THE GERMANS SPENDING MONEY ON THEIR NEWS SERVICE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The German summer embassy at Cedarhurst, L.I., is used as the clearing-house for the German overseas news service, which disseminates German war news to neutral countries, an official connected with the embassy admitted yesterday. According to this informant, J. Schemidt, treasurer of the German embassy, is the head of the clearing-house which is maintained at a monthly cost of from $25,000 to $30,000.

"Four expert telegraphers are kept busy day and night sending out German news wherever it will do good." This official said:

"It is one of the greatest systems ever devised by Germans in this country. The news is received at Turkerton and Sayville. Every corner where Germans are domiciled is covered by this news service, even China, South and Central America and Mexico. The telegraph companies have put in special wires and assigned expert operators to handle the news. Direct wireless ran to the Turkerton and Sayville wireless stations."

Minard's Liniment Co., limited. .. ..

Gentlemen.—Last Winter I received great benefit from the use of MINARD'S LINIMENT in a severe attack of LaGrippe, and I have frequently proved it to be very effective in cases of inflammation.

LECTURE CANCELLED. — The lecture by the Rev. Mr Goodwin, which was announced for Monday night in the Grace Church has been cancelled for the present.

RESUMING BUSINESS. —Mr. Andy Lux the well known goose buyer of Woburn, Mass, arrived in Kensinton Saturday evening and is now open to do business at his old stand, Mr. Thos. Gormans, Kensington. 2947.

RE-OPENING OF GRACE CHURCH

For the past two weeks the carpenters and painters have been busy repairing, painting and tinting the church, which now presents a beautiful appearance. Inside, the electric lighting has also been changed and improved. Outside, the work is not yet completed. The parsonage is also undergoing extensive repairs and will be nicely painted, all of which will add greatly to the appearance of this valuable property, and to the comfort of the congregation.

The re-opening services were attended by large congregations. The Rev. H. A. Goodwin, of Moncton, preached an able sermon in the morning from John 12-21: "Sir, we would see Jesus." A large choir rendered suitable music. Miss Evelyn Goff assisted with a violin solo beautifully rendered by this talented young lady. It the evening Rev. Mr Goodwin preached from the text, 1st Corinthians, 13-11: "When I became a man I put away childish things." It was a powerful sermon, listened to by the large congregation with deep interest. The music was excellent, the large choir being ably assisted by Miss Goff, Miss Forsythe and Mr Elmer Ross, violins; Rev. Mr Littlejohns, 'cello. In the absence of the organist, Miss K. Stanley, Mr G. F. Hutcheson presided at the organ very acceptably. Rev. Mr Goodwin left for his home in Moncton this morning.

HEAVY FIFHTING IN BELGIUM

(Special to The Guardian)

PARIS, Sept. 10.—Official—Violent cannonade is reported in Belgium, in the region of Nieuport Steenstraete, around Arras (in France) with front at Roye Champgne, from Auberive to Sauain. "In Argonne the enemy bombarded with very heavy shells, gully Fontaine Aux Charmes on the direct road from Laharazee Shubert, tentative attack was stopped promptly. To north of Flirey, in the region of Stdie some artillery actions are reported. The Germans launched a very violent attack against Hartmanes Weilerkopf, but it was completely repulsed.

Two German aeroplanes have dropped a few bombs on Compirgne, especially on hospitals. There were no victims, and only some unimportant matreial damage is reported to have been done. A German biplane has been forced to land within our lines near Hangest En Santerre. The aviators were made prisoners. Six German aeroplanes attempted this morning to fly over St. Minneheule. They were obliged to turn tail owing to fire from our guns.

BRITISH TRADE CONGRESS UPHOLDS NATIONAL HONOUR

(Special to The Guardian)

BRISTOL, Sept. 10—The Trades Union Congress, representing more than three million organized English working men, rejected by an overwhelming vote today the resolution calling upon the Parliamentary committee of the Labor Party to formulate and advocate terms of peace satisfactory to the working classes. The sponsor for the defeated resolution said that such a move had already been made by German workmen but this argument brought him no supporters. Ramsay MacDonald, Labor member of Parliament, in an address to the Congress denied he or any other member of the Labor party in the Commons ever counselled the British men to shirk their duty, such an assertion, he added, was malicious and nothing but a perversion of a simple declaration that the Labor party should look out for itself. The duty of every citizen, he said, was to defend the National honor.

BERLIN HAD NOT HEARD OF HESPERIAN

(Special to the Guardian.)

BERLIN, Sept. 12.—The Foreign Office Admiralty stated to-day they had no news regarding the Hesperian incident, concerning which Ambassador Gerard asked for information recently. The question whether Americans lost their lives when the Hesperian was blown up will probably have a bearing on the ultimate answer of Washington, it is said.

RUSSIAN RETREAT WAS MILITARY SUCCESS

(Special to The Guardian)

ROME, Sept. 10.—Grand Duke Nicholas lacked sufficient energy to profit by his triumph when the Russian armies were victorious," writes General Corsi, to the Tribune. "He also lacked influence to impress upon the Emperor the fact that bureaucracy was responsible for the insufficiency of military preparations. During the retreat, however, Grand Duke Nicholas showed a clear mind capable of formulating precise views and reaching prompt decisions.

"Thus it was that the retreat, which might have been turned into a rout became through the leadership of the Grand Duke Nicholas, one of the greatest military successes in history from a strategical standpoint, without comparison except for the famous retreat narrated by Xenophon."

One Prescribes a Remedy The Other Prepares it

Is the man who compounds your prescription as competent in his line as the Doctor is in his? He should be.

If you should employ a high priced architect to draw plans, you certainly wouldn't place the building contract with a third rate builder.

The matter of deciding on a remedy is important, but it should be a matter of equal importance to have that remedy prepared accurately from pure active drugs.

LET US FILL YOUR PRESCRIPTION.

A complete stock of prescription drugs and ample experience enables us to give you superior prescription service. Prices are as low as can be had for good prescription service anywhere.

Prescriptions put up here will do the work which your Doctor intends them to do.
