McLellan who leaves next week for his new field of labour will also be present and have a word for his many friends in Montague who much regret his departure. The approval for the W. & E. Fund will not be forgotten.

MUSIC ENJOYED.—The musical evening of the United Church at Georgetown proved very enjoyable. The choir, was in good voice, and all selections were received with appreciation judging from the favorable comments made after the service. The guest soloist for the evening was Mrs. Walter Dalziel, whose fine voice and mastery in interpretation is well known in the Maritimes, and commands attention wherever heard. Her selection "Vale" was beautifully sung. Earlier in the evening she was heard with Mr. Beers, of Montague. Other soloists were Mr. Chas. Harris, who sang very beautifully "No Room for Me Here," and Miss Ross, who sang "One Sweetly Solenn Thought." Miss Harris and Miss Ross also contributed. A duet by Mrs. Jenkins and Mr. Yorston was well sung, and a trio, Mr. McNeill, Mrs. Jenkins and Mr. Yorston arcas on the Island and provided employment for quite an army of fishermen. Several companies were organized to stock barren bottom and it is supposed that the oysters imported for this purpose were at any rate a devastating disease spread over the river and bay and scarcely an oyster was left alive. It is hoped that the present operations which are being carried out under the direction of Prof. Dodge, an expert in oyster culture, may be instrumental in restoring the beds to their former productivity. Prof. Dodge reports that on some of the old beds he has found oysters ranging in age up to five years, and this would seem to indicate that Nature has been repairing the damage wrought by disease in years past.

with the harmony that has made those three notable in Georgetown, further added to the evening's pleasure. Not to be forgotten was the anthem, "I Was Glad." Mr. Yorston, organist. —A—

Mr and Mrs. Harry Scott and Master Halden Scott spent Sunday at Mr. Percy Stewart's, Hamilton. They were accompanied from North Wiltshire by Mrs. Walton Toomey and little daughters who were in attendance at the Simpson-Ramsay marriage on Wednesday June 20th. On their return Mr and Mrs. Scott were accompanied by Miss Elmh Stewart who will be their guest for several days.

Dr. Saint of Kensington and Rev. D. M. Grant exchanged pulpits on Sunday. The subjects of Dr. Saint's addresses were the metaphors used by Micah namely the dew-drops and the lion, and in presenting the purity, beauty, beneficence, silence and secrecy of the former and the majesty, strength and courage of the latter, the speaker applied these characteristics in a very suggestive manner.

Mr and Mrs. Elmer Taylor, Mrs. George MacKay and Mr and Mrs. Sinclair MacGougan, motored to Souris, Charlottetown and other places in the Eastern part of the Province during the week.

Mr and Mrs. G. W. Ramsay were visitors to Summerside on Monday.

Mr and Mrs. Wm Montgomery and Miss Jean and Jessie and Mr. Stewart Montgomery, Fort Hill were guests at Mr James Donald on Sunday.

Mr Hume Hopgood was in Charlottetown on Monday attending the annual meeting of the P. E. I. Pharmaceutical Association.

Dr. Pearl Hopgood, Halifax and her friend Mrs. Hugh Dickson, Truro were guests for the week end of Mr and Mrs. Hume Hopgood.

Among those in attendance from other parts at the shower given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Bearsto were the following:—Misses Helen Campbell, Velda Campbell Bertha and Ruth Ouliffe, Mr Albert Calbeck of Cape Traverse, Mrs. Stanford Gay, Mrs. H. H. Lefurgey, Miss Ella Gay, Mr. Bernard Harmon, Mrs. W. K. MacGougan, S'ide, Mrs. Ira Huestis and Mrs Barbara Craswell and Mrs William Mill of Clermont.

The shower given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Bearsto was held at her home on Monday evening June 21st and was very largely attended. About one hundred and twenty-five being present. Mrs James A. Campbell Burlington, played the wedding march as the bride to be accompanied by her friend Miss Florence Craswell entered the living room. The presents were opened and the accompanying verses were read by Misses Hazel Hopgood, Muriel MacNutt and Florence Craswell. After a suitable acknowledgement of the gifts by Miss Bearsto, a dainty supper was served. The gifts consisted principally of cut glass, linen, silver ware and several cheques. The popularity of the bride to be was surely attested, by the large number of relatives and friends, and in a more substantial way by the numerous, and suitable gifts for her future home.

Rev. D. M. Grant returned home on Saturday evening after a short motor trip to Halifax N. S.

Mrs Major Taylor returned to her home in Hamilton on Tuesday after a two months visit with friends in Boston.

Mr and Mrs. L. D. MacNutt, Misses Constance and Adele and, Master Dugald MacNutt and Mr Ernest Wright motored to Charlottetown on Sunday and were guests at Dr. E. H. Ramsay and Mr W. A. Huestis.

Misses Hazel and Helen Ramsey are spending a few weeks with their uncle Rev. J. A. Ramsay Moncton, N. B.

Miss Jean Donald is visiting friend in Alberton where she will be in attendance at the marriage of her cousin Miss Gordon.

Miss Lena Donald is spending her holiday at her home in Sea View. Mr and Mrs. Geo. B. MacNutt, S'ide were recent guests of Mr and Mrs. Wallace MacNutt, Danley, (M)
