MacKay-Stevenson Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stevenson, Elliotts, on Tuesday afternoon, June 14th, when their daughter Audrey Phyllis was united in marriage to Donald B. MacKay and the late Mr. MacKay, Breadalbane.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate relatives and friends by Rev. W. B. MacPhail, and took place under a beautiful arch tastefully decorated with spring flowers.

The bride entered the living-room on the arm of her father. She was gowned in a floor-length dress of white satin and her veil was of silk net in finger-tip style. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, the gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of Lilies of the Valley and Sweet Peas.

Miss Shirley Stevenson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing a gown of blue taffeta. Her bouquet was Lilies of the Valley and Buttercup.

The groom was supported by his brother, John F. MacKay, B.A. The Wedding March was played by Mrs. Robert Carruthers.

Following the ceremony, a delicious luncheon was served. The bride's table was centred with two beautifully decorated wedding cakes. Assisting in serving were Misses Phyllis Ling, Edith MacLennan and Alice Craswell.

The bride and groom left later for a short honeymoon. For travelling the bride wore a blue crepe dress, grey coat and hat, accessories to match.

On their return Mrs. MacKay, mother of the groom was a hostess at a reception in their honor. She was assisted by her daughters Mrs. Carruthers and Mrs. Lorne Cousins.

MASTERS-ENMAN

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Trinity United Parsonage, Charlottetown, on Friday, June 17th when Irene Edith Inman of Vernon River was united in marriage to Reginald Masters, also of Vernon River. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. C. Rice. The bride was attended by her sister Jean. Mr. Harold Enman capably supported the groom.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents where a wedding supper was served to immediate relatives and friends after which an enjoyable hour or two was spent in music and dancing. After a very pleasant evening the guests departed, wishing the young couple the best of wishes. They were the recipients of many and varied presents, including a substantial sum of money. The young couple will reside at Vernon River where the groom is a prosperous young farmer. (Patriot please copy)

Full information and particulars regarding this list will be furnished by Miss MacKinnon, so Guides are urged to get in touch with her immediately if considering making application to go to the New Brunswick Girl Guide Camp.

Girl Known Here Married At Brooklyn, N. Y.

The marriage of Miss Faith M. Donahue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Donahue, Ozone Park, Long Island, to Mr. Patrick C. Keating, Brooklyn, N. Y., was celebrated on June 18th at St. Mary's Gate of Heaven Church, Ozone Park on June 18.

The Rev. Jose C. Pando, C.M., Dean of St. John's University College officiated. The choir was led by Rev. W. Bascot, and during the ceremony the hymns "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus" and "O Lord I Am Not Worthy" were sung by Mr. Michael McLaughlin.

The bride and her attendants were dressed in white organdy over taffeta. The bride's finger tip veil of French illusion was held in place by Mrs. Donahue and the bridesmaid. She carried a carnation covered missal. Miss Mary McLaughlin, maid of honor and Miss Eleanor Conroy bridesmaid carried garlands of English ivy and maize cernations.

Best man was Mr. J. Austin Keating, brother of the bridegroom, officiated by Mrs. Donahue and John O'Rourke acted as ushers.

The altar and sanctuary were decorated with white gladioli, snapdragons and ferns. A reception was held at Hotel Whitman, Jamaica. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Father Pando and was responded to by the groom. Following the reception the bridal party left by automobile for a honeymoon to Nantucket Island and the White Mountains.

Mrs. Keating was graduated from Bishop McDonnell's Memorial High School and Delahanty Secretarial Institute, Manhattan. She attended St. John's University. The bridegroom is a graduate of Bishop Lauglin's Memorial High School, the University of Minnesota and at present is taking a post-graduate course at St. John's University. He served with the 5th Air Force as a photographer in the Southwest and Central Pacific areas.

The bride's parents were formerly from Prince Edward Island and the bride herself spent a great deal of her time here. She is a niece of Mrs. George Stewart, Bedford, Mr. Alex MacKenzie, Scotchfort and Mr. Peter Donahue, Roseville.
