—SUMMERSIDE MAN.— The pioneer fox farm organizer in Alberta, S. M. Hicks, of Prince Edward Island, who has been in the city for the past three months, organizing nd assisting in the work of starting the Alberta Black and Silver Fox company, with headquarters in Calgary, was the guest of honor at a banquet given Tuesday night, in the Empire hotel restaurant, when he was presented by the shareholders with a handsome gold-mounted umbrella, in token of appreciation of his services. Mr. Hicks, in a brief address, tendered his thanks, and predicted handsome dividends for the new concern in its pioneer undertaking. P. H. O'Reilly, Q. Greenwood, A. Weaver and others made complimentary addresses, and the utmost enthusiasm reigned.—Calgary News. (Mr. and Mrs. Hicks have spent the winter in the West and are expected home in a few days.) J.

—I. O. O. F. CELEBRATION.—On Sunday morning the members of Prince Edward Lodge, I. O. O. F., Summerside, celebrated the 95th anniversary of the Order by attending, in large numbers, divine service at St. Mary's Church, where the Rector, the Rev. C. DeW. White, preached an appropriate sermon, taking as his text, one of the mottoes of the order, "Truth." The choir also rendered special music for the occasion. On Thursday evening it is expected there will be an enjoyable time when the first and second degrees will be exemplified on a class of 14 candidates from Regal Lodge, Kensington, besides several candidates from Prince Edward Lodge. The degree staff of the latter lodge will confer the degrees. After the degree work, the local lodge will hold a reception for the visiting brethren, which will include a short musical programme, one of the numbers being an old-time favorite song by Brother Oakes, of Prince Edward Lodge.—J.

SPORTING NEWS

KING WITNESSED FOOTBALL FINAL.

LONDON, April 26.—Although the Association Cup final played at the Crystal Palace on Saturday afernoon was notable in that it was the first event of the kind to be favored by the King's presence, His Majesty making the presentation of the trophy, it was otherwise lacking in many features that have marked the event in previous years.

Last year the great contest brought together Sunderland and Aston Villa, the two finest teams in the North and the South respectively, while this year both teams were from the same county, thereby removing the competitive spirit that exists between the various counties.

The play itself produced little enthusiasm, the incidents connected with the pesence of the Sovereign alone giving spectacular effect. Several errors offset what little brilliance there was in the play, and though the game was clean, and at times fast, it did not rise above the ordinery run of football games in the mid die of the season.

Liverpool attacked well during the first half, and changed goals at half time with the chances in their favor. Burnley picked up, however, in the second period, and finally won the game by a smart shot from Freeman.

The crowd numbered 100,000, which was 20,000 less than last year, but apparently twice the number took advantage of the cheap trip to the metropolis, crowding all the thoroughfares bent on sight-seeing.
