PRESENTATION

A few weeks ago a number of the friends and relatives in the surrounding districts met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Whelan, Fairville, to give expression in a tangible way of their sympathy towards a life long friend, Mrs. Whelan, by presenting her with an automatic hospital bed. Many of her friends throughout the Province and elsewhere may not be aware that she has been confined to her bed for the past sixteen months, the result of a fall at her own door step. Some very appropriate remarks were made by her Pastor, Rev. P. D. McGuigan, and others. Following is the address:
 Dear Mrs. Whelan:
 Our kind pastor and we, your loving friends and neighbors, have been edified by your good cheer and resignation to God's holy will in the trial you have been called upon to bear by the regrettable accident of more than a year ago, which has left you bedridden with much suffering since that time. We all miss your presence in old St. Joachim's Church, where you and your husband, well advanced in years, had so nobly braved all kinds of weather to be present at the Divine Mysteries. We also miss the clasp of your hand, kind word and cheery smile, and also your presence in our homes. Nor can we ever forget your ready response when help and comfort for the sick was needed. No obstacle ever prevented you even when you had all the care of home and family.

 Actuated then by motives of sympathy and gratitude, we ask you to accept this hospital bed, with the fond hope that it will whittle away the weary days.
 In reply Mr. and Mrs. Whelan, in a few appropriate words, thanked the people for their great kindness and expressed good wishes for their future success.
 Mr. Walter McKenzie, Springfield, was in Kensington on Friday.
