S.

H. Craswell, Treasurer of P. E. Island Orphanage, Mount Herbert, acknowledges with thanks the following sum of $10.00 as a donation from L. O. L. No. 1166, Kingston.

The Mission room receipts published in the Wesleyan last week are as follows: from Jan 26 to Feb. 17—Tryon $31, Tryon, $25; Margate $16.70, From Feb 24 Tryon $30, Mt. Stewart $20.

Mrs. Pollard Levin, St. John, entertained most pleasantly at afternoon tea last week. Among the guests was Miss Mary Bartlett of Charlottetown, who is the guest of Mrs. George McMahon, Carvell Hill.

The four piers for the new Lobster Hatchery wharf at the Block House point are nearly completed and are substantial looking structures. Doubtless they will stand the stress of wind and weather for a longer period than the first wharf. The structure will be completed for the opening of the season.

A late issue of the Rumford Falls (Me.) Times says: Mary, the little nine-year-old daughter of James and Mrs. O'Reilly of Main avenue, has been suffering with a severe case of acute inflammation in her heel. On Monday Dr. Wm. T. Rowe found it necessary to use the lance. The little girl is now gaining excellently. On Wednesday her classmates of the 3rd grade Pine St. School and teacher Mrs. Hanson, sent her flowers. Flowers were also sent by individual members of the class. Mr. and Mrs. O'Reilly have relatives and friends in this Province.

The report of the Nova Scotia College of Agriculture which has just been issued shows that 600 Nitro Cultures of Bacteria were distributed throughout the Maritime Provinces last year. These Bacteria make possible all unsuccessful growth of the legumes, particularly clover. Preparations are being again made to send that out this year at a nominal cost of 25c each which does little more than pay for the packages and for the postage. Everyone in this Province interested is invited to write to the College of Agriculture, Truro, N. S., for full particulars.

A recent despatch from St. John says: Rev. George D. Steel, of Shediac, formerly of P. E. Island, now of Newcastle, N. B., has left for home after spending two days in the city in the interests of the superannuated Methodist ministers' and ministers' widows, fund. Mr. Steel was appointed at the last session of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island conference of the $50,000 required as an investment for the whole maritime provinces and Newfoundland. At present only 83 per cent of the amounts rightfully claimed can be paid, and it is to supply the deficiency that the campaign was inaugurated. Rev. Mr. Steel reports that he has covered half of Prince Edward Island and the greater part of the St. John and Sackville districts in this province, and has $8,000 in sight. This is his second visit to St. John and he expects to come again before completing his canvass. The subscriptions are divided into $5. amounts.

There were many specialties at Keith and Proctors Theatre, New York, for the week of March 13th and from start to finish the show was clean bright entertainment and thoroughly enjoyed by the Guardian's representatives. The animal feature by Louise Stieckney's was line and Ashley and Lee gave a splendid Broadway variety night in Charlottetown. The musical in title "Twilight in the Studio" by Frederick and Mrs. Voelker, was something decidedly new and an instant favorite. The humor and dancing by Harry Fox and the Millers Sisters; The Awakening of Pipp by Charley Grapwin; and Mine Adelaide Norwood, the grand opera artist, were all specialties well meriting the praise they received. Harrison Armstrong gave a short one act play, Circumstantial Evidence with a long list of character and a first class plot. The Curzon Sisters in sensational aviating did some wonderful stunts while Harry Williams and Harry Schwartz were popular entertainers in popular songs. The daylight pictures were unsurpassed and the orchestra music first class.

SIXTY-NINTH SESSION BAPTIST CONFERENCE.

