TO THE ELECTORS OF 1st KING'S

I would like to take this opportunity of expressing to the people my sincere appreciation for the very kind way they received me as I visited them in their homes during the recent campaign. To my supporters, workers and those who assisted me in my canvass I am most grateful. Although not elected I will continue to do all I can to promote the best interests of the district. I know Mr. St. John merits the confidence which has been placed in him and I offer him my congratulations.

Prairie Marriages Are Long-Lasting

WINNIPEG, July 20 — (CP) — Prairie families live and play together more than families in other parts of Canada, and that is one of the main reasons why Prairie marriages are long-lasting, say authorities on domestic problems.

In Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba the divorce rate is only about three-tenths of one per cent of the populations — lower than in any other part of Canada, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics has reported.

"I think Prairie marriages are longer and happier than in other parts of Canada because most people live in small communities or in the country, said Miss M.L. Moore, director of Winnipeg's Family Bureau.

"Out here our families stay together as units. Divorces are always more numerous in large industrial cities like those in Ontario. In those cities, members of families are not together as much as they should be."

Miss Moore cited between housing conditions in the West as a factor in healthier marriages.

Dan Young, administrative officer of Winnipeg's juvenile and family court, said home life "is a frugal thing at best" in Eastern industrial centres.

"Families there live at too fast a pace to enjoy home receration." The west's lack of entertainment spots makes for quieter living centred about the home.

With true Western hospitality, the family man here is more apt to invite his friends to his home for an evening than to "go cavorting around night spots," said Mr. Young.

HATFIELD BROAD OAK, Essex, England — (CP) — A nest of mice was found in the back of a radio set here.

MOTHER KNOWS BEST, PADDY KEEPS CURLS

BARSTED, England, July 19— (CP)—Few people have ever seen Paddy Levin with his cap off, but everyone for miles around this Kent County town admires his corkscrew curls.

Twelve flaxen curls trained down his forehead surprise most people when they first see this unique coiffure. But Paddy, a true-born Irishman, does not think there is anything out of the ordinary about it "at all, at all."

"Sure and wasn't that the way my mother sent me off to school," he says. "Who's goin' to tell me she was wrong and why should I be arguing with what she thought was best?. And if it's arguing with men I am, it'll be with my fists."

Paddy has three brothers in Belfast who have stayed with the same hair style all their lives.

"What mother thought best is still good enough for us," Paddy says.

Many young boys and girls who have not had the opportunity of playing tennis, will be urged to join the club, so that they may have the opportunity of learning the game. As a competitive game tennis is coming into its own, and more interest is being shown on the Island than heretofore. Several clubs have joined the Lawn Tennis Association and many competitions are scheduled to be played. Although just in its infancy, the Montague Club hopes that soon it will be able to participate in the playoff games, and thereby give more experience to the younger players.

....*KING'S COUNTY HOSPITAL MEETING— The general meeting of the King's County Hospital was held in the Curling Rink on Thursday with a large crowd in attendance. The meeting was opened by the chairman, Mr. Douglas MacLaren. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. H. J. Hynes, which were adopted as read. The chairman, Mr. MacLaren, on behalf of the trustees gave a report of the activities and asked to be relieved of his duties for the forthcoming period. He also mentioned the loss of several of his colleagues during the past year. Mr. H. J. Hynes was relieved of his duties owing to illness, and Mr. A. E. Sullivan resigned, thereby leaving two vacancies which were temporarily filled by Mr. W. R. Gilbert and Mr. Don Samson, bank managers, who were recently transferred, thus still leaving two vacancies. The annual financial report was read by the secretary, Mrs. H. J. Hynes. It was moved by C. St. Clair Trainor and seconded by Dr. P. MacIntyre, that the report be adopted. A report was given by Mrs. J. D. MacLeod, secretary of the Ladies Auxiliary, followed by a report from Mrs. A. White from the Mercy Club, and another by Mrs. F. Coyle from the Beaver Club. The ladies of the three clubs are to be commended on the splendid work which they have carried on for this worthy cause. Much valuable machinery, linens and nursery material have been purchased by these clubs. New trustees were appointed to replace those who resigned which included Mr. Lester MacLeod and Mr. Rendell of the Bank of Nova Scotia. Mr. Wilfred MacDonald was appointed to replace Mr. Douglas MacLaren. Members of the advisory committee include Mr. Reginald Walsh, Mr. John Donahue, and Mr. M. MacLeod. Mrs. H. J. Hynes resigned as secretary of the hospital. Various items were discussed regarding drainage on the hospital grounds, hard surfacing of grounds and installation of water softener. The meeting was then adjourned.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN WILLIAM MacLEOD

The community of Peter's Road (Montague R. R. 4) was saddened to learn of the recent death of John William MacLeod in his 58th year He was born at Beach Point, December 20th, 1891, a son of the late George and Annie (Matheson) MacLeod.

He loved and grew up in a small country settlement, in due course attending the small school near his home. There he learned the most important lesson of all: that money and material wealth are things which pass: that love, friendship and character are after all the most important in life. It may be truly said that "Jack" as he was familiarly known, never knew what it was to envy any person his aggregation of physical assets.

His home was more than the usual set-up of parents and children. His friends were ever welcome and their visits were eagerly anticipated. He was a man who read extensively and kept himself well in tune with modern progress. An excellent conversationalist, he was also the possessor of a brilliant wit. Although he liked to travel, his interests were so confined to Prince Edward Island, he rarely passed beyond the confines of those places populated by his friends.

His last working days were spent in pursuit of his favorite occupation—fishing. More lucrative work was refused in order that he might join his fisherman friends.

Left to mourn his passing is his widow the former Nettie MacLean; one daughter Rhoda (Mrs. Harvey Veniot) of Stellarton, N. S.; two sons, Fred of Montague and Basil of Stellarton; two sisters, Miss Rhoda MacLeod and Jessie (Mrs. William Secebaugh) of Medford, Mass.; three brothers, George of Watertown, Mass., Allan and Albert of Murray Harbour, P.E.I.

The largely attended funeral service was conducted by his pastor the Rev. C. Henderson. Williard MacLean sang beautifully the deceased's favorite hymn: "Let Your Lower Lights Be Burning". The choir sang: "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Beautiful Garden of Prayer". Pall pearers were: Harry VanIderstine, Stafford MacDonald, Russel Graham, Mont Herring, Jack Jackson and Bert MacLeod. Interment was in the family plot, Peter's Road cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. John W. MacLeod and family wish to thank all their neighbors and friends who were so kind to them during their recent bereavement; also those who sent flowers, cards, messages of sympathy, etc.

BUTTON BRINGS MEMORIES

MONTREAL — (CP) — A brass button picked up at nearby Chambly Canton by Michael Stephenson, newspaper carrier, has been identified as belonging to a soldier of the British Fifth Royal Veterans' Brigade. The unit was stationed there in 1805-14 when the village was Fort Chambly.

THE EYES HAVE IT — Two dachshunds express conflicting reaction in their eyes as they get set to board a plane in Los Angeles for Honolulu. Vincent of Heying Teckel, left, expresses a flat "no." His traveling companion, Redmond's Red Honey, cocks her head with confidence. Looks adventurous to her.
