

Your Boy
Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a strong tonic, entirely free from alcohol.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN
Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.
Everybody should hear Mr. Watkis at the piano in St. James' Hall tonight.
The Savoy House on Kent Street will be rented. See particulars in the ad which appears in this issue.

A. Boieser will hold an auction sale at the Savoy House, Kent St., City, on March 29. See ad in this issue.
All readers when writing to advertisers in this or any other issue of this paper, are requested to mention The Guardian.

Mr. Ritchie will sing the tune composed on the Yukon trail in St. James' Hall tonight. It will be a rare treat. Do not miss it.
Angela McKinnon, Goose River, and Elsie Nicholson, Orwell, have been awarded graduating certificates from the shorthand and typewriting department of the Union Commercial College.

Mr. McPherson, of P. E. Island, has purchased the farm of Hilaire Gallant, St. Anne, Richibucto, N.B., and will take possession about May 1. Mr. Gallant intends moving to St. Pierre, where he has bought another farm.

Herbert Booth has conducted a very successful mission in St. John's Presbyterian Church, Moncton. The large building was filled every evening for two weeks. Scores were at the penitent seats. The whole city was blessed.—Ex.

Mr. McKay's milk team, while on their delivery work in this city yesterday ran away and in their undirected dash they brought the wagon in collision with a light pole. The horses then became separated from the rig and proceeded for some distance before being captured. The wagon was damaged to some extent and a quantity of milk was lost.

The headliner at Wonderland tonight is "Fenton of the 42nd." It is an exciting story of the Mexican border in which smugglers take a lively part. The bombardment of the hut furnishes much excitement. This is a popular subject and is full of action. The other pictures are equally as interesting. Everyone should see the program of this popular theatre.

Persons sending advertising to The Guardian will confer a favor on the management if they will state whether they want it in The Morning Daily or Rural Daily, how long and how frequently they wish it inserted in each, and whether as a business local, display, ad, or classified ad, bearing in mind that if the latter it can run but for consecutive insertions. All ordinary amounts under one dollar are accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those having a regular advertising account.

A Sackville exchange says that "Mrs. Ryan's reception on Wednesday afternoon was one of the winter's principal social functions. The interior of the handsome residence has such beautiful furnishings that decorations would seem entirely out of place. Mrs. Ryan received her many visitors in the drawing room. She was handsomely gowned in black sequin with touches of gold on the corsage. Mrs. H. H. Powell, of St. John, who was the guest of Mrs. Ryan, assisted the hostess in the reception room and wore a gray corded voile with silver trimmings. In the dining room Mrs. H. M. Wood, wearing a biscuit colored satin gown with white hat and white plumes, presided at the tea table. The setting of this table was extremely handsome." Among the guests was Mrs. A. G. Putman, formerly of Eldon, P. E. I.

At the Cheverie apt., N. B., on Sabbath, 6th inst., two persons were baptised and with one other were received into full membership by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Fisher. On his recent visit to the Walton Mission Mr. Fisher found Bro. Baker doing faithful work and growing in the appreciation of the people.—Wesleyan. Rev. J. M. Fisher is well known in this Province.

The following letter of condolence signed by Lida Barrett, Ida MacDougall and George Cruwys on behalf of Kingston Star Division, S.O. T. has been forwarded to John and Mrs. Yeo and family. The officers and members of Kingston Star Division, No 142 S. O. T. would convey to you our sincerest sympathy in your recent bereavement. We are convinced that our words of comfort cannot descend into the depths of grief and sense of loss that parents must feel for a beautiful daughter just blooming into womanhood and taken from them by death. Dear friends, we would assure you that none of us have been un mindful of your trial; our sorrow has mingled with yours; Eva is no longer with us, our circle has been broken, an absent face, a vacant chair, one who was always cheerful and ready to help. We cannot reconcile our Heavenly Father's doings to our short sighted vision, very little of the Divine plan reveals itself, but when we remind ourselves of the tears of Jesus, and the boundless compassion of Him who came to reveal the Father's love, we are assured that such a mysterious visitation as this is prompted by infinite wisdom and love. When the scales of death have fallen from our eyes we shall see and understand how God our Father meant us nothing but good. Our prayer for you in your great sorrow is that our Father in Heaven may vouchsafe to you his sustaining grace, and that the affliction through which you have been called to pass may be sanctified to your eternal welfare.

NEW WONDERLAND
Originators of the Big Shows Imitated but Not Equalled
Fenton of the 42nd
A young Captain is sent to guard the Texas frontier, to prevent smuggling. He makes his home with a Mexican family in which is a son and beautiful daughter. The girl's sweetheart grows jealous and shoots the capt. He is nursed back to life by the girl. Later two smugglers are discovered—one is killed, the other captured. He proves to be the girl's brother. She pleads for his life and is allowed to try to effect his escape. He starts off but is ambuscaded. See the finale—it is interesting.

Three Fingred Jack
A picture full of interest. The Salvation Army girl enters a saloon, to sell her papers—is insulted by a tough. Three fingred Jack retaliates. He afterwards breaks in to a house and while in the library leaves the print of his stained hand on the blotter. See how the Salvation Army girl is accused and see the fine ending.

Romance of the Andes
Another of those Western pictures with kidnapping, horse back riding and a happy ending to all.
A Convenient Lamp Post
An uproarious comedy. A gent takes too much of the ardent and leans against a lamp post. See what he sees.

A correspondent from Eldon writes that Baxter Hubley has sold his cow for a handsome sum. John A. McMillan has removed from Garfield to Pinette, where he intends in future residing. James Munroe leaves in a few days for Boston. Donald W. McDonald paid Pinette a flying visit a few days ago. F. W. Panton has secured the contract of mail driving from Sures Station to Roseberry. It is hoped Mr. Panton will give a good service. Inventor McTavish is visiting in Garfield, the guest of the Revs. F. Jore, Ono and Dawson held at recent missionary meetings held at Pt. de Bute. There was a fine audience. It is needless to say that the meeting was of uncommon interest. The Revs. J. L. Dawson and A. E. Chapman ably represented the cause at Joliceur. A new departure was made 1st Sunday in holding young people's missionary meetings at the aforementioned appointments with much interest and good results.—Wesleyan. The ministers above mentioned are well known here.
