

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

It pays to buy in this province.

A DANCE in aid of Patriotic Fund will be held in the Grand View Hall on Tuesday, Nov. 24.

MRS. L. PARKER RITCHIE will receive for the first time since her marriage at the home of her parents 240 Hillsboro St., Wednesday afternoon and evening, November 25th, 6:30.

INVITATION GIVEN.—An invitation is extended to all ladies in Harrington and vicinity to attend the regular meeting of the Harrington-Winsloe Institute which meets at the home of Mrs. Cephas Nunn, Winsloe Road on the afternoon of the 25th inst. at 2.30.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES.—The first meeting of the Murray River Women's Institute met on the evening of the 6th inst. at the home of Mrs. Philip Lowe. Sixteen members attended. It was decided to name this Institute "Ray of Hope." The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Beck, on the first Friday in December.

FOR WEST INDIES.—Among the passengers on the Royal Mail Steam Packet Caraquez, which sailed Friday morning from Halifax for Bermuda, the West Indies and Demerara was Mrs. Percy Pope, Charlottetown. There are twenty-three passengers in the steerage. The Caraquez had a full cargo.

REV. J. K. CURTIS AT POWNALL.—Rev. J. K. Curtis paid a visit to Pownall on Thursday, the 19th, in the interest of Sunday School work. At 7.30 p. m. a nice gathering greeted him and gave the closest attention to his earnest pleading in behalf of this great work of the Church of God. At the close of his lecture he threw on the screen a number of his pictures greatly to the delight of his audience.

A TRIBUTE.—A correspondent writing to the New Glasgow Enterprise says:—I saw lately the death of Mrs. McKinnon, widow of the late Rev. John McKinnon, at one time minister of Hopewell congregation, which took place at Edinburgh where she had been residing for many years past. I remember Mrs. McKinnon well. She was a lady of more than ordinary education and refinement. Like many another, she left the comforts and conveniences of a city like Edinburgh and spent the greater part of her days in a country parish in Nova Scotia and P. E. Island. But like many another mother in these provinces, she left a most valuable heritage. I think when she gave the present Principal of Pinehill College to the Church and to the world, that was something the church and world would find it difficult to repay. Women that fear the Lord, and leave to society and the church such valuable gifts, they shall be praised.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.—About 2 o'clock on Saturday morning the schooner Dictator, Capt. Day, bound out of port for Wallace, ran into and sank the schooner, Harry B., Capt. Terrio, which was lying at anchor in the stream off and a little to the west of the Acadia Coal Company's pier, says the Pictou Advocate. The Dictator was in ballast; the Harry B. was loaded with Island produce and was in for Sydney. The Dictator struck the Harry B. on her starboard side near the main rigging. The Harry B. commenced to sink at once and her crew had only time to grab their clothes and get on deck. They launched their boat and made their way to the Dictator. In a few minutes the Harry B. was full of water and on her beam ends. The Dictator anchored near by. The owners of the Harry B., Capt. Terrio, and his son, have attached the Dictator and there will likely be an action in the admiralty court. The Harry B. is of 67 tons. She had oats valued at $600, potatoes valued at $500, turnips valued at $40, carrots valued at $40, $300 worth of personal and ship's stores and a deckload of hay. The Dictator is owned by Mr. Waugh of Wallace, and his father-in-law, Capt. Reid, of Wallace, has been looking after his interests. The captain and crew of the Harry B. say that they had put up their anchor light at the proper place and time. The captain and crew of the Dictator say that they saw the light of the Harry B. at the moment of collision but not before.

HEALTHY KIDNEYS NECESSARY.—Backache? Feeling tired? Not as spry as you used to be? Getting old? You are not old. Disordered kidneys make you feel that way. "Penslar" Buchu and Palmetto Compound will tone them up and start you right toward good health. 50c and $1 bottles. E. A. Foster, "Penslar" Drugstore.

RED CROSS MEETING.—Remember the Red Cross meeting in Winsloe Hall on Monday, the 23rd. Meeting will open at 7 o'clock. It is hoped there will be a large attendance.

WAR NUMBER.—The November issue of Sunshine, the official organ of the Sun Insurance Company, Limited, is a war number profusely illustrated and with a war map supplement. The Guardian is indebted to the local superintendent, Mr. J. E. McNutt, for a copy.

COMING PLAY.—On Tuesday evening, December 29th, Miss Gorman will present in the People's Theatre, a three act play entitled "The Prince Chap." She will be assisted by Charlottetown's favorite players. Reserve the date for the treat of the Xmas season. 6630.

FOOTBALL TO-DAY.—The deciding game for the football series, which is now a draw between the Connaughts and St. Dunstan's College, takes place at the A. A. A. grounds this afternoon at 2.30 p. m. A good game will in all probability result as each team will put up a determined effort to get the championship.

