MACKEY—DESMOND.—A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Holy Name Church, New Glasgow, N. S., Thursday morning in the presence of relatives and friends, when Miss Stella M. Desmond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Desmond, Granton, N. S., was united in marriage to Mr. Leo P. Mackey of Springhill, N. S. The church was beautifully decorated by the friends of the bride. Rev. Fr. MacKenzie performed the ceremony. Miss Margaret Mahoney, cousin of the bride, presided at the organ and rendered Lohengrin's wedding march as the bride entered the church on the arm of her father. The bride looked charming in a tailored navy pointed tulle suit, with black hat and white neckpiece, and carried a white prayer book. The bridesmaid, Miss Mary MacKay, sister of the groom, looked lovely in a sand point tulle suit, with hat to match and wearing a squirrel neckpiece. The groom was supported by Mr. Edward S. Desmond, brother of the bride. At the offertory the organist sang beautifully Gounod's Ave Maria. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial cheque; to the bridesmaid, a gold and sapphire rosary; to the organist, pearl and coral earrings, Mr. and Mrs. Groom, gold cuff links. The wedding presents were numerous and beautiful, including cheques, silver, cut glass and linen, testifying to the popularity of the bride and groom. After receiving congratulations, amidst showers of confetti the happy couple motored to Stellarton to board the train. They will spend their honeymoon in parts of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and P. E. Island. On their return they will reside in Springhill.—New Glasgow News.

Bulgaria Declares Soviet Red Cross Cloaked Espionage

SOPIA, Sept. 28.—What the ministry of the interior maintains to be evidence of the political and espionage activities of the Soviet Red Cross delegation, admitted to Bulgaria under the auspices and at the instance of the League of Nations, was given out here recently by the Bureau of Public Safety after an investigation of the archives of the delegation. The examination of the seized documents was carried on in the presence of Walter Collins, of Great Britain, who was appointed to represent Dr. F. Nansen in Bulgaria in the repatriation of Russian refugees. The evidence adduced will be submitted to Dr. Nansen, in Geneva. The documents show, as summarized by Vladimir Natcheff, director of public safety: That the Russian Red Cross delegation operated both as a section of the Soviet mission in Bulgaria and of the Communist party of Bulgaria, and that the parading of Russian refugees through the streets of Sofia under the Red Flag was designed to operate as Communist demonstrations of strength. That the delegation busied itself in military espionage, as is shown by the presence among its seized papers of detailed plans of Bulgarian Barracks and fortifications. One of the most striking discoveries among the effects of the Red Cross agents was a bomb, several revolvers and two whips with iron handles, objects foreign to the mission of Red Cross delegation. It is pointed out by the director of public safety. A code, invisible ink, and in general complete equipment for espionage activities were disclosed in the presence of Dr. Nansen's representative, Mr. Collins. Evidence will also be submitted to Dr. Nansen from the archives to prove that a representative of the Bulgarian Communist party, A. Nedelkoff, was attached to the Russian Red Cross as a liaison officer for political activities jointly between the Red Cross and the Bulgarian Communist party. In communicating its discoveries to the public, the ministry of the interior points out that there was only one course for the Bulgarian government to pursue after its realization of the course adopted by the Soviet Red Cross, and that was to put an end to its activities in Bulgaria.

THIS WIFE BOBBED HER HAIR IN VAIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A new reason for bobbed hair was advanced in the West Side Court yesterday by Mrs. Edward Anisfield, a young woman with cropped black tresses who appeared as complainant against her husband, a dress designer of 140 West Ninety-ninth Street, whom she charged with beating her. "I did not bob my hair because of style," she told the Court. "My husband used to grab me by my long hair and pull me about the room and I thought it would stop him if I cut it short. I certainly did not want to give up my long black hair, and I have it here in my handbag," she said, producing the shorn locks. "But, alas, even bobbing does not seem to do any good," she added. "My husband beats me anyhow." "What have you to say for yourself?" said Magistrate Max S. Levine to Anisfield. The husband indicated that he could not talk English, but when the Magistrate said he would give him two days in jail to learn how, he spoke up, saying he could talk "a little English." "I'll give you two days in the West Side Jail (anyhow, while I have a probation officer make an investigation," the Magistrate said.

How to Keep a Child Healthy

A GENERATION ago parents thought that sickness was a part of a child's life, but we know better now. The secret is in the food the mother allows the child to eat, and in watching that elimination occurs regularly two or three times a day. Mrs. W. E. Margeson, Centreville, N. S., and Mrs. Pratt, 45 Gillson Ave., Runnymede, Toronto, always keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin in the house, ready for use, and avoid many of the ills to which children are subject.

A Substitute for Physics
Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is a scientific compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and suitable aromatics. The formula is on every package. You will find you do not have to force children to take it, and it is much better for them than castor oil, calomel or coal-tar drugs like phenolphthalein even if they are covered with sugar or chocolate. Laxative Syrup Pepsin is mild and gentle in action and your child will have an easy passage without griping or strain. It does not contain narcotics, and you can give it with absolute safety to an infant at the breast.

"Magic" in a Teaspoonful
Every doctor that sells medicines sells Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, and the cost is less than a cent a dose. Give half a teaspoonful to any ailing baby or child at night when you put it to bed and you will find a happy, laughing youngster in the morning. Take Laxative Syrup Pepsin yourself when constipated, and give it to any member of the family young or old, for any ailment due to constipation, such as biliousness, headache, lack of appetite, sleeplessness, bad breath, cankers, fever, sores, indigestion, and to break up fevers and colds. Stop that first sneeze or sniffle and you will have a healthy winter.