The 69th session of the P. E. I. Baptist Conference was held within the Baptist Church at Murray River on March 13th, 14th and 15th. The fair weather, the completeness of preparation and the presence of twenty-five delegates contributed to the success of the entire occasion. During all the sessions Rev. E. P. Calder, the enterprising chairman, presided with grace and discrimination. The good people of Murray River, led by their pastor, opened their hearts, homes and church to us, making us welcome to one of the most sightly and delightful rural districts in all P. E. Island. As over half of the delegates were entertained at the Cook Hotel, the intervening time between the sessions was full of social hospitality which was much enjoyed. The Conference, which assembled at 7.50 in the Baptist Church, was called to order by the pastor of the church, who extended a brief welcome. After the singing of hymns "Simply Trusting Day by Day," the reading of the first Chapter of St. John and prayer by Rev. Z. L. Fash, the chairman, Rev. E. P. Calder, preached an introductory sermon from 1st Tim. 6:12. The preacher in a most interesting discussion sounded a clear key-note. Session closed with an evangelistic service conducted by Rev. Z. L. Fash. Tuesday morning's session opened at 9.30. An inspiring devotional service was conducted by Deacon Arthur Simpson, after which the meeting organized for business. The roll call was read by the secretary, Rev. W. M. Field. Reports were submitted from fifteen churches showing that much good work has been done and that now with four new pastors settled on important fields the outlook was bright for further advancement. The regular committees were appointed. This includes a committee to cooperate with the convention, a pastoral committee to look after pastorless churches. The report of A. W. Sterns, provincial treasurer, was read and heartily discussed. It disclosed the fact that over half the amount allotted to the churches of our Province was yet to be contributed and that nearly eight months had expired. The various interests of our denomination depend for their efficient management on regular, systematic contributions of the churches. The afternoon session commenced at 2.30, with devotional service led by Rev. G. P. Cameron. A feature of the afternoon session was the presentation of an excellent and stirring paper on "The Pastor in His Study," by Rev. R. O. Morse. A lengthy discussion followed. The remainder of the afternoon was given over to the W. M. A. S. In the evening Rev. E. P. Dresser preached a helpful sermon, which an evangelistic service was conducted by Rev. W. M. Field. Wednesday morning an old-fashioned conference was held by Rev. G. F. Camp, in which a large number participated. Wednesday afternoon an Ecclesiastical Council called by the Baptist Church of Murray River to advise in the ordination of their pastor, A. A. Gates, Lic., organized by choosing Rev. E. P. Calder Moderator and Rev. Wm. M. Field clerk. After the credentials of messengers were presented, the Rev. R. O. Morse was appointed leading questioner. After hearing the statements of the candidate, his Christian experience, his call to the church, his views of Christian doctrine, the Council advised the church to proceed with his ordination. In the evening the following program was rendered: Introductory services, Rev. G. F. Camp; sermon, Rev. Z. L. Fash; ordaining prayer, Rev. R. O. Morse; charge to the church, Rev. E. P. Calder; charge to candidate, Rev. E. P. Dresser, hand of fellowship, Rev. W. M. Field; Benediction, Rev. A. A. Gates. Conference closed after a vote of thanks to the entertaining church, etc.

Among those registered at the King Edward Hotel, Halifax, Saturday, were Wilfrid Forbes, Pt. Vernon, and L. Brunt, P. E. I.

Rev. A. C. Bell, Apohaqui, N. B., a native of this Province, has accepted an invitation to remain a fourth year, as Methodist minister of that place.

Rev. W. W. Brewer, St. John, N.B., formerly of this city, has received an invitation to remain at Exmouth Street Church in that city for another year.

Tonight in Burke's Alley the 4th Regiment cracks will meet the clerks. These two teams are very evenly matched and this league game will be watched with interest as a keen competition will likely issue.

A match that is exciting much interest in bowling circles is the struggle between the teams from the Civilian Rifle Association and the 4th Regiment team. The latter are well known as pretty near invincible while the former, a new team, includes four of the highest scorers in the game here on their lineup.

It is doubtful if J. H. Livingstone, the Prince Edward Island man, who, as was stated in Tuesday's issue, contracted smallpox at Mr. Mammy's, as he alleged. He was in the shop downstairs—the disease was upstairs. When he and his comrade went in Mr. Mammy told them to get out that there was smallpox upstairs. When police Chisholm got there they were standing outside and he told them to get away as there was smallpox in the house. Mr. Chisholm did not know they were in until afterwards. It was Dr. Elliott, not Dr. Mc Donald, who was with Dr. Keith. This was Dec. 19th, Livingstone developed the disease on Jan. 8th—twenty days afterwards, so it is doubtful if he contracted the disease at Mammy's. The authorities here declare that it would not take so long to develop.—New Glasgow Chronicle.

At the police court in this city yesterday one drunk, Fred Martin, was fined $5 or ten days. The case against Wallace Carr, charged with receiving stolen goods, was concluded. Golden Carr, the last witness for the defence, testified that he had seen the bootlaces (produced in Court) before. He had seen Wallace Carr in Picton. Witness was coming home from Sydney and Carr was going to North Sydney with a carload of cattle. They met a man at Picton who took a bunch of laces out of his pocket and sold them to Wallace Carr for 45 cents. Mr. McLean briefly addressed the Court, claiming that there was no evidence to convict the prisoner and asking for his discharge. His Honor after a short review of the case acquitted the prisoner.

Speaking in the Quebec Legislature, recently Hon. Adiel Turgeon of that Province delivered an eloquent address on the Battlefields bill, which calls for an appropriation of $100,000 for the Battlefields park, and for a monument to King Edward VII. on the Plains of Abraham. The speaker took occasion to sketch the work done by the Battlefields Commission, a body which was not as well known by the public as it should be. The bill was then passed in second reading. He explained the work of the Battlefields Commission and said it was to reconstruct and nationalize the historic battlefields of 1759 and 1760, that of the Plains of Abraham which witnessed the triumph of Wolfe and the British arms. The following are the amounts contributed by each of the provinces: Ontario, $100,000; Quebec, $100,000; Nova Scotia, 10,000; New Brunswick, $7,000; Manitoba, $10,000; British Columbia, $10,000; Prince Edward Island, $2,500; Alberta, $10,000; Saskatchewan, $10,000; Total, $260,000. The expenses of the Centenary celebration of last year were taken out of this.