RESCUED.—A man named McKenna, said to have been under the influence of liquor at the time, found his way to the end of Mr. Charles Lyons' wharf on Saturday night and fell overboard under the bow of the schooner "Telephone." He was rescued in the nick of time and was warmed up while Dr. Conroy was sent for. He was taken home in the ambulance. It is understood he lives in Sydney street, between Great George and Prince streets.

SPECIAL MUSIC.—At the Central Christian Church yesterday morning and evening the "Bluenose Quartette" rendered several very appropriate selections. These young men are very talented and consecrated and Charlottetown should feel honored to have their services. It is hoped to have them again soon to direct the music at the revival now in progress at the Christian Church. Tonight at 7.45 Rev. Lowell C. McPherson will preach on the subject: "Future Recognition." After the sermon the rite of baptism will be administered to quite a number who gave their hearts to Christ this past week. Services each evening at 7.45. All cordially invited.

SACRED CONCERT.—The Sacred Concert given by the Bluenose Quartette in Market Hall last evening was in every way a splendid success. The hall was crowded to the doors and the programme was beautifully and artistically rendered. The programme consisted of about fourteen selections, in quartets, solos and violin selections. Evangelist Lowell C. McPherson presided and the meeting was closed with the National Anthem and benediction by the chairman. These musicians are trained artists, each possessing a voice much more than ordinary range, volume and melody. In concert they are splendidly balanced, while each, as a soloist, is a master of the musical art. The audience was delighted with their performance and will welcome an opportunity of hearing them again.

DIED SATURDAY.—The death took place on Saturday last of Mrs. John M. Shaw, Brackley Point, at the age of 78 years. She leaves surviving her husband and three sons and three daughters, besides a number of grandchildren.

THE WINTER STEAMERS.—A much speculation as to the service which will be given by the steamers Stanley and Minto on the island route this winter. If the weather is like that of year before last the service should be all right, as the Minto did not miss a trip that year. If the weather is like that of last year the service is apt to be a poor one, for the Minto had to be cut out by the Earl Grey several times last winter. At all events, we will not expect to hear any grumbling from the islanders for their crack ice-breaker, the Earl Grey, is in the service of the allies, keeping open Archangel for Russia. Capt. Reid, of the Minto, was at Tormentine this week making a report on the possibility of running there at the opening of the season.

one best source of energy. But the heat cellar in the world never made a house. And unless the hundreds of thousands of industrial workers in Canada have wages to buy with, there is no use expecting to get up. The workers can't buy if they haven't money. They can't get money without work. They can't get work without the factories being kept open. Factories can't be kept open without orders coming in from the millions of people who live in the land where the factories exist. So that it is plainly and irresistibly the self-interested privilege of every man and woman in Canada to advance his own welfare by spending every dollar possible for things made in Canada, in order to keep this great endless chain in a state of dynamic efficiency. The people have it in their own hands to do it. All it needs is a little quiet and persistent campaign right in a man's own family. And the time to begin it is— Now. 6620

CANADIAN CAVALRY AND MONTREAL GUIDES NOW AT FRONT.

MONTREAL, November 21.—The Montreal Herald-Telegraph says:—According to a private cable received in Montreal from a member of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, that regiment and Lord Strathcona's Horse are now at the front. With them is the detachment of the corps of guides from Montreal. The message which was received here, said:—"Leaving for the continent tomorrow." It came as a private cable and so escaped the censorship. That was a couple of days ago, and since that other messages to local people have hinted that these two regiments had left Salisbury Plain.

MME. CURIE'S GREAT WORK.

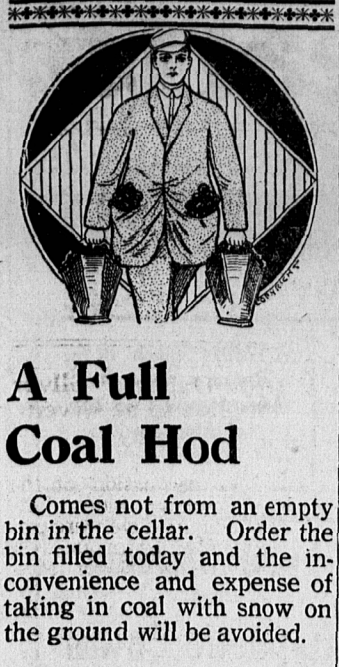

PARIS, November 21.—A service of radio scopic-radiographic automobile ambulances has been organized and fitted up by Mme. Curie, and has added to France's medical war equipment. The automobiles are run between the base hospitals and engaged in locating bullets lodged in wounded soldiers. By means of these examinations, the saving of hundreds of lives by expediting and facilitating the extraction of wounds in the brain and the most remarkable feature of the work of Mme. Curie's automobile radiographic apparatus is that the location of wounds in the brain and the speedy ensuing operation frequently saves the soldiers from paralysis.
