The latest news, first of all.

The tide will be high this afternoon at 3.31 and tomorrow afternoon at 4.05.

Frank Stretch, Long Creek, has returned home after spending Sunday at Hazelbrook.

Boswell Carver, Hazelbrook, has been spending the past week with his many friends at Long Creek.

Everybody should remember J. F. Floyd's lecture this evening in the Central Christian Church. Admission ten cents.

Capt McLean, of the S. S. Northumberland left Sunday night on a visit to Boston and other points in the New England States.

The sermons of the late Dr Dobson are on sale at the four bookstores in this city.

One drunk, James Rooney, was fined four dollars or twenty days at the Police Court in this City yesterday.

The new reel at New Wonderland tonight, "Who They Married," is a delightful Vitagraph picture, in which originality of thought and sprightliness of action combine to produce the best effect.

Her many friends in this city will be pleased to learn that Mrs Isaac Jenkins, who has been undergoing treatment in the P. E. Island Hospital, has returned to her home and is now practically recovered.

Mrs A. E. Vessey, St Stephen, N.B. has given invitations to a "high tea" at her residence on Thursday evening at 6.30 o'clock.—St John Telegraph. Mrs Vessey's husband is a native of this Province and is well known in banking circles.

Last night the Arena Rink opened again for business and a large number of skaters appeared on the ice. The music was good and it is not probable that another soft spell will interfere seriously with conditions in the Arena until the close of the season.

S. T. Currie, the popular mail man of Rocky Point, with several other men crossed to this City in a boat yesterday bringing the Rocky Point mail over. No ice worth mentioning was met with until the party reached the landing at this city. Mr Currie returned to Rocky Point with mails in the afternoon.

The King's College Record contains an admirable article on inventions from the pen of H. A. Messervey, a second year student at that institution and son of J. A. Messervey of this city. The article shows great maturity of thought and excellent diction as the production of a young man of eighteen years.

Yesterday afternoon, John Weatherbie, laborer, City, about one o'clock, applied to the Police Station for aid. He has no means of support and is just recovering from a sickness. He was remanded to jail for eight days during which the authorities will endeavor to have him placed in the Infirmary. This is a move in the right direction.

The Superiress of the Charlottetown Hospital acknowledges with gratitude the receipt of sixty-seven dollars and fifteen cents, proceeds of the interesting lecture given by A. A. Bartlett, in aid of the hospital. Begging Mr Bartlett, Mr Callaghan and the ladies of the St Charles Society to accept her sincere thanks.

The new Baptist church, Shediac West, which was completed during the past fall, was formally opened and dedicated on Sunday last. Rev Mr Thomas, of Dorchester, Dr McIntyre, of St John, and Rev B. C. Corey, of Petitcodiac, were present, and were listened to with much pleasure at the services. In the morning Rev Mr Thomas was heard by a large number present. The Rev Dr McIntyre conducted the afternoon service and was much enjoyed by all in attendance; while at the evening service Rev E. C. Corey preached to a large congregation. A number of ladies and gentlemen were present from Salisbury, and formed a most efficient choir for the day's services.—St John Telegraph. The above gentlemen are known to many in this Province.

At the recent marriage of Miss Haycock to Thomas Atwood Davies, son of Sir Louis and Lady Davies, Ottawa, the gowns worn were very beautiful. Mrs Haycock, mother of the bride, wore a lovely gown, mauve moire, trimmed lace and quillings of silk. Black marabout hat with mauve plumes. Bouquet of violets. Miss Lafontaine, Montreal—Black striped Ottoman silk—Black velvet toque trimmed jet. Lady Davies (mother of groom)—Beautiful cachemere de soie princess gown of ashes of roses. Black velvet hat with plumes, and wore an exquisite necklace of pearl with pearl pendant. Miss Gertrude Davies sister of groom—Pale sea green chiffon. Large picture hat of black velvet. The bride received many lovely and valuable gifts. Besides the groom's other gifts, he presented his bride with a handsome Russian pony skin coat, bordered all round with lynx fur, Sir Louis Davies—A grand Steinway piano; Lady Davies, a silver tea service, and to her son a gold watch and chain; Miss Gertrude and Mary Davies a Copeland china dinner service.

Lamp light will not be satisfactory if the burner be old, burnt out or dirty, if the wick be clogged, or if you use inferior oil. With your lamp in good order and MAYFLOWER OIL which is especially prepared for household use, you will have the best light for the eyes known to man.

Distinctive Clothes for Men

Stylish Garments in the Snappiest of Winter Modes Attractively Priced

The man who wears Prowse clothes, is the man who likes distinctiveness in dress—who doesn't want to look like the fellows who wear ordinary clothes, because we've gone along ever since we sold the first suit, selling just the sort of clothes which appeal to the man who wants the different, is why we have become the leading men's store of this city.

Our clothes are cut from the very latest ideas made of the best materials and finished in the most approved manner. The prices are far below those asked by the custom tailors and as our clothes equal these in every particular, the saving on clothing of the highest grade is abundant indeed.

Overcoats

Fine well made coats, just the kind to snuggle into these winter days, at very modest prices.

Suits

Just enough of the swagger to them, to win every man who likes distinctive clothes.

Trousers

An extra pair of trousers will help to make the old suit brighter and at the price we ask means a big saving to you. See the special line of trousers at 15 worth 2.75 pair
